ON THE COVER:

The 2016 Houston Astros Media Guide cover looks back on a monumental 2015 season, which included the franchise's first playoff appearance in a decade and a multitude of individual awards for Dallas Keuchel, Jose Altuve and Carlos Correa.

The Astros trip to the playoffs was the capstone of a wildly successful season on the diamond for the local nine. The club earned the 11th postseason appearance in franchise history and their third as a Wild Card participant. Houston would advance to the American League Division Series by defeating the Yankees in the Wild Card Game in New York. In the ALDS, the Astros pushed the eventual World Series Champion Kansas City Royals to five games in what many consider to be the toughest series of the 2016 postseason for Kansas City.

The team's success was driven by the players on the field, as Keuchel earned the AL Cy Young Award and took home his second consecutive Gold Glove Award. Altuve, who has been with the organization since 2006, sparked the Astros by earning his second consecutive Silver Slugger Award and his first Gold Glove. Meanwhile, Correa, who joined the team in June, cemented himself as one of the top players in the Major Leagues by earning the 2015 AL Rookie of the Year Award.

JOAQUIN ANDUJAR: On Sept. 8, 2015, four-time All-Star pitcher Joaquin Andujar passed away in his native Dominican Republic at the age of 62... Andujar, who began and ended his career with the Astros, spent seven (1976-1981, 1988) of his 13 Major League seasons with Houston, making the NL All-Star Team in an Astros uniform in 1977 and 1979...he made a name for himself nationally while pitching for the Cardinals in 1982, as he went 3-0 in three postseason starts, including a win in his World Series Game 7 start, in which he pitched 7.0 innings in the Cardinals 6-3 win over Milwaukee...in addition to his time with Houston and St. Louis, Andujar also pitched two seasons (1986-88) for Oakland...he will be remembered for his enthusiasm for the game and as a passionate competitor and a well-liked teammate.

YOGI BERRA: Major League Baseball lost Hall of Fame catcher and former Major League manager Yogi Berra on Tuesday, Sept. 22, 2015, at the age of 90...the slugging catcher was an anchor of 10 World Championship New York Yankee teams, a three-time American League Most Valuable Player and a 15-time All-Star... the Hall of Famer played on more World Championship and pennant-winning clubs than any player in the history of our National Pastime...he made his mark in Houston as the Astros bench coach for four seasons from 1986-89...he's credited by many in the Astros organization as having a tremendous impact on the young players on the team, none bigger than fellow Hall of Famer Craig Biggio, who debuted for the club in 1988... born to Italian immigrant parents in St. Louis, Lawrence Peter Berra was a true American icon, as he grew up to serve his country on D-Day as a member of the U.S. Navy...upon his return from his service, he often played in the substantial shadows of Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle, and yet he quietly became no less than one of the most accomplished players in baseball history himself... while his pattented catch-phrases and endorsement deals will forever live, he will remembered by those who knew him as a great baseball man, with extreme humility and integrity.

GENE ELSTON: Longtime Astros broadcaster and a member of the original Colt .45s broadcasting team, Gene Elston passed away on Sept. 5, 2015, at the age of 93...Elston broadcast baseball, primarily on radio, for close to 47 years in his illustrious career...he will be best remembered delivering baseball to a new legion of fans in the Houston region and beyond as the original voice of the expansion Houston Colt .45s, starting in 1962...his career with the Colt .45s and Astros would span 25 seasons (1962-86), during which he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history... his Colt .45s/Astros career highlights include: 11 no-hitters, including Mike Scott's N.L. West clinching effort over the Giants on Sept. 25, 1986, Nolan Ryan's career strikeout number 3,509 on April 27, 1983, topping Walter Johnson's all-time mark, and the Astros clinching their first postseason berth in franchise history in the October 6, 1980, one-game playoff at Dodger Stadium...Elston was honored several times throughout his long career, with the highlight coming in 2006 when he won the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for major contributions to baseball...additionally, Elston was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993 and the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in 2002...Elston's first MLB broadcasting opportunity came in 1954 with the Chicago Cubs...in 1958, he was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired on over 350 stations across the nation... in 1961, Elston called games for the Houston Buffs minor league club before transitioning to the Colt .45s in 1962... Following his 25-year stint with Colt .45s/ Astros, Elston broadcast both regular season and postseason MLB games nationally for CBS Radio through 1997.

DARRYL HAMILTON: A resident of Houston since 1986, the local and baseball communities lost former Major League Player and Houston sportscaster Darryl Hamilton on June 21, 2015...a native of Baton Rouge, LA, Hamilton attended Nicholls State University, where he made the baseball team as a non-scholarship athlete, this coming after not play high school baseball...at Nicholls, Hamilton was an All-American, and was drafted in 1986 by the Milwaukee Brewers... he quickly moved through the minor leagues culminating with his call-up to the Majors in 1988...he went on to play 13 seasons with Milwaukee, Texas, San Francisco, Colorado and the New York Mets... following his retirement as a player, Hamilton joined the media community, serving as a radio analyst for the Los Angeles Angels...he would appear regularly on NBC Sports Network's "SportsTalk" and on KPRC-TV (NBC) in Houston...in 2013, Hamilton joined the MLB Network staff and served as an analyst for the network until his passing.

MILO HAMILTON: Astros Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton passed away on Sept. 17, 2015, in Houston at the age of 88...although he broadcast for other clubs, Hamilton is best known for his long tenure as the radio voice of the Astros... Hamilton joined the Astros radio broadcast team in 1985, and would remain as the primary, play-by-play voice until his retirement following the 2012 season... after his retirement, Hamilton served as a guest radio commentator for select Astros home games from 2013-15, with his final stint in the booth coming last season on Sunday, June 28, 2015...prior to arriving in Houston, Hamilton's Major League broadcasting career included stints with St. Louis, both Chicago clubs, Atlanta and Pittsburgh...globally, Hamilton is widely-known for his radio call of Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974, while serving as the Braves play-by-play announcer...other highlights from Hamilton's illustrious career include calling 11 no-hitters and serving as the play-by-play announcer for the 1979 World Champion Pirates...calls from his Astros career that are immortalized in franchise history include Nolan Ryan's 4,000th career strikeout, Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit, Chris Burke's historic, 18th-inning walkoff home run in Game 4 of the 2005 National League Division Series and the Astros pennant-winning, Game 6 victory at St. Louis in the 2005 NLCS...in 1992, Hamilton received the broadcasting industry's highest honor, receiving the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame...overall, he was inducted in to six Hall of Fames during his illustrious career...outside the broadcast booth, Hamilton became known for his fine work as a master of ceremonies at Astros-related events and celebrations, including several pregame, player retirement ceremonies...he also served as the host of the Astros Opening Day ceremonies each year, even taking part in the 2015 Opening Day festivities in a reduced role...Milo leaves behind his son Mark "Muggsy" and a generation of Astros fans who were reached by Milo, The Voice of the Astros.

KEN JOHNSON: On Nov. 21, 2015, former Astros pitcher Ken Johnson passed away in his hometown of Pineville, La., at the age of 82... Johnson had a 13-year Major League career (1958-70), which included a four-year stint with the Astros from 1962-65...after serving in the Army, spending a year at the University of South Carolina and playing six seasons of minor league baseball, Johnson made his Major League debut for the Kansas City Athletics in 1958...he came to Houston via the expansion draft for the 1962 season and was a member of the original Colt .45s ballclub, as well as the first Astros team to call the Astrodome home in 1965...Johnson holds the distinction as the only player in Major League history to earn a loss after tossing a 9.0 inning no-hitter, which he did so on April 23, 1964, in a 1-0 defeat to the visiting Cincinnati Reds...he retired from his playing career following the 1970 season, but stayed active in the collegiate level, serving as a community service coordinator at Palm Beach Atlantic University in Florida and later as a baseball coach at Louisiana College in Pineville.

JOSE ROSARIO: Astros minor league pitcher Jose Rosario was tragically killed in an auto accident in his native Dominican Republic on Jan. 24, 2016...at just 20 years old, Rosario had pitched in the Astros system for two seasons, splitting his 2015 campaign between the Dominican Summer League and the Gulf Coast League...he will be remembered as a long, lanky-framed pitcher with tremendous ability, an outgoing personality and an ever-positive disposition...he was a true student of the game and was constantly looking to learn and improve his abilities...he was also a supportive teammate, as he made it a point to encourage his fellow Astros and deliver that message with a smile on his face.

AL ROSEN: Former Astros General Manager Al Rosen passed away on March 14, 2015, at the age of 91...the fifth general manager in Astros franchise history, Rosen served in that position for five seasons, from 1981-85, guiding the 1981 club to the Divisional Round of the playoffs... his baseball career spanned parts of five decades as an All-Star player and executive...his playing career lasted 10 seasons, all with Cleveland, where he was a four-time All-Star from 1952-55... surprisingly, Rosen retired as a player and became a stockbroker in 1957, an occupation he held for 22 years before rejoining baseball as the President and CEO on the New York Yankees in 1978... after leaving New York, Rosen joined the Astros front office and then moved on to San Francisco, where he would earn the National League Executive of the Year in 1989.

WALT WILLIAMS: Colt .45s outfielder Walt Williams, who debuted for the club in 1964, passed away on Jan. 23, 2016, at the age of 72...nicknamed "No Neck" by a Colts coach in 1964, Williams went on to play parts of 10 Major League seasons with Houston (1964), Chicago-AL (1967-72), Cleveland (1973) and New York-AL (1974-75)...a native of Brownwood, Texas, Williams was signed by Houston as an amateur free agent in 1963...he made his Major League debut for Houston in 1964 and appeared in 10 games as a rookie... Williams finished his career appearing in 842 games and had a lifetime .270 batting average with 106 doubles, 33 home runs and 173 RBI.

ASTROS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

OVERVIEW

The Community Relations and Foundation departments manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs, focusing primarily on supporting inner-city youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against cancer and helping Houston's homeless community. For more information on the Astros community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation.

ASTROS AUTOGRAPHED ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at www.astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation, the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros, seeks to harness the passion of baseball fans to support youth baseball and softball programs serving at-risk children and teens. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros Urban Youth Academy and the Astros RBI and JrRBI programs.

The Astros Foundation also supports our nation's military and honors those who have selflessly served our country. We work to honor our military members, past and present, and provide opportunities for families of active-duty military members to enjoy a ballgame all season long.

Throughout the year, the Astros proudly partner with several organizations that support the fight against cancer in the Houston community, including the Sunshine Kids, Ronald McDonald House, MD Anderson and many others.

During the 2015 season, the Astros Foundation hosted three major fundraising events: Picnic in the Park, Astros Foundation Golf Classic and Badges & Bases H-Town Rundown. These events generated funds for the Foundation's cornerstone programs, including Community Leaders, the Astros Urban Youth Academy and RBI program.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

The Community Leaders program provides newly renovated baseball and softball fields to Houston-area children through an $18 million investment in city-owned public parks over a five-year period. Developed by Astros Owner Jim Crane, the Community Leaders initiative is in collaboration with the City of Houston, local corporations and the Astros Foundation. All renovations and additional safety features are funded by the Community Leaders program at no cost to taxpayers.

As of early 2016, 20 fields in eight parks have been renovated with additional refurbishments currently underway. The program also includes year-round field maintenance and currently serves more than 2,500 children. Additional features include player and coaching clinics, complimentary tickets to Astros games, equipment, free uniforms and special visits from Astros players and front office personnel.

The result of these efforts is an immeasurable positive impact throughout the Houston community.

ASTROS URBAN YOUTH ACADEMY
2800 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77008

The Astros Urban Youth Academy (UYA) provides free baseball and softball instruction, life skills training and academic support to at-risk youth in Houston. The UYA is home to the Astros Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) and JrRBI programs, baseball and softball summer camps and clinics. Additionally, UYA experienced staff members provide mentoring, leadership development and assistance with the college application process.

Organized in 1989, Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) is a Major League Baseball program that provides young athletes an opportunity to combine athletics and academics. In 2015, all Houston RBI teams, including the Junior Baseball, Senior Baseball and Softball teams, advanced to the MLB RBI World Series, marking the most-ever for any city in RBI World Series history.

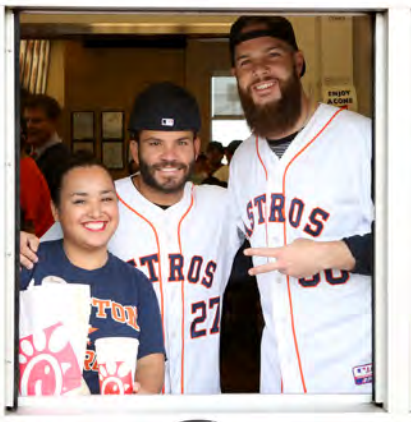

ASTROS 2016 CARAVAN AND FANFEST

The 2016 Houston Astros Caravan presented by Academy Sports + Outdoors began on Monday, Jan. 18 in an effort to connect with Astros fans throughout Houston and central and south Texas. The community outreach tour gave Astros players and broadcasters an opportunity to engage with and thank fans for their unwavering support. The Caravan also engaged with local first responders, stopped at several different community centers, visited military facilities and hospitals and conducted baseball and softball clinics. Additionally, the Astros hosted "Caravan Jams" in specific markets, which featured music, inflatables, traditional baseball fare and interaction with players through public Q&As.

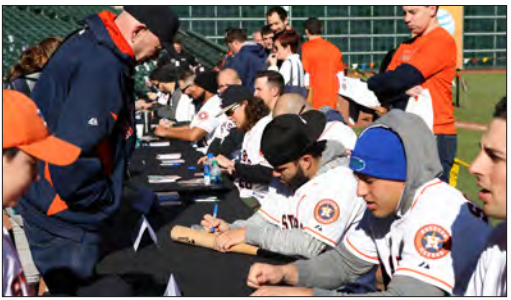

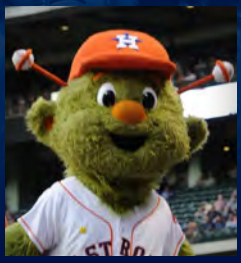

Astros FanFest concluded the week-long Caravan at Minute Maid Park on Saturday, Jan. 23 with activities for all ages including autograph sessions with many current and former players, swings in the Astros batting cages, running the bases, bullpen throwing sessions, an interactive kids zone, fan forums with front office staff current players, a vendor expo, clubhouse hours, a dedicated Social Media Zone and PlazaFest which included a live petting zoo. The majority of FanFest proceeds benefitted the Astros Foundation's programs for at-risk children and teens.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2015: When the Astros took it to new heights in 2015 by making the postseason for the first time in a decade, Orbit made sure to keep stride with his super-talented human teammates! In the community, Orbit continued to make headlines by once again taking on the BP MS 150 bike ride from Houston to Austin, this time teaming up with other local Houston mascots to tag-team the event, as well as the Cypress Triathlon in July! Additionally, Orbit launched a series of educational assembly shows geared toward elementary schools that cover topics such as literacy, anti-bullying, leading a healthy lifestyle, and saying no to drugs. On the field, Orbit managed to garner nearly a quarter of a billion media hits online with his dance routines as well as his interactions with players like Mike Trout, Chris Archer, Albert Pujols, Josh Reddick and Adam Jones. For his contributions in the ballpark, the city of Houston, and the hearts of people all over the world, Orbit was named the "Best Mascot in Houston" by the Houston Press and was also nominated for yet another "Greatness in Baseball" Award by MLB.com as the "Best Trending Topic." To cap it all off, Orbit ended the year by being named the 2015 Best Mascot by GameOps.com, an award he has earned for the second year in a row – a feat only accomplished by three other mascots in the site's 15-year history! Orbit is looking forward to bringing even more signature shenanigans and hilarious hijinks in 2016 and for many light-years to come!

NOTES

- HE'S KIND OF A BIG DEAL: Orbit was named the two-time Best Mascot by GameOps.com, a feat accomplished by only three other mascots in the site's 15-year history
- FAVORITE FOODS: Moon Pies, astronaut ice cream, BBQ and breakfast tacos
- FAVORITE MOVIES: E.T., Men in Black, Star Wars
- FAVORITE BOOK: The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy
- FAVORITE COLOR: Blue and orange... and green
- FAVORITE DANCE MOVE: The moonwalk
- LIKES: Hugs, high fives, stars and Astros fans
- DISLIKES: Black holes, evil emperors

2014: As successful as Orbit's inaugural season was, it proved to be nothing more than batting practice for what became known as the "Season of Orbit" by MLB.com. Orbit kicked off 2014 by participating in the BP MS 150, a 180-mile bike ride from Houston to Austin hosted by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. On the field, Orbit's humorous routines included interaction with several of MLB's top players, including Jose Bautista, Adrian Beltre, Coco Crisp and David Ortiz. These creative stunts earned him numerous appearances and mentions on several national media outlets, including ESPN, Fox Sports and MTV. Orbit's hijinks eventually caught the attention of SportsCenter, who put in the call to have Orbit star in his very first "This Is SportsCenter" commercial. As if the national exposure wasn't enough, soon Orbit took his act across the globe, being selected as the only mascot to represent Major League Baseball's All-Star team in the 2014 Japan All-Star Series, a seven-game, 12-day trip to Japan in November which stopped in Osaka, Tokyo, Sapporo and Okinawa. Orbit was soon recognized for his efforts both on and off the field when he was nominated not once but twice for the Greatness in Baseball Yearly Awards (GIBBYs) by MLB.com, and was eventually named the 2014 Best Mascot by GameOps.com! Orbit became the very first MLB mascot to win the award among all professional and collegiate sports leagues in North America.

2013: Orbit made his triumphant return prior to the 2013 season following a 12-year hiatus after serving as the Astros official mascot during the 1990-1999 seasons. If 2013 proved anything, it was that Orbit didn't rest on his laurels during his 12-year space-cation… he was just winding up! Within the first few months of 2013, Orbit won the inaugural "Mascot Madness" contest by Big League Stew and even scaled the side of the Four Seasons hotel in downtown Houston! Once the season began, Orbit's game day performances received quite a bit of attention, garnering national recognition from ESPN, MLB Network, CBS Sports, and Yahoo! Sports. But Orbit didn't stop there – his Big and Bright Friday Night Fireworks performances became the stuff of legend, paying tribute to everyone from Michael Jackson to the Backstreet Boys. Off the field, Orbit rang in an impressive 275 community appearances in his first year back in Houston, performing at birthday parties, corporate events, community festivals, charity functions, and everything in between! Orbit solidified his place back home in H-town for good.

JIM CRANE

OWNER + CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, when Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, a new era of Astros baseball began.

As the new Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into place. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim has the credentials to make the Astros a winning team both on and off the field.

From the start, Jim has been clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system, and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In 2015, the Astros made significant progress by reaching the postseason for the first time in a decade, boasting a Cy Young Award winner, a Rookie of the Year, two Gold Glove Award winners and a Silver Sluger Award winner, and also being named the Best Farm System of the 2015 season by MiLB.com.

The Astros have also supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives under Jim's leadership. In 2014, the Astros hosted MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities, a series of events developed by MLB to pay tribute to those who fought for equal rights both on and off the field. The Astros also hosted the 2013 Diversity Summit, MLB's sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair, as well as the 2012 and 2013 Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure. Houston also hosted the 2013 Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of some of the top high school players in the country.

The Early Years

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the caring, family atmosphere on the Cardinals team and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

Passion for the Game

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. He had a four-year record of 21-8 with an earned-run average of 2.42, and ranks first in career complete games (23), first in career shutouts (7) and third in career strikeouts (215). Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. In October 2015, Jim and the UCM Foundation announced plans to upgrade the university's baseball facility with a new synthetic turf playing surface in a continuing effort to make the Central Missouri baseball program one of the best in the country. .

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010.

Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. One of his first initiatives was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which is a collaboration between the Houston Astros, Houston-based corporations, the City of Houston, Mayor Annise Parker and the Houston Parks and Recreation Department. This ambitious endeavor will contribute approximately $18 million to the city over a five year period to refurbish youth baseball and softball fields in disadvantaged neighborhoods throughout the city. Additional features include player and coaching clinics, complimentary tickets to Astros home games, equipment and special visits from Astros players and front office personnel. As of January 2016, 20 different fields have opened at Diez, Sunnyside, Moody, Ingrando, Melrose, Hidalgo, Denver Harbor and Stude Parks as part of the Community Leaders program.

Jim personally developed the Community Leaders program, which offers corporations the opportunity to partner with the Astros and the Astros Foundation to become part of a team that will improve several city neighborhoods through the game of baseball.

"Baseball was very important to my own development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities I had through baseball."

REID RYAN

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Reid Ryan enters his fourth season with the Astros after being named the club's President of Business Operations on May 17, 2013. Reid, 44, is one of the youngest team presidents in the game and brings enthusiasm and energy to the organization, while also providing a wealth of experience working in professional baseball.

From day one, Reid has emphasized the importance of the fan experience and has made it a personal mission to openly engage with the Astros fan base. At nearly every home game, Reid can be found in the stands, speaking with Astros fans on a personal level. Within a few weeks of starting his new position and making his rounds through the ballpark, Reid used that fan feedback to make some changes. He followed up on a specific request to have the ballpark opened earlier in order to give fans access to Astros batting practice, which is now stadium policy. Whether he's in the ballpark on game days or on the Community Leaders ball fields participating in youth baseball and softball clinics with local at-risk children and teens, Reid takes pride in being an active member of the Houston community.

Before joining the Astros, Reid was the founder and CEO of both the Corpus Christi Hooks and the Round Rock Express minor league franchises, both of which are perennially lauded as two of the top franchises in minor league attendance, stadium satisfaction and franchise value. Shortly after coming on board in Houston, Reid continued to affect positive change by bringing the Corpus Christi Hooks into the fold as an owned and operated affiliate of the Houston Astros. The Round Rock Express remains the Triple A affiliate of the Texas Rangers.

Reid's history with Texas baseball goes back decades. During the 1980s, Reid was a bat boy for the Astros while his father and Hall of Famer Nolan was an All-Star pitcher in the Astrodome. He later pitched at the University of Texas and TCU, playing a part in two Southwest Conference Titles (Texas '91, TCU '94). Reid went on to pitch in the minor leagues for two seasons (1994-95) in the Rangers system after being selected in the 17th round of the June 1994 Draft.

A long-time respected member of minor league baseball's leadership group, Reid has maintained his ownership interests in the Pacific Coast League's Round Rock Express. He currently serves as the Texas League (Corpus Christi Hooks) Board of Trustees representative and is the Finance Chairman for minor league baseball. Recently, Reid has become active with the Major League Baseball Game Presentation, Marketing and Youth Programs Committee.

Reid is involved in several other business ventures including R Bank, a Texas-based community bank chartered in Round Rock, Texas, for which he serves as a founding board member and organizer. Reid is an active member in the Houston chapter of Young Presidents Organization, on the board of the Greater Houston Partnership, a board member for the Spring Spirit Baseball and recently served as Honorary Chair for the Covenant House executive sleep out. Ryan is also a member of Second Baptist Church Houston. His passions include spending time watching his kids play youth sports and spending time at the Ryan family ranch. He and his wife Nicole are the proud parents of one son, Jackson (16), and two daughters, Victoria (14) and Ella (11). The Ryan family lives in Houston.

JEFF LUHNOW

GENERAL MANAGER

Jeff Luhnow was named the 12th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Dec. 7, 2011. Since Luhnow took over the baseball operations functions, the Astros Major League club has transformed into a contender with top-tier young talent, and possesses one of the best player pipelines in the industry.

In 2015, the Houston Astros advanced to the postseason for the first time in a decade, making it to the American League Division Series versus the eventual World Series Champion Kansas City Royals. Astros farm system product and Cy Young Award winner Dallas Keuchel went undefeated at home, anchoring a pitching staff that finished the season with the best team ERA (3.57) in the American League. The first two draft picks of Luhnow's tenure as Astros GM, Carlos Correa and Lance McCullers, debuted in 2015 and made immediate, significant contributions to the Major League club. Correa led all AL rookies in home runs (22), OPS (.857) and slugging percentage (.512) on his way to receiving American League Rookie of the Year honors. McCullers led all AL rookie pitchers in WAR (2.8) with a 3.22 ERA and 129 strikeouts in 22 Major League starts. Both promise to help shape the increasingly strong core of young Astros players moving forward.

Veteran second baseman Jose Altuve turned in another strong season, receiving his third All-Star nomination, second Silver Slugger Award and first Gold Glove Award. The Astros bullpen experienced a major turnaround thanks to Luhnow's acquisitions of Will Harris, Luke Gregerson and Pat Neshek, who led the Astros bullpen from 29th in the Majors in 2014 to sixth in 2015. Colby Rasmus, whom Luhnow drafted for the Cardinals in 2005 and signed as a free agent prior to 2015, proved essential in the postseason for Houston, belting four home runs in six postseason games.

After unprecedented success in the minor leagues this year, the Astros were named the Best Farm System in all of baseball by MiLB.com. The Astros minor league system posted the best combined overall record among all 30 organizations during the regular season with a 502-405 mark. Seven Astros affiliates made it to the playoffs, becoming the second organization since 2005 to have seven minor league teams qualify for the playoffs in a single year. Of the Astros seven playoff teams, the Triple A Fresno Grizzlies and Rookie Level Greeneville Astros each captured championship titles in their respective leagues. Several of Luhnow's draft picks were tapped for top minor league honors, including 2013 draft pick Jon Kemmer (Texas League batting champion), 2015 draft pick Bobby Wernes (New York-Penn League batting champion) and 2014 draft pick A.J. Reed, who led all of minor league baseball in home runs, RBI and OPS while batting .340, and was recently named Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year, ESPN.com Prospect of the Year, California League MVP and MiLB Offensive Player of the Year.

Prior to joining the Astros, Luhnow spent eight years with the St. Louis Cardinals as Vice President of Baseball Development (2003-2005), Vice President of Player Procurement (2005), and Vice President of Scouting and Player Development (2006-2011). During much of his time with the Cardinals, he oversaw the scouting, international, and player development functions of the club that brought in many players instrumental to the 2011 World Series victory, the 2012 NLCS team and the 2013 World Series team. Of the 25 players on the Cardinals 2013 World Series roster, 16 were drafted while Luhnow oversaw player development and scouting.

Jeff founded Archetype Solutions, where he served as President and COO before joining the Cardinals organization. His background also includes stints as General Manager and Vice President of Marketing at Petstore.com, and five years with the global management consulting firm of McKinsey and Company.

Jeff is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with dual Bachelor of Science degrees in economics and engineering. He also earned his MBA from Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. Jeff is a U.S. citizen, but was born and spent more than 15 years in Mexico City, Mexico, and is fluent in Spanish.

He and his wife, Gina, reside in Houston. Jeff has three children, Elizabeth, Jeffrey and newest addition Henry.

NOLAN RYAN

EXECUTIVE ADVISOR

Nolan Ryan, one of the most decorated pitchers in Major League Baseball history, enters his third season with the Astros organization as the club's Executive Advisor. In his current role, Nolan serves as an advisor to Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, General Manager Jeff Luhnow and his son, President of Business Operations Reid Ryan. Nolan brings over 45 seasons of baseball experience as a player and executive to the ballclub.

Throughout his storied career, Nolan has achieved success in baseball both on and off the field. As a pitcher, he was one of the best ever, tallying 324 career wins in his Major League record 27-year career while establishing all-time records in strikeouts (5,714) and no-hitters with seven (also threw 12 one-hitters). A native of nearby Alvin, Texas, Nolan signed with the Astros prior to the 1980 season and would pitch for nine seasons (1980-88) in Houston, his most for any club. Prior to his arrival, the Astros had not made the postseason in their history. However, in his nine seasons, Houston made the playoffs three times (1980, 1981, 1986), falling just shy of the NL Pennant in both 1980 and 1986. On July 25, 1999, Ryan was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in what was his first year of eligibility.

After retiring as a player following the 1993 season, Ryan worked in the Texas Rangers front office before returning to the Astros front office in February 2004. In his four years as Special Assistant to the General Manager, he assisted the baseball operations staff in a variety of areas on the Major and minor league levels. In his first two seasons back with Houston, the Astros enjoyed great success, falling one game shy of winning the NL Pennant in 2004 before capturing the pennant in 2005 to become the first team from Texas ever to play in a World Series.

Most recently, Nolan served as CEO and President of the Texas Rangers and was part of the team's ownership group. He oversaw baseball and business operations for the franchise and was a member of the Board of Directors. Under Nolan's leadership, the Rangers had the highest per-game attendance increase in the Majors from 2008 to 2009 and the third largest increase from 2009 to 2010. The club established single-season home attendance records in 2011 and 2012, surpassing the 3 million mark for the first time in franchise history in 2012. His influence on baseball operations helped the Rangers to three consecutive postseason appearances, including consecutive American League championships in 2010 and 2011.

Nolan compiled a career 324-292 record with a 3.19 ERA in 807 appearances in an unprecedented 27 seasons with the New York Mets (1966; 1968-71), California Angels (1972-79), Astros (1980-88), and Rangers (1989-93). The eight-time All-Star owned or shared 53 Major League records. He is fifth in lifetime innings (5387.0), tied for seventh in shutouts (61), and tied for 13th in victories while his 773 starts are second only to Cy Young (815).

In his nine seasons with the Astros, Nolan posted a 106-94 record with a 3.13 ERA in 1854.2 innings over his 282 starts. He holds the franchise records for career strikeouts in an Astros uniform (1,866) and ERA in a single season (1.69 in 1981). He represented Houston in the All-Star Game twice (1981, 1985) and also clinched both of his NL pitching titles in an Astros uniform (1981, 1987). The club retired his number, 34, in 1996.

Off the field, The Nolan Ryan Foundation built the Nolan Ryan Center for Continuing Education at Alvin Community College, a facility which opened in 1996. He also sponsors the Nolan Ryan Scholarship Fund at Alvin Community College.

Nolan and his wife, Ruth, were married on June 26, 1967, and have three children: Robert Reid (11/21/71), Nolan Reese (1/21/76), and Wendy Lynn (3/22/77). Nolan and Ruth have seven grandchildren.

Nolan was born on Jan. 31, 1947, in Refugio, Texas. His family moved to Alvin when he was six weeks old, and he remained an Alvin resident until 2003, when the Ryans moved to Georgetown.

JAY EDMISTON

DIRECTOR, FLORIDA OPERATIONS

Jay Edmiston began his career with the Houston Astros in 1986 as a batboy, and continues his tenure with the organization as the Director of Florida Operations in 2016. Jay's responsibilities include coordination of player and staff travel to and from affiliate clubs, management of clubhouse operation for all Florida programs, coordination of player and staff housing for all Florida programs and complex security, among other duties.

Jay has served the Astros organization in several different capacities over the years, including as Assistant Director of Baseball Operations (2005-2009), Minor League Administrator (2002-2005), General Manager of the Martinsville Astros (2001-2002) and GM of the Kissimmee Cobras (1999-2000). Prior to those positions, Jay assisted in the clubhouse and served as an equipment manager.

Jay married his wife Michelle in November of 2011. The two have a son, Blake Curtis, who was born on July 6, 2015, and a chocolate lab, Boo Boo. The Edmistons reside in Orlando, Fla.

MIKE ELIAS

DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Since joining the Astros in January 2012, Mike Elias has served as one of the major contributors to the accumulation of young talent that has occurred during General Manager Jeff Luhnow's tenure. His involvement and leadership in the organization's amateur draft efforts have helped to rapidly elevate the Astros' talent pipeline to one of the best in baseball and furnished key pieces that contributed to the club's ALDS berth in 2015.

In 2012, as Special Assistant to the GM—Scouting, Mike was a driving force behind the decision to select Carlos Correa with the first overall pick, and helped assemble a draft class that was named the year's best by Baseball America and has already graduated three players to the Major League roster. The club's draft classes from 2013 and 2014 include a number of baseball's current top prospects and supplied players who were traded for Major League talent in 2015. And the Astros most recent draft in 2015 was rated best in baseball by both MLB.com and Baseball America, while the Astros were selected as 2015 Best Farm System by MiLB.com.

Mike, 33, began his career as an area scout with the St. Louis Cardinals in 2007 and was promoted to Manager of Amateur Scouting in 2010. While with the Cardinals, he signed and scouted several Major League players and contributed to the development of a scouting department and draft process that supported one of the baseball's top farm systems.

Mike is a graduate of Yale University, where he was a left-handed pitcher on the varsity baseball team, earning four letters. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Houston.

MIKE FAST

DIRECTOR, RESEARCH + DEVELOPMENT

Mike Fast joined the Astros in February 2012 and was named Director of Research and Development in October 2015. In his role, Mike leads the operation of the Astros analytical group and sets the vision for the application of information within baseball operations. He assists with player evaluations and player transactions.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mike was an author for Baseball Prospectus, where he developed a large following and a reputation as a statistical expert, conducting several unique, in-depth studies. He was previously an author for The Hardball Times and MVN.com.

Mike also worked for 17 years as a semiconductor engineer, most recently with Advanced Micro Devices. A graduate of the University of Oklahoma with a degree in engineering physics, Mike and his wife, Lori, reside in Kingwood, Texas, with their four children: Madeleine, Zachary, Amelie, and Analise.

BILL FIRKUS

DIRECTOR, SPORTS MEDICINE + PERFORMANCE

Bill Firkus joined the Astros in July 2013 and was named Director of Sports Medicine and Performance in October 2015. In his role, Bill is focused on bringing a competitive advantage to the Astros through health. In addition, Bill sets the vision for and leads the operations of the Astros Sports Medicine and Performance team.

Prior to joining the Astros, Bill's work in the healthcare field included nearly three years in healthcare investment banking with Piper Jaffray and nearly four years in marketing and strategy with Medtronic, the largest medical device manufacturer in the world.

Bill received his bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Wisconsin, Madison and his MBA from the University of California, Berkeley. He resides in Houston.

KEVIN GOLDSTEIN

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

In addition to consulting with the General Manager on trades, free agent signings and other baseball transactions, Kevin oversees the Astros pro scouting efforts, which includes comprehensive scouting of both minor league and Major League players across the 30 MLB clubs as well as independent leagues and foreign professional leagues.

Kevin also assists in both international and amateur scouting efforts, while also working with player development and decision sciences to ensure the proper integration of scouting information in various decision-making processes.

Prior to joining the Astros, Kevin developed a reputation as one of the top specialists in scouting and player development for several years as a national writer for Baseball Prospectus and ESPN.

Kevin resides in Dekalb, Ill., with his partner Margaret and son Cameron (21). He is an active supporter of animal causes, and owns four adopted pets with a dog and three cats.

QUINTON MCCRACKEN

DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Quinton McCracken was named Astros Director of Player Personnel on Oct. 19, 2015, after serving three seasons as the Director of Player Development. McCracken enters his fourth full season with the Houston club.

During his tenure as Director of Player Development, McCracken oversaw tremendous growth across all of the Astros affiliate clubs. In 2015, the Astros were named the Best Farm System of the year by MiLB.com, posting the best combined overall minor league record among all 30 organizations during the regular season with a 502-405 (.553) mark. Seven Astros affiliates qualified for the playoffs, and two teams, the Triple A Fresno Grizzles and the Rookie Level Greeneville Astros, captured championship titles in their respective leagues.

Quinton, 45, spent two seasons working in the Arizona Diamondbacks front office as their Assistant Director of Player Development. In that role, he worked with all aspects of Arizona's minor league system and served as a liaison between the Major League club and their minor league affiliates.

Quinton enjoyed a 12-year Major League playing career (1995-2006) as a speedy outfielder, which included stints with the Rockies, Devil Rays, Twins, D-backs, Mariners and Reds. In 999 Major League games, he hit .274 with 21 home runs, 244 RBI and 89 stolen bases.

Quinton was a 25th-round selection out of Duke University in the 1992 June draft. While at Duke, he was a four-year starter in both baseball and football and was a member of Steve Spurrier's 1989 ACC Co-Championship football team while earning his degree in political science and history.

DAN O'NEILL

DIRECTOR, TEAM OPERATIONS

The 2016 season will be Dan O'Neill's fourth with the Astros organization. As the Astros Director of Team Operations, Dan is responsible for Major League team operations, including travel and team services, and coordination of Astros Major League Spring Training. He also oversees the Astros Clubhouse, Video and Major League Advance Information departments.

Previously, Dan spent seven years in the hedge fund industry with Mesirow Advanced Strategies, Inc., a global multi-strategy hedge fund of funds, and as partner and Chief Operating Officer of Oak Street Capital Management, LLC, a long/short equity hedge fund, in Chicago, Ill.

Dan holds a B.A. from the University of Illinois and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He was a four-year varsity letter winner for the Fighting Illini baseball team as an outfielder and was named First-Team All-Big Ten in 1998. He was selected by Philadelphia in the 1999 Major League June draft and played two seasons in the Phillies minor league system.

A native of Champaign, Ill., Dan currently resides in The Woodlands, Texas, with his wife, Jillian, and four children: Cali (11), Caden (8), Declan (6) and Emma (6).

OZ OCAMPO

DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL

Oz Ocampo joined the Astros organization in August 2012 and begins his fourth season as the Director of International. With the support of the Astros international leadership team (Carlos Alfonso, Caridad Cabrera, Tom Shafer, Eve Rosenbaum, Roman Ocumarez), Oz oversees all aspects of international baseball operations, including contract negotiations, player acquisitions, scouting, analytics, player development, and academy operations, while also helping to build the Houston Astros brand worldwide. Some of the notable international Astros players signed under his tenure include Miguelangel Sierra, Gilberto Celestino, Wander Franco, Albert Abreu, Franklin Perez, and Jose Luis Hernandez.

Oz, 32, has a decade of experience across a number of baseball operations roles, both domestically and internationally. Living in the Dominican Republic for three years, Oz interned for the Major League Baseball Commissioner's Office (2004), and worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as Dominican Academy Administrator/Coordinator of Latin American Scouting (2005-2007).

After moving stateside to work as the Cardinals Manager of Amateur Scouting/Midwest Area Scout (2007-2008) and Coordinator of International Player Development (2009), Oz moved to New York City to pursue his MBA. Upon graduation, Oz returned to the MLB Commissioner's Office in New York City, where he most recently held the position of Specialist, International Baseball Operations (2011-2012).

Oz has a B.A. in Political Economy from Georgetown University and an MBA in Value Investing and Management from Columbia Business School. A native New Yorker, Oz recently moved to Houston. He is fluent in Spanish and semi-conversational in Tagalog and Portuguese.

ALLEN ROWIN

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

The 2016 season marks Allen Rowin's 10th with the Houston Astros organization, and his first season serving as Director of Minor League Operations.

In his new role, Allen directs the day-to-day operations of the Astros minor league system. He plays a lead role in the active roster management of the Astros nine minor league teams and is directly involved in minor league player contract negotiations.

Allen previously served as Assistant Director of Player Development, where he directed the development and implementation of the Astros organization's player development curriculum. Allen's other responsibilities included supporting the Latin American scouting staff, Dominican Republic complex operations, and the domestic and international player development staff. He also oversaw immigration matters for the Astros organization.

Allen earned his MBA in Sports Business Management at San Diego State University in 2006, after graduating from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) with Bachelor's Degrees in Spanish and political science. He is fluent in Spanish, and studied at the University of Granada in Spain for a year through UCLA. Allen first joined Major League Baseball as a Community Relations Intern for the San Diego Padres in 2006. In 2007, he joined the Astros organization, and his many contributions in baseball operations have included overseeing the building of the Astros' Dominican Republic baseball complex that opened in 2010.

A native of San Diego, Allen currently resides in Celebration, Fla., with his wife Maura and infant son Spencer. He is an active member of the Central Florida and Houston communities, and supporter of the Big Brothers, Big Sisters organization.

BRANDON TAUBMAN

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

In his role, Brandon focuses on player analytics, roster construction, contract valuation, industry economics, arbitration, player development, and international operations. He also advises the General Manager on day-to-day roster decisions and helps direct the long-term vision of the greater Baseball Operations team. Brandon previously served as an analyst and Manager of Baseball Operations for the Astros.

Prior to coming to Houston, Brandon worked for Ernst & Young as a derivative valuation expert. He was also a member of the Ernst & Young advisory team which consulted with the federal government on the TARP and AIG FP unwind. He then worked for Barclays in their Equity Derivatives team as an analyst.

Brandon graduated with a degree in applied economics from Cornell University. He and his wife Leah reside in Houston.

PETE PUTILA

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Pete Putila enters his sixth season with the Astros and his first as Assistant Director of Minor League Operations. In his new position, Pete assists with all areas of player development for the ballclub.

Previously, Pete served as the Astros Baseball Operations Coordinator for two years. In that role, he worked in conjunction with the Astros Decision Sciences team, the Major and minor league coaching staffs and the advance scouts. He also oversaw minor league video operations, conducted video replay review and assisted with Major League player transactions and general baseball operations administration. Prior roles with the Astros included Baseball Operations Assistant and Baseball Operations intern, in which he served various administrative functions for the amateur scouting, pro scouting and player development departments, as well as the Major League coaching staff.

Pete is a graduate of West Virginia University where he received his bachelor's degree in sport management and served as the baseball team's student manager.

MANAGER, MAJOR LEAGUE ADVANCE INFORMATION

Tom Koch-Weser (pronounced kOHk VAY-sehr) joined the Astros in November 2013 and enters his third season with the ballclub. In his new role as Manager of Major League Advance Information, Tom creates series-by-series advance reports and game strategy for the Astros Major League coaching staff. Through the use of video and analytical tools, he also serves as Major League performance scout and assists the Astros front office in player personnel decisions.

Prior to joining the Houston club, Tom served as Advance Scouting Assistant to the Seattle Mariners from 2009-13. He was also an advance scouting intern for the Milwaukee Brewers (2008) and an associate scout for the Boston Red Sox (2007).

A native of La Grange, Ill., Tom graduated from the University of Illinois with a BA in journalism and currently resides in Houston.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his ninth season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to earn induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 home runs, 1,175 runs batted in, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games played. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs scored (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 20th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history and rank fifth all-time.

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (junior) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame and Quinn is committed to playing softball for Notre Dame this coming year.

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Enos Cabell is in his 12th season as a special assistant to the General Manager after being named to the post on Nov. 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists General Manager Jeff Luhnow and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other projects and assignments within the scouting area.

During his 15-year Major League playing career, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85 and is in the top 10 in franchise history in several categories. In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos provided analysis on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He and his wife, Ruby, make their home in Missouri City, Texas. Enos has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

ROGER CLEMENS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

The 2016 season is Roger Clemens' fourth as a special assistant to the General Manager for the Astros. In his current role, Roger works with Astros pitchers on both the Major League and minor league levels, providing instruction and player evaluation. He will spend time in uniform during Spring Training in the Astros Major League and minor league camps.

The Rocket was one of the best pitchers in Major League history during an outstanding 24-year career, which included a record seven Cy Young Awards, two World Series Championships, 11 All-Star nods, and two pitching triple crowns. His 354 career wins rank ninth all-time while his 4,672 strikeouts are third all-time. He also hurled 46 shutouts and 118 complete games while posting a 3.12 ERA.

Roger came out of retirement to play for Houston, his adopted hometown, from 2004-2006. During his two and a half seasons with the Astros, he collected his seventh Cy Young Award, won the 2005 NL ERA title, and helped take the Astros to their first-ever World Series. In 2004, at the age of 42, Roger became the oldest pitcher in MLB history to win the Cy Young Award, the seventh of his career, after posting an 18-4 record with a 2.98 ERA.

His 2005 season was one of the best of his 24-season career; he posted a 1.87 ERA, the lowest in the Major Leagues that year as well as of his entire career, and was named to the 2005 NL All-Star team. On Oct. 9 of that year, Roger made his first relief appearance since 1984, entering as a pinch-hitter in the 15th inning of Game 4 of the NLDS versus the Atlanta Braves. That final game of the series was the longest postseason game in MLB history, going 18 innings, and Roger closed it out with three scoreless innings to help move the Astros to the NL Championship Series.

Clemens' career spanned four teams in four cities, including AL rivals the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox. In his third season with the Red Sox (1986), The Rocket was named AL MVP and All-Star MVP, and earned his first Cy Young Award with a 24-4 record while leading the Red Sox to the AL Pennant. In the two years he spent with the Toronto Blue Jays (1996-97), he won two pitching triple crowns (most wins, lowest ERA, and most strikeouts) as well as two more Cy Young Awards. Roger spent the following four years with the Yankees, and in 1999 and 2000, helped them to two World Series Championships. In 2003, Roger clinched his 300th win and his 4,000th strikeout in the same game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. In 1999, he was named to the Major League Baseball All-Century team after collecting over 600,000 of the fan votes, and was one of only four players active at the time.

Roger and his wife, Debra, live in Houston and have four sons: Koby, Kory, Kacy, and Kody.

SIG MEJDAL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM, PROCESS IMPROVEMENT

Sig Mejdal joined the Astros in January 2012 and was named Special Assistant to the GM, Process Improvement in October 2015. In his role, Sig supports the development, implementation, and monitoring of the improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Since joining the Astros as one of the organization's key analysts, Sig has contributed to personnel decisions ranging from the draft to the Major League team.

Prior to joining the Astros, Sig worked for the St. Louis Cardinals from 2005-11, during which time he was a key contributor in the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more Major League players than any other organization in that time frame.

Earlier in his career, Sig worked at Lockheed Martin in California and for NASA. He earned two engineering degrees at the University of California at Davis and later completed advanced degrees in Operations Research and Cognitive Psychology/Human factors at San Jose State University.

MARCEL BRAITHWAITE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Marcel Braithwaite, who joined the Astros on Nov. 30, 2012, enters his fourth full season with the ballclub. As the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Marcel runs the operational side of the organization. He oversees eight different departments, including IT, Stadium Operations and Engineering, Safety and Security, Event Services, Guest Services, Aramark, Merchandising and Retail Operations and Procurement. As an operator that likes to roll up his sleeves, Marcel is involved in the daily meetings and coordination of each department and manages the Aramark contract and partnership in a similar, hands-on fashion.

Marcel began his career in the logistics industry as a driver with Aeronet Worldwide in 1993, and finished his tenure as Operations Manager. He then joined Eagle Global Logistics in 1995 as an operations agent. Over the course of his career, Marcel worked his way up to senior leadership positions, most recently in the role of Vice President of the Program Management Office, Americas for CEVA Logistics. In that position, he managed the shared services group responsible for third party vendor services to the company, as well as large scale strategic and transformational projects throughout the Americas driving shareholder value.

Born in the Netherlands, Marcel is fluent in Dutch and has lived all over North America, including in Canada, Seattle, southern California and now Texas.

MATT BRAND

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Matt Brand joined the Houston Astros organization in 2011. In his role as Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships, Matt and his team work closely with key corporate partners to develop innovative advertising and marketing solutions, specifically focusing on how corporations can activate their brands most effectively. Matt also leads the business development team for Special Events at Minute Maid Park and the adjoining conference center.

Prior to coming on board with the Astros, Matt spent 25 years in the supply chain industry, holding various executive sales leadership positions specializing in the retail, automotive, and energy sectors. While with Eagle Global Logistics, he served as Vice President of Sales for Asia-Pacific, living in both Hong Kong and Singapore.

Matt currently serves on the board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation for the Texas and Gulf Coast Region and the Baylor Sports Management Advisory Board. Matt also served on the General Motors (GM) Supplier's Council and was a member of the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association (PESA).

Matt was raised in Selah, Wash., and played baseball at both Yakima Valley Community College and at Lewis & Clark State College.

He and his wife, Casey, have two sons, Josh and Jake, and make their home in Houston.

TWILA CARTER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, ASTROS FOUNDATION + COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Twila Carter enters her third season as Executive Director of the Astros Foundation and Community Relations. She made the transition to baseball in 2011 with Jim Crane's purchase of the Astros franchise and has worked with The Crane Group in various capacities since 1998.

Prior to her current role, Twila served as the project manager for many of the recent Minute Maid Park renovations, including the Diamond Club, Union Station, Astros team stores, Astros Clubhouse and the Community Leaders Program. Twila has overseen the development of numerous projects for Crane Capital Group, including the building of the Crane Worldwide headquarters which opened in April of 2012.

Twila has held numerous elected and appointed positions with several service and community organizations. She was named the 2014 Kingwood Women of Achievement for Community Service and received the 2013 State Community Service Award from the Texas Daughters of the American Revolution.

A resident of Kingwood, Texas, Twila has two sons, Justin (27) and Travis (25).

JAMIE HILDRETH

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING + ALUMNI RELATIONS

The 2016 season is Jamie Hildreth's 30th with the Astros franchise.

A 40-plus-year veteran of Houston radio, Jamie was named Senior Vice President of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations in January 2014. In this role, Jamie provides leadership on the Houston Astros affiliate relations efforts, with emphasis on outreach and expansion of the network's scope, establishing and maintaining effective relationships with key broadcast partners and overseeing radio and television broadcasts including all ancillary programming. Jamie will also develop and direct all Astros alumni programs and initiatives to cultivate greater historical ties with the organization, as well as remain the primary Astros contact for several key corporate partner accounts.

Jamie was previously named to the post of SVP of Premium Sponsorships in May of 2007, where he was responsible for the management of the Astros premium accounts. He also served as Vice President of Sales and Broadcasting in 1999 and was the Astros Director of Broadcasting starting in July of 1987.

Jamie's radio career in Houston has spanned roles from sales to management, including sales manager of KTRH Radio from 1984-87 before joining the Astros. He was also the general manager of KTRM/KALO in Beaumont, Texas, and was sales manager of 104 KRBE in Houston from 1972-78. Jamie received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Houston with a major in radio and television.

In 2014, Jamie was awarded the Fred Hartman Award, given annually by the BBWAA to a member of the Houston baseball community for their long and meritorious service.

Jamie and his wife, Theresa, reside in Houston, and have two sons, Jeff and Shane, and five grandchildren: Hayward, John, Alexandra, Audrey and James.

JASON HOWARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES + STRATEGY

Jason Howard enters his fifth season with the Houston Astros in 2016. In his position as Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales and Strategy, Jason oversees all ticket sales, service, and operations efforts as well as the business strategy and analytics departments for the club.

Driven by the organization's vision to better serve Season Ticket Holders and grow the fan base, Jason has led an expansion that tripled the number of relationship-based ticket sales and service representatives since his arrival just after Opening Day in 2012. Additionally, Jason helped implement the organization's increase in fan surveys, panels, and other feedback channels to ensure better communication, perspective, and relationships between the fan base and the club. These efforts have shown early returns as the Season Ticket base and total attendance has grown each season starting with the 2013 campaign.

Jason joined the Astros from the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he most recently served as the organization's Vice President of Business Development. In that position, Jason was responsible for creating, teaching, improving and managing revenue generating tactics across the Corporate Partnerships, Marketing, Community Affairs, Baseball Outreach and Spring Training departments while continuing to oversee the club's Season Ticket and Inside Sales efforts. Prior to his stint as Vice President with the D-backs, Howard was the Director of Season Ticket and Inside Sales over three seasons as part of the leadership team that oversaw an organization record in new Season Ticket revenue in 2008. In addition, more than 80 percent of the Inside Sales representatives he managed over that period were developed into senior sales and service positions throughout the professional sports industry.

Jason began his career in Indianapolis with Pacers Sports & Entertainment (2004-07), where he got his start in the industry as an Inside Sales representative before being promoted to Season Ticket Account Executive and eventually Manager of Inside Sales for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

Jason is a 2004 graduate from Cedarville University in Ohio, where he majored in sport management. He and his wife, Mandi, reside in Spring with their daughter, Braelyn, and son, Braxton.

In her current role, Anita oversees all marketing, media and communications functions and provides strategic brand and communication leadership for the ballclub's marketing, media, business, foundation, and community initiatives.

Prior to joining the Houston organization, Anita spent over 20 years in various strategic marketing functions with organizations including FGL Sports, Best Buy and most recently Academy Sports + Outdoors. She joined Academy Sports + Outdoors in Feb. 2009 and served as Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising until July 2014. Prior to holding that post, Anita spent four and a half years with Best Buy Canada as Director, Customer Experience. She also spent four years with Canada's largest sporting goods retailer, The Forzani Group, Ltd. as their Director of Marketing.

Anita received a bachelor's degree in business administration with a specialization in marketing and human resources from the University of Regina in Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

She is an avid sports fan who embraces the local culture, climate and cuisine wherever she travels or resides.

Anita is also a member of the Sports, Sponsorship, and Sales Advisory Board for Baylor University, an executive committee board member of Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, and an Advisory Board member of TDECU.

MICHAEL SLAUGHTER

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michael Slaughter joined the Astros in October 2015 and enters his first season with the ballclub as Chief Financial Officer. Mike comes to the Astros with extensive executive experience in finance, accounting and mergers and acquisitions involving both public and private companies.

Most recently, Mike served as the Chief Financial Officer of Crane Capital Group. In that position, he assisted Jim Crane in the successful acquisition, operation and disposition of businesses in a wide range of industries, including Crane Worldwide Logistics, Crane Freight Services and the Houston Astros. In particular, Mike played an integral role in the purchase of the Houston Astros and subsequently the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks. From June 2008 to September 2015, Mike also served as the Chief Financial Officer of Champion Energy Marketing LLC, a leading retail electricity provider.

Prior to 2008, Mike was the Principal Financial Officer at EGL, Inc., a Nasdaq-listed global transportation and logistics company. Previously, Mike had also been EGL's Chief Accounting Officer and VP Finance and Investor Relations.

Mike began his career at Price Waterhouse, where he rose to the position of senior auditor while serving public and private clients across a broad spectrum of businesses. Mike earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Texas-Austin in 1988. He and his wife Susan reside in Spring, Texas, and have a son Nick and daughter Emma.

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, MEDIA RELATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros as Media Relations Director in February of 2009 and now enters his third season as Vice President of Media Relations in 2016. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

In his current role, Gene oversees all baseball and business-related media relations efforts and plays a major role with the Astros communications team in developing strategies for the ballclub's business, marketing, foundation, and community public relations initiatives. Gene also plays a significant role in the club's crisis management efforts.

From 1989 to 2008, Gene worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000 where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, many of which are still in place today. Gene also helped to grow the club's footprint in the community through increased media coverage and by increasing the dollars raised for the club's charity. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Gene worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, Mass.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games. Gene is also a board member for the Houston Chapter of the NAACP.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, Texas, with their two children, son Maxwell (15) and daughter Sydney (10).

MICHAEL DILLON

VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGY + ANALYTICS

Michael Dillon joined the Astros organization in June of 2012 and now enters his fourth full season with the ballclub. In his role as Vice President of Strategy and Analytics, Mike utilizes research and data analytics to develop a deeper understanding of the Astros fan base in order to provide a meaningful fan experience both inside and outside of the ballpark. Mike also works with the Astros Ticketing, Premium Sponsorship, Business Operations and Community Relations departments to optimize revenue and coordinate organization-wide efforts.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mike was a management consultant at Bain & Co., where he worked on a variety of projects in diverse industries, including consumer packaged goods, financial services and technology.

Mike spent his entire academic career at Harvard, where he received his Bachelor of Arts in Government, law degree, and MBA. Originally from Sharon, Mass., Mike now resides in the Rice Village area of Houston.

BOBBY FORREST

VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Bobby Forrest was named the club's Vice President of Stadium Operations in January 2007. He originally joined the Astros franchise on Jan. 2, 1995, as a member of the engineering department. Bobby was subsequently promoted to Engineering Supervisor in 1997, Engineering Manager in 1999, and Senior Director of Engineering and Maintenance in 2003. He is responsible for all building operations, which includes the Engineering, Groundskeeping, Guest Services and Security and Parking departments. Bobby also played a key role in the club's move from the Astrodome to its current home, Minute Maid Park, prior to the 2000 season.

Bobby is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers, the Stadium Managers Association, the NFPA and serves as Vice President of the Association of Retractable Roof Operators World Wide.

Bobby has three children, Bobby, Chelsey and Kyle. He and his wife, Tiffani, live in Houston.

MARIAN HARPER

VICE PRESIDENT, FOUNDATION DEVELOPMENT

The 2016 season marks Marian Harper's 25th with the Astros. As Vice President of Foundation Development, she helps manage programs and fundraising for the Astros Foundation, the official team charity of the Astros. She was instrumental in the development of the Astros Urban Youth Academy, a cornerstone program of the Astros Foundation.

Marian also assists with the team's community relations efforts, which includes organizing the Astros wives programs as well as utilizing her extensive knowledge of local non-profit organizations and her dedication to the Houston community. Marian also works to further develop the Astros Alumni Association.

Marian serves on the board of directors for the Downtown Management District Board and the Ensemble Theatre. She is a graduate of Leadership Houston and was honored with the prestigious Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for exceptional community service at the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony in 2007.

A native of Pittsburg, Texas, Marian started with the Astros in 1992 and rose through the ranks, starting as a promotions coordinator for the Marketing and Sponsorship departments, then as Director of Community Relations working with players, alumni, fans, businesses and non-profit leaders. Over the past decade, Marian has been a key executive for all the team charities' fundraising and outreach initiatives.

VIVIAN MORA

VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Vivian L. Mora joined the Astros organization in June of 2013. In her role, Vivian is responsible for all human resources functions, including aligning HR strategy with business objectives, talent and performance management, succession planning, talent acquisition, compensation and benefits, training and development and employee relations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Vivian was the founder and managing partner for Mora & Associates, an executive search and human capital consulting firm based in Katy, Texas. Before launching Mora & Associates, Vivian served in various leadership roles including almost eight years as the Vice President of Human Resources for the Houston Rockets and Toyota Center, a multi-purpose entertainment venue which serves as the home of the Houston Rockets. Prior to this position, she led the human resource function for Texas-based HEB Grocery Company's Houston Retail Support Center through several growth years. She has also held progressive positions in the energy and the printing industries with Constellation Energy, Entergy Corporation and with RR Donnelley.

Mora's educational background includes a Masters of Social Science concentrating in sociology with a minor concentration in economics from the University of Mississippi and a Bachelor of Science in marketing from Jackson State University. She holds the highest level of human resources certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and serves as an expert source for Reuters Insights and Focus HR.

Vivian has also served as a conference speaker for HR Houston, TLNT, the International Ticketing Association (INTIX), the Greater Houston Area Ticketing Association (GHATA) as well as HR Southwest. She is affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and HR Houston, and is a member of the Executive Board for Girls Inc. of Greater Houston as well as a member of Rotary International.

DOUG SECKEL

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

The 2016 season will be Douglas Seckel's fifth with the Astros as the Vice President of Finance.

Before coming on board with the Astros, Doug was treasurer for the Crane Capital Group assisting with financial management for the various Crane companies. Prior to joining the Crane Capital Group in 2010, Doug was Deputy Director of Finance for the City of Houston, Texas responsible for accounting, auditing, cost analysis and federal grants. From 1989 to 2007, Doug was controller, treasurer and CFO of Eagle Global Logistics as company revenues grew from $9 million to $3.2 billion and had an instrumental role in taking the company public in 1995. Prior to 1989, Seckel held various accounting and auditing positions for several state and local governments.

Seckel is a graduate of the University of Missouri with a major in accounting. He and his wife Lucy reside in Houston, Texas, and have a daughter Sara and son Sam.

STEPHANIE STEGALL

VICE PRESIDENT, EVENT SALES + OPERATIONS

Stephanie Stegall joined the Astros in September 2013 and enters her third season with the ballclub, her first as Vice President of Event Sales and Operations. In her role, Stephanie books and manages non-baseball events at Minute Maid Park, including large-scale concerts such as Taylor Swift and Beyoncé, and other sporting events such as the Canelo vs. Kirkland boxing match broadcast live on HBO in May 2015. She also directs the operations of all events at the ballpark.

Prior to joining the Astros, Stephanie served as the Manager of Entertainment and Concert Production for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo from 2006-13. In that capacity, she annually booked 20 consecutive nights of live entertainment in NRG stadium and was responsible for all artist logistics as well as the conversion of space from a rodeo to concert venue.

Stephanie is currently a board member of the GHCVB where she also serves as an executive committee member, a founding board member of the Houston chapter of WISE and a member of the 2017 Super Bowl Central Committee focusing on Fan Experience.

She received her bachelors from Texas A&M University and resides in Houston with her husband Justin, son Jackson and daughter Stella.

JASON WOODEN

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Jason Wooden joined the Astros in October 2015 and enters his first season with the ballclub as Vice President of Marketing. In his role, Jason oversees the marketing and advertising media aspects of the organization through the development of core strategic campaign initiatives, creative services and media planning.

Jason started his career at Academy Sports + Outdoors and spent the last 12 years in various roles within the company before joining the Astros. In his most recent role as Media Director, Jason oversaw the strategic planning and execution of print, TV/radio media buying and commercial production. He also served as Regional Promotions Director and was responsible for developing key sponsorships and partnerships both at the grassroots and professional levels.

Jason is a graduate of Texas Christian University where he earned a BFA in graphic design. He currently resides in Katy with his wife Christin, son Luke and daughter Elle. Jason is a long-time Houston resident and Astros fan.

DAN BERGSTROM

SENIOR DIRECTOR, MAJOR LEAGUE FIELD OPERATIONS

Dan Bergstrom is in his 13th season with the Astros. Despite the challenges of working in a ballpark with a roof and the intense Houston summer heat, Bergstrom and his crew maintain one of the most attractive playing fields in Major League Baseball.

The Texas Turfgrass Association named the playing surface at Minute Maid Park as the "2013 Baseball Field of the Year." The award is given annually to a successful and progressive baseball grounds crew. Minute Maid Park was chosen as the winner based on several criteria, including overall quality of the playing surface and unique challenges overcome by the grounds crew.

During his MLB career, Bergstrom has worked more than 900 games, including the 2004 MLB All-Star Game as well as the Astros 2004-05 postseason runs. Bergstrom holds the distinction of working the first World Series game ever played on Texas soil in 2005.

The Astros have also used Bergstrom's expertise outside of Minute Maid Park. He has traveled to Astros facilities in Kissimmee, the Dominican Republic, and several of Houston's minor league affiliates to assist in playing surface renovation. He also played a significant role in the construction of the fields at the Astros Urban Youth Academy.

Bergstrom also volunteers to help build fields for youth organizations, and was instrumental in a successful field renovation project with RBI Austin that originated at the MLB Groundskeepers meetings in Austin in 2011. Additionally, he has served as president of three statewide turfgrass associations in his career, including the Kentucky Turfgrass Council, the Nebraska Sports Turf Managers Association, and the Texas Sports Turf Managers Association. In January 2015, Bergstrom was elected to the Board of Directors for the Sports Turf Managers Association.

Bergstrom earned a bachelor's degree in horticulture (turfgrass specialty) from Iowa State University. He and his wife, Krista, reside in Spring, Texas, and enjoy fostering rescued dogs in their home.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2016 season is Jose Cruz' 33rd with the Houston Astros, having spent five years as a special assistant to the general manager and the previous 13 seasons (1997-2009) as a coach for the Major League club. In his third year as a community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the team and acts as an ambassador for the organization.

As an outfielder, the two-time All-Star had an 18-year Major League career, playing for the Cardinals (1970-74), Astros (1975-87) and Yankees (1988). Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose is an Astros icon and held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement after the 1988 season. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record.

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with all nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball hall of Fame.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice.

JIMMY WYNN

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 seasons of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise from 1963-73, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. In his current role as a community outreach executive, Jimmy is an active member of the Houston community, working closely with the Astros Community Relations department and the Astros Foundation.

On June 24, 2011, the Astros and Minute Maid officially dedicated the Jimmy Wynn Training Center, a new, state-of-the art baseball facility located at the Astros Urban Youth Academy in North Houston. The $500,000 indoor facility measures 4,431 square feet and includes batting cages, pitching mounds, locker rooms and showers. The facility, which was funded by Minute Maid's Grand Slam For Youth Baseball program and The Astros Foundation, is available for youngsters of all ages at no cost to their families.

As a player, despite his small frame (5'9"), Jimmy boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season.

In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Jimmy smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. He also homered for LA in the 1974 World Series vs. Oakland. Jimmy was a two-time All-Star, making the NL squad in both 1967 and 1974.

Jimmy's No. 24 was officially retired by the Astros on June 25, 2005. He and his wife, Marie, reside in Rosharon, Texas.

A.J. HINCH

MANAGER

Full Name: Andrew Jay Hinch
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 5/15/74 in Waverly, IA
Resides: The Woodlands, TX
Major League Coaching Career: Manager, Arizona Diamondbacks (2009-10); Manager, Houston Astros (2015-present)

A.J. Hinch is in his second season as the Houston Astros manager after being named to the position on Sept. 29, 2014.

In his return to the dugout in 2015, Hinch guided the Astros to their first postseason appearance in 10 years and their 10th postseason appearance in the 54th year of the franchise.

Hinch's 2015 Astros finished 86-76, a 16-game improvement over the 2014 Astros (70-92), which is the largest improvement for a first-year manager in franchise history.

The 2015 Astros spent 139 days in first place in the AL West before eventually clinching a Wild Card position on the final day of the regular season. Houston would win the Wild Card Game at New York and advance to the ALDS before losing the series, three games to two, to the eventual World Series Champion Kansas City Royals.

In recognition for his efforts in 2015, Hinch was named a finalist for the BBWAA American League Manager of the Year, finishing second to Rangers Manager Jeff Bannister. Hinch was also a 2015 All-Star, as Royals Manager Ned Yost named Hinch as a coach for the AL All-Star Team, joining fellow Astros Dallas Keuchel and Jose Altuve on the AL squad. By earning this honor, Hinch became the first Astros manager selected to an All-Star Game since Jimy Williams in 2004.

Hinch, who is the 18th manager in franchise history, brings a diverse background with him to the Astros managerial post, having more than 20 years of playing, managing and front office experience in Major League Baseball.

2009-10. At the time of his appointment, Hinch was 34 years old, by far the youngest manager in the Major Leagues. While his hiring by Arizona was considered unconventional at the time, Hinch's hire paved the way for many other first-time managers to get their shots at skippering for the first time at the Major League level, including current managers Brad Ausmus (DET), Craig Counsell (MIL), Mike Matheny (STL), Scott Servais (SEA), Robin Ventura (CWS) and Walt Weiss (COL).

Six years later, at 41 years old and manager of the Houston Astros, Hinch ranks as the third-youngest manager in the Major Leagues, behind only Kevin Cash (TB) and Andy Green (SD), who are both 38.

Between his managerial posts, Hinch worked with the San Diego Padres, where he most recently served as the club's Vice President and Assistant General Manager for three years (2011-14). In that role, Hinch oversaw all aspects of the club's professional scouting and medical departments, while assisting with the club's roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining a front office, Hinch played parts of seven Major League seasons with Oakland (1998-2000), Kansas City (2001-02), Detroit (2003) and Philadelphia (2004-05). A former catcher, Hinch played in 350 career Major League games after a wildly successful collegiate career at Stanford.

At Stanford, Hinch established himself as one of the best catchers in school history. A three-time All-American and All-Pac10 team selection, Hinch earned Pac10 Player of the Year honors twice. In 1996, Hinch led the Cardinal to the College World Series and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the best collegiate player in the country. Hinch still ranks among the top 10 all-time in seven statistical categories for Stanford, including games played (229, 10th), batting average (.351, seventh), hits (305, fourth), doubles (58, sixth), triples (15, fifth) and RBI (191, seventh). He led the Cardinal in hitting three times in four years, including an impressive .381 mark in 1996.

For his achievements on the field and his contributions to the school, Hinch was inducted into the Stanford University Athletics Hall of Fame on Oct. 11, 2014. During his time in Palo Alto, Hinch earned his Bachelor of Science in psychology in 1996 and was a member of the 1996 bronze medal-winning U.S. Olympic Baseball Team.

He was drafted three times as an amateur, in the second round of the 1992 draft out of high school by Chicago (AL), in the third round of the 1995 draft by Minnesota and in the third round of the 1996 draft by Oakland, before signing with the Athletics after his senior season at Stanford.

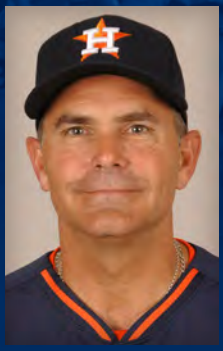

Hinch, who retired as a player after the 2005 season, joined Arizona's front office one month after retirement and was eventually named the team's Director of Player Development. He held that role until being named the Diamondbacks manager in 2009.

TREY HILLMAN

BENCH COACH

Full Name: Thomas Brad Hillman
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 1/4/63 in Amarillo, TX
Resides: Liberty Hill, TX
Major League Coaching Career: Manager, Kansas City Royals (2008-10); Bench Coach, Los Angeles Dodgers (2011-13); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Trey Hillman is in his second season as the Astros bench coach after being named to the post on Oct. 17, 2014.

Prior to joining the Astros, Hillman was a special assistant in Major and minor league operations for the New York Yankees in 2014, and spent the previous 11 seasons (2003-13) as a manager and bench coach in the Majors and in Japan.

He began that run with a five-year stint (2003-07) managing the Hokkaido Nippon-Ham Fighters in Japan, leading the club to a championship in 2006 and three total playoff appearances (2004, 2006-07). After the Nippon-Ham Fighters championship, Hillman was named the 2006 Japan "Sportsman of the Year" by the Foreign Sportswriters of Japan. His success earned him a job managing the Kansas City Royals, a position he kept for three seasons (2008-10). Following his managerial stint, Hillman served as the bench coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers for three years from 2011-13.

Prior to managing in Japan, Hillman spent 13 years managing and coaching at the minor league level in the Yankees system (1989-2001), and also served as Director of Player Development for one season with the Rangers (2002). He began his career as a coach in 1989 with Class A Prince William before landing his first managerial job with Class A Oneonta in 1990 at the age of 27.

His coaching, managerial and front office careers followed a three-year playing career as a middle infielder and third baseman in the Indians minor league system from 1985-87. He followed that up with a two-year stint (1987-88) as a scout for Cleveland.

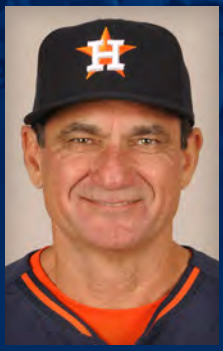

Hillman is a graduate of the University of Texas-Arlington, where he was an All-Southland Conference infielder for three seasons. He is also a member of the UT-Arlington Hall of Fame and the Southland Conference Hall of Fame and is a Distinguished Alumni Honoree at UTA.

Hillman resides in Liberty Hill, Texas, with his wife Marie. The couple has two children, son T.J. and daughter Brianna.

DAVE HUDGENS

HITTING COACH

Full Name: David Mark Hudgens
Bats/Throws: Left/Left
Born: 12/5/56 in Oroville, CA

Dave Hudgens is in his second season as the Astros hitting coach after being named to the position on Oct. 17, 2014. In 2015, his first season with Houston, Hudgens led the Astros offense to one of its most powerful outputs in franchise history, as the team finished the regular season ranking second in the Majors in home runs (230), a total that also ranked second all time in franchise history, trailing only the 2000 Astros (249 HR).

Hudgens is in his fourth stint as a Major League hitting coach, which included a four-season (2011-14) run with the New York Mets (2011-14), immediately prior to joining the Astros. His other two stints came with Oakland for the 1999 season and then again with the A's from 2003-05. Hudgens and Astros manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths in Oakland in 1999 as Dave coached A.J. in what was his second Major League season.

Hudgens' coaching career dates back to 1985, when he managed Rookie Level Pocatello in the Pioneer League at the age of 28. He would manage four years (1985-88) in the Oakland organization before joining Houston as a roving hitting instructor in the Astros system for seven seasons (1989-95).

Hudgens returned to Oakland in 1996 and spent the next 10 years (1996-2005) serving as Oakland's assistant director of player development (1996-98, 2000-02) or Major League hitting coach (1999, 2003-05), spending two stints in each position. After his successful 10-year run with Oakland, Hudgens joined the Cleveland organization and served as the Indians field coordinator for five years (2006-10) before his most recent stints with the Mets and Astros.

Hudgens has also managed parts of six seasons (2009-14) in the Venezuelan Winter League, all with Caracas, guiding them to playoff appearances in five seasons, including winning a VWL Championship in the 2009-10 season.

His coaching days followed a six-year playing career (1979-84) with the Oakland and Cleveland organizations, which included a stint in the Major Leagues with Oakland in 1983.

PITCHING COACH

Full Name: Brent Terry Strom
Bats/Throws: Right/Left
Born: 10/14/48 in San Diego, CA
Resides: Tucson, AZ
Major League Coaching Career: Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (1996); Pitching Coach, Kansas City Royals (2000-01); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2014-present)

Brent Strom was named to his current position with the Astros on Oct. 22, 2013, for what is his third Major League stint as a pitching coach. He was originally the Astros pitching coach in 1996, and then later joined the Royals Major League staff as pitching coach for two seasons (2000-01).

In 2015, Strom led the Astros pitching staff to a 3.57 ERA, the best team ERA in the American League and the second-lowest produced by an Astros team since the club moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. In his two seasons at the helm, Strom's pitching staff has improved steadily as the unit posted a 4.79 ERA in 2013 prior to Strom's arrival, to a 4.11 mark in 2014 and their AL-best 3.57 ERA last season.

Prior to rejoining the Astros, Strom spent six seasons (2008-13) with the Cardinals organization, serving as their minor league pitching coordinator (2012-13) and as a minor league pitching instructor (2008-11).

Strom first joined Houston's organization in 1989, serving as a minor league pitching instructor for seven seasons (1989-95) before being elevated to Major League pitching coach in 1996. Prior to originally joining Houston, he spent time as a minor league coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1981-86) and as a pitching coordinator with the San Diego (1997) and Montreal/Washington organizations (1998-99, 2002-06).

His coaching career followed a professional pitching career that spanned from 1970-81, which included parts of five Major League seasons with New York-NL (1972), Cleveland (1973) and San Diego (1975-77). He also pitched two minor league seasons in the Astros system (1979-80). Strom holds the distinction of being just the second person to have Tommy John surgery (performed in 1978).

Prior to playing professionally, Strom attended USC, where he helped lead the Trojans baseball team to two NCAA championships. In 1970, he was a First Team All-American in his final season at USC. His professional career began after he was drafted third overall in the secondary phase of the 1970 draft by the New York Mets.

Strom is a member of the International Sports Group (ISG), a non-profit organization founded to grow the game of baseball across the globe, and has been participating in ISG clinics overseas for over 15 years.

Brent and his wife, Carrie, reside in Tucson, Ariz. Carrie was crowned Mrs. America in 1979, representing New Jersey. The couple has two English bulldogs (Macie Mae and Bebe) and one French bulldog (Angus).

RICH DAUER

FIRST BASE COACH

Full Name: Richard Fremont Dauer
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 7/27/52 in San Bernardo, CA
Resides: Cumming, GA

Major League Coaching Career: Third Base Coach, Cleveland Indians (1990-91); Third Base Coach, Kansas City Royals (1997-2002); Bench Coach, Milwaukee Brewers (2003-05); Third Base Coach, Colorado Rockies (2009-12); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Rich Dauer is in his second season as the Houston Astros first base coach and infield instructor after being named to the post on Oct. 17, 2014.

Prior to joining Houston, Dauer spent two seasons (2013-14) as manager for the Double A San Antonio Missions in the Padres organization. In 2013, his first year as manager of the Missions, Dauer received Texas League Manager of the Year honors en route to leading the club to the Texas League Championship title. He was also the recipient of the Padres 2013 Jack Krol Award for contributions to player development.

The former 10-year Major League infielder (all with the Orioles) has 16 years of Major League coaching experience, including four seasons as third base coach for the Rockies (2009-12), three seasons as Ned Yost's bench coach with Milwaukee (2003-05), six seasons as third base coach for the Royals (1997-2002) and two seasons as third base coach with Cleveland (1990-91).

In addition to his Major League coaching experience, Dauer has served as a minor league manager, coach and roving infield instructor in the Cleveland (1988-89), Baltimore (1992) and Kansas City (1993-96) organizations.

Dauer is one of a select few players to have won both a World Series and College World Series title, as he was a member of the 1983 Baltimore Orioles Championship club and two national championship teams at the University of Southern California (1973-74). Following his 1974 season, Dauer was a first round selection (24th overall) by Baltimore.

A resident of Cumming, Ga., he and his wife, Chris, have three children, Casey, Kelsey and Katie, and a grandson Sam.

GARY PETTIS

THIRD BASE COACH

Full Name: Gary George Pettis
Bats/Throws: Switch/Right
Born: 4/3/58 in Oakland, CA
Resides: San Clemente, CA

Major League Coaching Career: First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis is in his second season as the Astros third base coach after being named to the position on Oct. 17, 2014. In addition to his third base coach responsibilities, Pettis is the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. Under Pettis, the 2015 Astros led the AL with 121 steals, including a league-leading 38 steals by Jose Altuve.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers. He spent his last two seasons (2013-14) with the Rangers as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor in the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000) organizations, and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor from 2005-06.

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams.

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple have two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante is a junior wide receiver at the University of Washington, where he was named a 2015 Second-Team All-American by the Sporting News and a 2015 Second-Team Academic All-Pac12 honoree. Kyler is an actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives in 2015.

CRAIG BJORNSON 52

BULLPEN COACH

Full Name: Craig Michael Bjornson
Born: 2/14/69 in Tucson, AZ
Major League Coaching Career: Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2012, 2014-present)

Craig Bjornson is in his third consecutive season as the Astros bullpen coach, after being named to the position on Oct. 22, 2013, and his fourth season overall. He also served as the Astros bullpen coach in 2012 before spending the 2013 season as the organization's roving pitching instructor.

Bjornson, a former pitcher in the Astros minor league system, has 19 years of experience in professional baseball. He started his coaching career as a pitching coach for the Vermont Expos in 1999. Since then he's also spent time working in the Kansas City, Washington, Los Angeles (NL) and Colorado organizations (2000-11) as a pitching coach at the minor league level.

He also spent four seasons as pitching coach for the Occidente Pastora de los Llanos of the Venezuelan Winter League (2000-03).

Bjornson, a southpaw, pitched in high school for the Tucson High Badgers, a club that won the 1987 Arizona State Championship. He went on to Junior College at Arizona Western in Yuma, Ariz., and played for head coach John Stratton, a mentor to Bjornson. Following his time at Arizona Western, Bjornson transferred to Nicholls State University in Thibodeau, La., and later was signed by the Astros as a non-drafted free agent in 1991. His signing scout, Clark Crist, later coached Bjornson when he pitched for the Auburn Astros of the New York-Penn League. He pitched three seasons in the Astros farm system from 1991-93, making 81 appearances (27 starts), while posting a 3.0 walks per 9.0 innings ratio, a 5.7 strikeouts per 9.0 ratio and an overall 3.82 ERA. He pitched at Quad Cities in his final season (1993).

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Full Name: Alonzo Sidney Powell
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 12/12/64 in San Francisco, CA
Resides: Peoria, AZ
Major League Coaching Career: Hitting Coach, Seattle Mariners (2010); Assistant Hitting Coach, San Diego Padres (2012-15); Assistant Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2016-present)

Alonzo Powell is in his first season with the Astros and his fifth consecutive season as an assistant hitting coach at the Major League level. Prior to 2016, Powell served as the Padres assistant hitting coach from 2012-15.

The 2016 season is Powell's 34th in professional baseball, having coached for 15 years (2002-16) following a 19-year playing career (1983-2001). He's spent a total of six seasons (2010, 2012-16) on a Major League coaching staff and saw big league action in two seasons as a player (1987, 1991).

Immediately following his playing career, Powell began coaching in the Reds minor league system in 2002, serving as Double A Chattanooga's hitting coach for two seasons (2002-03). He would then manage Class A Dayton for two years (2004-05) and was the hitting coach for Dayton in 2006.

Powell moved on to the Mariners organization in 2007, and spent five seasons (2007-11) in various roles. He was hired as the club's minor league hitting coordinator in 2007 and spent parts of his next four seasons (2008-11) as the hitting coach at Triple A Tacoma. In May of 2010, Powell was named the interim hitting coach for the Mariners. Following the 2011 season, Powell was hired by the Padres as their assistant hitting coach.

His coaching career followed a 19-year playing career, that took him through seven Major League organizations and on to great success in Nippon Professional Baseball in Japan. He spent seven seasons in Japan becoming the first American player to win three consecutive batting championships (1994-96). He also made five All-Star teams and received two Gold Gloves in Japan.

Powell and his wife, Jana, have two sons, Cameron and Dalton, two daughters, Courtney and Brooklyn, and three grandchildren, Madison, Mckenzie and Alaya.

JEREMIAH RANDALL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremiah Randall was named the Houston Astros Major League Head Athletic Trainer on Nov. 9, 2015. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent the previous three seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates serving as the club's Major League Rehab Coordinator and Physical Therapist/Assistant Athletic Trainer.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Randall worked two seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as their Minor League Rehab Coordinator in 2010 and as their Major League Physical Therapist for the 2011 season. In addition to his time in Major League Baseball, Randall spent time as an intern in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots. He has also presented at several national sports medicine conferences and has contributed as an author to various sports medicine and rehabilitation textbooks.

Currently, he is the principal investigator for the testing of several functional upper extremity assessment tools for use in the overhead throwing athlete. In addition to his clinical research, he has co-authored several case studies that are under peer review for publication in the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

Jeremiah received his Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree in 2009 from the University of Miami (FL). He conducted research while at the University of Miami involving active military members and aided in the development of the Comprehensive High-level Activity Mobility Predictor (CHAMP). He received his undergraduate degree in biology from Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kan., and went on to the University of Kansas to obtain his athletic training degree. During his time at Tabor College, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and track and received all-conference honors in both sports.

The 34-year-old Randall was born in Mound City, Kan. He resides in Lakewood Ranch, Fla., with his wife, Kelly, daughter Aliann (4) and son Declan (1).

JAMES READY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

James Ready is in his second season as an Astros assistant athletic trainer. He is the returning member of the Astros 2015 training staff, which was named the Major League Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). This award is given annually to one Major League Athletic Training Staff and is voted on by all members of PBATS.

Prior to joining the Astros, he worked for the Phillies, where he served as Philadelphia's minor league training and rehabilitation coordinator for three years (2012-14). In that role, he oversaw the Phillies minor league athletic trainers and worked in conjunction with the Major League training staff to coordinate rehabilitation assignments.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Ready spent five years (2007-11) on the Arizona Diamondbacks player development staff. While with the Diamondbacks, Ready was the athletic trainer for Visalia (A) in 2007, Mobile (AA) in 2008 and then Reno (AAA) for his final three seasons (2009-11). He also served as the trainer for the Arizona Fall League champion Phoenix Desert Dogs in 2008. Before his time in Arizona, James worked as a PBATS intern for the Detroit Tigers in 2003.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training from Central Michigan University in 2005 and a master's degree in kinesiology from Louisiana State University in 2007.

Ready was born in Cando, N.D. and currently resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife, Nathalie. The couple is expecting their first child in April.

DANIEL ROBERTS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Daniel Roberts is in his first season as the Astros assistant athletic trainer and physical therapist. He spent the last five seasons (2011-15) as the Astros minor league rehab coordinator, running the organization's minor league rehab programs and assisting with Major League rehab out of the Astros Spring Training facility. Prior to joining the Astros organization, Roberts served as an assistant athletic trainer at Charleston Southern University.

Roberts has his Doctorate of Physical Therapy degree from East Tennessee State University and received a Bachelor's of Science degree in athletic training from Eastern Kentucky University. In 2014, he became a board certified Sports Physical Therapist.

He and his wife, Rachel, live in Manvel, Texas, with their son, Wyatt.

JAKE BEITING

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

The 2016 season is Jake Beiting's fourth as Astros strength and conditioning coach. Throughout the year, Beiting provides Astros players with guidance on weight-training, conditioning and nutrition. He also runs all offseason workouts at Minute Maid Park.

A member of the Professional Baseball S&C Coaches Society (PBSCCS), Beiting was voted onto the executive board and will serve as the society's secretary for the 2016 season, his second year in that position.

Prior to joining Houston, he served as the Cleveland Indians minor league strength and conditioning co-ordinator for five seasons (2008-12). In the position, Beiting worked with players at the Indians Spring Training complex in Goodyear, Ariz., which included working with Major League players during the offseason.

He began his career in professional baseball working as an intern in the Cleveland Indians weight room in 2004-05, and later was named strength coach for the Gulf Coast League Indians minor league club in 2007.

Beiting earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from John Carroll University in 2006 and later his master's degree in exercise science from the University of South Florida in 2008. While at John Carroll, Beiting played two years of football, serving as the club's fullback and long snapper, and lettered in track and field for two years as a javelin thrower.

He and his wife, Maggie, have two sons, Maxwell and Charlie, and twin daughters, Maeve and Rina.

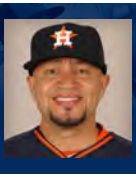

KATSUMI OKA

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Katsumi Oka is in his ninth season as a massage therapist for the Houston Astros. Prior to joining the Astros, he had spent the last 15 years as the director of the Ichigaya Branch of the Miyagawa Bonesetter's Office in Hyogo, Japan. Before taking over as the director, he spent 10 years with the office as a certified professional massage therapist.

Oka is a graduate of the Meiji School of Oriental Medicine in Osaka, Japan, and is a native of Hyogo, Japan.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte is in his 16th season as the Astros bullpen catcher. In his role, Bracamonte, who wears jersey number 85, travels to Spring Training and on every road trip assisting the coaching staff by catching bullpens, throwing batting practice and hitting infield practice.

During his time with Houston, Bracamonte has taken part in three MLB All-Star Games. In the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston, Bracamonte caught bullpens and worked pregame activities. He would pitch batting practice in the next two All-Star Games, throwing to Andruw Jones and Jason Bay in 2005 in Detroit and to Miguel Cabrera in Pittsburgh in 2006.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy in the Venezuelan Winter League. He would join the Astros organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his daughter, Jaelyn (9). His son Gustavo (29) currently works in the Miami Marlins ticket office.

CARLOS MUNOZ

BULLPEN CATCHER

Carlos Muñoz is in his 12th season with the organization and his third as a bullpen catcher for the club. In his role, Muñoz throws batting practice, catches pregame bullpen sessions and warms up pitchers during games. He also assists the Astros coaching staff with pregame activities.

Muñoz originally joined the Astros organization in 2005 as an associate scout and would later assist the staff as a batting practice pitcher in 2009. In 2010, Muñoz attended Major League Baseball's Scouting Bureau School in Boca Chica, D.R. He joined the Major League staff in 2013 in his current role.

Born in Maracaibo, Venezuela, Muñoz represented his country in international tournaments on three occasions in his youth. He's a graduate of Alvin Community College, where he played baseball and earned an associate degree in communications (TV Broadcasting).

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider is in his sixth season as clubhouse manager and his 28th overall with the Astros organization. In 1989, Schneider joined the Astros as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995. While with the Astros, Schneider has worked seven Astros playoff runs, the 2004 MLB All-Star Game and the 2005 World Series. He has also worked the 1998 and 2003 All-Star Games in Colorado and Chicago (AL), respectively.

A Texas native, Schneider currently resides in Houston with his wife, Emilie, and their sons Zachry (15) and Max (4) and daughters Amie (10) and Madyson (6).

STEVE PERRY

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

The 2016 season is Steve Perry's 38th with the Astros organization, and his 28th as visiting clubhouse manager. Over the years, Perry has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Perry joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked four All-Star games and seven postseason runs.

Perry is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America after his father was relocated for work. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston with their daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed reliever has made 49 Major League appearances over the last three seasons (2013-15) with the Astros, going 3-1 with a 3.26 ERA (17ER/47IP) and 42 strikeouts...the 2016 season is his sixth as a professional.
- Has held left-handed hitters to a .211 (20x95) batting average and .263 slugging percentage in his MLB career...against all opponents, has allowed a .227 (39x172) batting average.
- Set a franchise record by not allowing an earned run in his first 13 Major League appearances to begin his career (9.2IP) from Aug. 9-Sept. 2, 2013...LHP Tom Martin, who previously held the club record, made 12 straight scoreless appearances to start his career from April 2-May 5, 1997.
- In his first year in the Astros organization, pitched in 49 games with the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2012 and was named a Texas League Midseason All-Star...went 6-3 with a 2.64 ERA (17ER/58IP) and 59 strikeouts on the season.
- Heading into 2013, was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 30 prospect in the Astros organization...while in the Royals system, was rated by BA as having the 'Best Slider' in the Kansas City system, and was named the club's No. 18 prospect in 2012.

NOTES

- Graduated from Westminster Academy in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., in 2006, where he earned Louisville Slugger All-American status (2005) as he went 8-2 with an 0.89 ERA...named Louisville Slugger Preseason All-American as a senior, but was limited due to an injury...selected by Detroit in the 42nd round in 2006, but did not sign.
- Attended the University of Florida from 2007-2010...went 3-0 with a 1.64 ERA and 11 saves in 2010, helping the SEC-champion Gators reach the College World Series...named first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American (NCBWA).
- Selected in the fourth round of the June 2010 draft by Kansas City...signed by Royals scout Colin Gonzales.
- Is cousins with Nationals OF Matt den Dekker, who was also his youth, high school and college teammate at the University of Florida...faced each other in a Major League game for the first time in their careers on Sept. 26, 2014, at NYM (walk).
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on Aug. 9, 2013...is currently signed to a one-year contract that runs through the 2016 season.

2015: Spent the majority of his 2015 season at Triple A Fresno, but did spend a 12-day stint with the Major League club in May...was with the Astros from May 1-12 and made three appearances, allowing 2 runs in 5.1 innings for a 3.38 ERA...posted Major League career highs in innings pitched (3IP) and strikeouts (4) on May 5 vs. TEX...was one of three lefty relievers in Major League camp and was one of the final cuts, being optioned to Triple A on April 1...made nine appearances for the Astros in Spring Training, posting a 3.00 ERA (3ER/9IP)...made 49 total appearances for Fresno, going 3-2 with eight saves and a 4.75 ERA (28ER/53IP)...struck out 61 hitters in his 53.0 innings pitched...limited lefties to a .212 (14x66) opponent batting average and did not allow a home run to a lefty in 2015...made five scoreless relief appearances (5IP) and picked up a save in the postseason as Fresno won the Triple A Championship...including the postseason, concluded his season making 13 consecutive scoreless appearances (13.2IP).

2014: Made his first Opening Day roster and pitched in 21 games across three stints with Houston...increased his innings, win and strikeout totals from 2013, while lowering his walk rate (11.3% from 14.9%) and boosting his strikeout rate (19.6% from 17.2%) and groundball rate (49.2% from 37.0%)...stranded 14-of-16 inherited runners, good for the lowest inherited runners scored percentage on the club (12.5%, min. 15 apps.)...made the Opening Day roster for the first time in his career but was optioned to Triple A on April 16...recalled to Houston on July 1 for a one-game stint as he was optioned to Triple A following that game...

- The 21-year-old shortstop is in his second Major League season after a historic 2015 rookie campaign in which he played the entire season as the youngest position player in the Major Leagues, while hitting third for the playoff-bound Astros... was named the 2015 Jackie Robinson AL Rookie of the Year and also earned the MLBPA Players Choice Award for the AL Most Outstanding Rookie.
- Carried his strong rookie season into the 2015 playoffs in which he hit .292 (7x24) with two home runs and four RBI...set and tied several Major League playoff records, including setting the record for total bases in a playoff game by a shortstop by collecting 11 total bases in Game 4 of the ALDS (ESPN Stats & Info)...also, per Elias, became the third player in MLB history age 21 or younger to hit in the third spot in the order in a playoff game, joining Joe DiMaggio (1936 World Series) and Mickey Mantle (1952 World Series).
- Had a standout 2014 season at Class A Advanced Lancaster as a 19-year-old before sustaining a season-ending ankle injury in June...was named a California League Midseason All-Star, hitting .325 (81x249) with 16 doubles, six triples, six homers, 57 RBI, 20 steals and a .926 OPS (.416 OBP/.510 SLG)... prior to his injury, was leading all California League shortstops with a .969 fielding percentage.
- Played the entire 2013 season as the second-youngest player in the Class A Midwest League, yet was named a Midseason and Postseason All-Star...led all Midwest League shortstops in fielding percentage...offensively, led the league in OPS (.872) while finishing second in on-base percentage (.405) and third in batting average (.320).
- Entered the 2015 season ranked as the No. 3 prospect in all of baseball by MLB.com, Baseball Prospectus and ESPN.com...entering the 2013 and 2014 seasons was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 prospect, 'Best Defensive Infielder' and 'Best Infield Arm' in the Astros system... rated by the publication as the Astros 'Best Hitter for Average' prior to 2014...named the 'Best Defensive Shortstop', 'Best Infield Arm' and 'Most

- Played amateur baseball at the Puerto Rico Baseball Academy in Gurabo, Puerto Rico and was named a Rawlings First Team All-American in 2012, his final year at the academy...drafted by Houston with the first overall selection in the June 2012 draft... signed by Astros scouts Larry Pardo and Joey Sola.
- Became the highest-drafted player ever out of Puerto Rico, a label that was previously held by catcher Ramon Castro, who was picked 17th overall by Houston in 1994.
- Also became the first shortstop taken first overall since 2008 (Tim Beckham-TB), and just the fourth shortstop taken first overall since 1994...other notable players who were selected as shortstops with the first overall pick were Shawon Dunston (1982-CHC), B.J. Surhoff (1985-MIL), Chipper Jones (1990-ATL), Alex Rodriguez (1993-SEA) and Justin Upton (2005-ARI).
- At 6-foot-4, is considered an extremely tall shortstop...in Astros history, the tallest player to see 100+ games at the position was IF Orlando Miller (6'3")...the tallest Major League players to play 100+ games at shortstop in 2015 were all shorter than Correa: Ian Desmond, Wilmer Flores, Jordy Mercer and Troy Tulowitzki, who are all listed at 6-foot-3.
- Last season, became the second player in franchise history to win the Rookie of the Year, joining Jeff Bagwell, who won the NL award in 1991...he also became the sixth Puerto Rico native to win the Rookie of the Year, joining Orlando Cepeda (1958), Benito Santiago (1987), Sandy Alomar (1990), Carlos Beltran (1999) and Geovany Soto (2008).
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster in June of 2015, Correa is currently signed to a one-year contract that runs through 2016.

Exciting Player' in the California League in 2014 by BA...rated as the Astros organization's "Best Power Hitter" prior to 2013...ranked as the Gulf Coast League's No. 2 prospect in 2012...was a Baseball America top 100 prospect in 2014 (No. 7) and 2013 (No. 13).

2015: A June call-up, Correa played the entire season as the youngest position player in the Major Leagues, yet hit third for the Astros en route to being named the Jackie Robinson AL Rookie of the Year...also earned the MLBPA Players Choice Award for the AL Most Outstanding Rookie and was named the Sporting News AL Rookie of the Year...the 21-year-old set a franchise rookie record for homers in a season (previously Lance Berkman with 21 in 2000), in addition to hitting the most homers by a shortstop in club history for a single season (previously Dickie Thon with 20 in 1983)...despite being the youngest position player in the Majors and playing in just 99 games, led all Major League shortstops in homers, OPS (.857) and slugging (.512), while ranking fourth in on-base percentage (.345)...led all AL rookies in HR, SLG and OPS, while ranking second in RBI and OBP, and third in batting average (min. 400PA)...among Astros rookies all-time, ranked fourth in OPS and fifth in RBI, which were both the highest totals by an Astros rookie since Hunter Pence in 2007 (.899 OPS/69RBI)...stole 14 bases, going 14-for-18 (77.8%) in attempts...14 steals rank seventh all-time in club history by a rookie, and mark the most by a Houston rookie since Willy Taveras swiped 34 bags in 2005...was named the AL June Rookie of the Month...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 18 home runs were the second-most by a shortstop prior to his 21st birthday in MLB history, behind only Alex Rodriguez (26)...is the only shortstop in the last 100 years to record 22 homers within his first 100 games in the Major Leagues...the previous record was held by Nomar Garciaparra (16 HR in first 100 games)...joined Garciaparra (30HR/22SB) as the only shortstops in Major League history to reach 22 homers and 14 steals in their rookie season...per Baseball Reference, his 4.1 wins above replacement ranked as the second-highest total by a shortstop prior to his age-21 season, trailing only Alex Rodriguez and his 9.4 mark set in 1996, his age-20 season...became one of 19 Major Leaguers all-time to record 22 homers prior to his age-21 season...prior to Correa, the only players to do this since 1990: Bryce Harper, Mike Trout, Giancarlo Stanton, Adrian Beltre, Andruw Jones, Alex Rodriguez and Ken Griffey Jr...from the date of his Major League debut (June 8) through the end of the season, led the Astros in homers, RBI,extra-base hits (45), go-ahead RBI (20), game-winning RBI (8) and slugging percentage, while ranking second in hits (108) and tied for second in steals (14)...hit .359 (51x142) with 11 homers and a 1.097 OPS (.435 OBP/.662 SLG) with two outs...ranked second in the AL in both batting average and OPS with two outs, trailing Lorenzo Cain (.372) in average and Mike Trout in OPS (1.153)...hit .395 (15x38) with four homers, 19 RBI and a 1.240 OPS in 44 plate appearances with runners in scoring position and two outs...began his season at Double A Corpus Christi...was promoted to Triple A Fresno on May 11, and was selected to the Major League roster on June 8...missed four games with left hamstring soreness from Aug. 26-30...made his Major League debut on June 8 at CWS, going 1x4 with an RBI-single off LHP Chris Sale...at 20 years, 259 days, became the youngest player in club history to make a start at shortstop, edging out Alex Taveras, who was 20 years and 341 days old on Sept. 14, 1976...became the youngest Astros position player to make his MLB debut since Derrel Thomas on Sept. 14, 1971 (20 years, 243 days)...became the third player in club history to reach base safely in each of his first 10 Major League games, joining Kiké Hernandez (2014) and Jimmy Wynn (1963)...per Elias, became the third player in club history with three consecutive multi-hit games within the first 10 days of his Major League debut: also Ken Caminiti (1987) and Orlando Miller (1994)...on June 18 at COL, stole three bases, becoming the third-youngest player in the modern era to swipe three bags in a game (20 years, 269 days) (Elias Sports Bureau)...Rickey Henderson (Aug. 23, 1979, 20.241) and Ty Cobb (Sept. 2, 1907, 20.258) were the only two to do it at a younger age...was named the AL Rookie of the Month for June, becoming the sixth player in club history to win a Rookie of the Month award...led all AL rookies in OPS (.852), slugging (.543), RBI (15) and doubles (9) while ranking tied for first in homers (5) and third in average (.287) during the month...in Houston's 12-8, 10th-inning victory over the Red Sox on July 3 at Fenway Park, hit a go-ahead solo homer in the 8th inning and a game-winning, RBI-single in the 10th...per Elias, became the first player age 20 or younger to record a game-winning RBI in an extra-innings win since Manny Machado on May 10, 2013...the only other Houston player to do this was Cesar Cedeno in both 1970 and 1971 at the age of 19 and 20...tallied his 50th base hit on July 28 vs. LAA following a 3x4 performance...per Elias, became the fourth player since 1950 to accumulate 50 hits within his first 42 games in the Majors before turning 21, joining Rennie Stennett (1971) and Hall of Famers Roberto Clemente (1955) and Orlando Cepeda (1958)...recorded his 15th homer on Aug. 19 vs. TB in what was his 62nd game...per Elias, there have been only two players in Major League history to hit at least 15 homers before turning 21 in fewer games than Correa did: Willie Mays (55th game, in 1951) and Frank Robinson (58th game, in 1956)...on Aug. 14 vs. DET, drew three walks...at 20 years, 326 days, became the youngest Houston player to record three walks in a game since Joe Morgan (20 years, 10 days) did so on Sept. 29, 1963 vs. NYM...knocked his first-career walk-off hit on Aug. 19 vs. TB...was an RBI-single in the 13th inning...went 3x4 with a triple, homer, single, walk, stolen base, four RBI and four runs scored on Oct. 2 at ARI...the only player younger than Correa (21 years, 10 days) to record a homer, triple, single and walk in a single game since 1914 was Ted Williams (twice in 1939)...his four RBI on Oct. 2 at ARI tied his career high (accomplished three times), while his four runs set a single-game career high...became the youngest player in club history to record four RBI and four runs in the same game, and the youngest Major Leaguer to do so since Miguel Cabrera on July 1, 2003...started at shortstop in all six of Houston's postseason games...made his first career postseason appearance in the Wild Card Game at NYY...at 21 years, 14 days, became the youngest player in club history to appear in a playoff game...previously Richard Hidalgo (22 years, 94 days) in Game 1 of the 1997 NLDS at ATL...became the third-youngest player to start a playoff game at shortstop in MLB history, behind Miguel Cabrera (2003 NLCS) and Travis Jackson (1924 World Series)...recorded his first career postseason hit in Game 1 of the ALDS...at 21 years, 15 days old, became the youngest player in club history to record a hit in the playoffs...the record was previously held by Richard Hidalgo, who went 1x4 at 23 years, 98 days old in Game 4 of the 1998 NLDS at SD...went 4x4 with two homers, a double and four total RBI in Game 4 of the ALDS vs. KC...became the second player in Astros franchise history to hit multiple homers in a postseason game, joining Carlos Beltran (Game 5 of the 2004 NLDS at ATL)...became the second-youngest player in Major League history (21 years, 20 days) to hit multiple homers in a postseason game, behind only Andruw Jones (19 years, 180 days), who hit two homers in Game 1 of the 1996 World Series at NYY...per ESPN Stats & Info, his 11 total bases in Game 4 of the ALDS marked the most by a shortstop in a single postseason game in MLB history...Derek Jeter held the previous record with 10 total bases in Game 1 of the 2006 ALDS vs. DET...per the Elias Sports Bureau, became the youngest player to record at least four hits and four RBI in a postseason game...the only other player to do this before his 25th birthday was Goose Goslin (23), who did so in Game 4 of the 1924 World Series for the Senators...per Elias, became the third player in MLB history age 21 or younger to hit in the third spot in the order in a playoff game, joining Joe DiMaggio (1936 World Series) and Mickey Mantle (1952 World Series).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- A 22nd round pick by Milwaukee in 2009, Fiers spent only two seasons in the minor leagues before debuting for the Brewers in 2011...entering the 2016 season had amassed a 23-29 record and a 3.61 ERA (162ER/404IP) in his Major League career.
- From the 2011-15 seasons, ranked ninth among all Major League pitchers in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (9.09, 408SO/404IP) (min. 400IP)...trailed only Darvish, Strasburg, Sale, Scherzer, Kershaw, Kluber, Harvey and Liriano.
- Had a memorable year in 2015, as he spent the entire season in the Majors for the first time in his career, was traded to Houston and tossed his first career no-hitter...the no-hitter came on Aug. 21 vs. LAD...in the outing, he allowed just three walks on a career-high 134 pitches...he retired 21 straight batters following a third inning walk to Joc Pederson...this marked the 11th no-hitter in club history, the 10th individual no-hitter, and the first no-hitter in Minute Maid Park history.
- In 2014, was a Triple A Pacific Coast League All-Star before joining the Brewers rotation in August...while his Major League time was only two months in 2014, it was memorable as he was named the Brewers Pitcher of the Month for August...he posted a career-high 14 strikeouts over 6.0 shutout innings in a 6-2 win on Aug. 14 at CHC...by doing so he became just the eighth Major League pitcher since 1900 with 14+ strikeouts in 6.0 innings pitched or fewer.
- Saw his first extended Major League action in 2012 after being called up in May and sticking with the club thru the end of the season...finished his campaign ranking third among NL rookies in wins (9), ERA (3.74), innings (127.2) and strikeouts (135).
- Was named Brewers Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2011 as he went 13-3 with a 1.86 ERA (26ER/126IP) and five saves in 34 games (18 starts) between Double A Huntsville and Triple A Nashville...he would finish his season with the Brewers, as he was a September call-up that season.
- Was named a Florida State League All-Star in 2010 while pitching for Class A Brevard County...earned a midseason call up to Double A Huntsville in what was his second professional season.

NOTES

- Last name is pronounced as 'Fires'.
- Graduated from Deerfield Beach H.S., which is a northern suburb of Miami, Fla., in 2003... would attend two community colleges in Cumberland County (KY) and Broward Community (FL) before settling in at Nova Southeastern University.
- While at Nova, led the nation with 145 strikeouts in 108.2 innings in his senior season of 2009...was drafted in the 22nd round of the 2009 draft by Milwaukee, just two rounds behind his collegiate teammate J.D. Martinez, who was taken by Houston in the 20th round...signed by Brewers scout Charlie Sullivan.
- Although he pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of five seasons from 2011-15, will not be arbitration eligible until after the 2016 season.

2015: After being acquired via trade, was slotted into the Astros rotation on Aug. 9, and made nine starts for the club...on the season with Houston and Milwaukee, set career highs in starts (30), innings pitched (180.1), strikeouts (180), and posted his lowest ERA (3.69) in a season (min. 100 MLB IP)...had his season highlight on Aug. 21 vs. LAD, as he threw his first no-hitter and complete game...named the AL Player of the Week for that week...in the outing, allowed just three walks on a career-high 134 pitches (previous high was 113, last accomplished on July 3 at CIN)...retired 21 straight batters following a third inning walk to Joc Pederson...struck out 10 batters...was his seventh career double-digit strikeout game...marked the 11th no-hitter in club history, 10th individual no-hitter, and first no-hitter in Minute Maid Park history...made his first start with the Astros on Aug. 9 at OAK (1ER/6.2IP), and from that date forward posted a 2.67 ERA (17ER/57.1IP), which ranked fifth the American League and ranked 12th in the Majors in that span...posted a .184 opponent batting average in that span, which ranked second the AL and ranks sixth in the Majors...his 8.98 (180SO, 180.1IP) strikeouts per 9.0 innings mark led all Astros starters (numbers combined from MIL and HOU)...as a Brewer, made 21 starts and went 10-11 in his starts...as an Astros starter, went 2-1 with a 2.67 ERA (17ER/57.1IP), 53 strikeouts and a .184 opponent batting average in nine starts...made his second Opening Day roster with the Brewers, and pitched out of their rotation for his first 21 starts...was traded to Houston on July 30, where he remained through the end of the season....was his first full season in the Majors, avoiding any minor league stints and trips to the Disabled List...made his only relief appearance this season, and Astros debut on Aug. 3 at TEX...pitched 5.0 innings in relief, which was the Astros longest relief outing this season...from Aug. 9-29, allowed only one earned run or less in what were his first four starts with the club...became one of five pitchers in club history to allow one earned run or less in each of his first four starts with the club...gave up his first earned runs at Minute Maid Park on Sept. 18 vs. OAK...became the fifth pitcher to start his Astros career by not allowing an earned run in each of his first two starts at home...the last to do so was LHP Randy Johnson, who set a club record in 1998 by not allowing an earned run in each of his first four home starts with Houston...pitched in Game 5 of the ALDS vs. KC, allowing one run in 1.0 inning of work, his only appearance of the postseason.

2014: Went 6-5 with a 2.13 ERA (17ER/71.2IP) in 14 games (10 starts) during a pair of stints with Milwaukee...was with the Brewers from June 8-24 and from Aug. 9, through the end of the season...held opponents to a .181 batting average with 76 strikeouts in just 71.2 innings...pitched in relief during his first stint, going 0-1 with a 2.57 ERA in four appearances (2ER/7IP)...was a starter during his second stint, going 6-4 with a 2.09 ERA (15ER/64.2IP) in 10 starts...joined the starting rotation on Aug. 9, following an injury to Matt Garza...beginning with the date of his first start (Aug. 9 vs. LAD), he ranked second in the NL in strikeouts (71) and 10th in ERA (2.09)...produced eight quality starts on the season...in his four losses as a starter, the team scored just four runs total...from Aug. 9-24 had a career-high, four-game winning streak over four starts with a 1.29 ERA (4ER/28IP)...had a career-high 14 strikeouts over 6.0 shutout innings in a 6-2 win on Aug. 14 at CHC...joined Ben Sheets (18), Yovani Gallardo (14) and Moose Haas (14) as the only pitchers in Brewers franchise history to produce 14+ strikeouts in a game...became the eighth Major League pitcher since 1900 with 14+ strikeouts in 6.0 innings pitched or fewer...was named Brewers Pitcher of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 1.80 ERA in five starts...retired his last 18 batters in a row in a 6-1 win on Aug. 19 vs. TOR (7 IP, 2 H, 1 ER, 1 BB, 6 K)...went 8-5 with a 2.55 ERA (29ER/102.1IP) in 17 starts at Triple A Nashville, making 11 quality starts...was a Pacific Coast League All-Star...was also named the PCL Pitcher of the Week for the week of April 28-May 4.

2015: Converted to a relief role in early August after making 15 starts to begin the season...battled right forearm soreness that landed him on the disabled list on May 15...went 4-7 with a 4.60 ERA in his 15 starts...started strong, going 2-1 with a 2.87 ERA (12ER/37.2IP) in his first six starts of the season... tossed 7.0 innings of four-hit, shutout ball on June 25 vs. ATL in what was his best start of the 2015 season...went 1-0 with one save and a 2.12 ERA (4ER/17IP) in his 10 games out of the bullpen...did not allow an earned run in his last six games (10.1IP)...had one DL stint from May 15-June 18 with right forearm soreness.

2014: Did not pitch until May 9 (team game #35) due to a right lat strain, yet led the Nationals with a career-

high 16 wins...ranked highly among NL starters in ERA (4th, 2.41), walk rate (3rd, 4.1%), WHIP (5th, 1.08), walks per nine innings pitched (2nd, 1.32), wins (7th, 16), winning percentage (3rd, .727), strikeout-to-walk ratio (7th, 4.08) and wins above replacement (9th, 4.5)...posted more starts (25) than walks issued (24) and was one of five big league starters to accomplish the feat in 2014 along with teammate Jordan Zimmermann...Zimmermann and Fister were the first set of rotation-mates to achieve this feat since Brad Radke (31 starts, 23 walks) and Carlos Silva (27 starts, 9 walks) turned the trick for the 2005 Twins...became one of only three NL pitchers in the last 51 years (1964-2014), to record at least 16 wins in 25 or fewer starts: Fister (16W, 25GS/'14), K.Hill (16W, 23GS/'94), G.Maddux (16W, 25GS in 1994)...allowed zero earned runs in starts of at least 7.0 innings eight times, second-most in MLB behind STL's Adam Wainwright (12)...tossed his second career shutout (seventh complete game) on Sept. 26 vs. MIA (9.0 IP, 3 H, 9 SO)...earned the win in Game 3 of the NLDS vs. SF, the only victory Washington would claim in the best-of-five series.

2013: Posted career highs with 14 wins and 159 strikeouts en route to ranking among AL leaders in GDPs induced (T-1st, 26), home runs allowed per 9.0 innings (2nd, 0.60), ground ball-to-fly ball ratio (3rd, 2.17/1), walks per 9.0 innings (4th, 1.90), fielding independent pitching (6th, 3.32), wins (T-8th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (9th, 3.61/1) and quality starts (T-9th, 22) in his last of three seasons with Detroit...issued one walk or fewer in 21 of 32 starts (66%), but his 16 hit batsmen ranked second in MLB behind only Cleveland's Justin Masterson (17)...pitched twice for Detroit in the postseason, going 1-0 with a 3.00 ERA (4ER/12IP) in two Tigers victories: ALDS Game 4 vs. OAK (3ER/6IP) and ALCS Game 4 vs. BOS (1ER/6IP).

2012: Won 10 games for the Tigers and fanned a career high 7.6 batters per 9.0 innings...made just 26 starts after missing a month (April 8-May 7) with a left costochondral strain...returned to the DL, May 29-June 16 with a left side strain...went 8-4 with a 2.67 ERA (30ER/101IP) in 15 post-ASB starting assignments...pocketed his first career shutout in Detroit's 8-0 win on Sept. 22 vs. MIN by scattering seven hits, with no walks and seven strikeouts...on Sept. 27 vs. KC, set an American League record by striking out nine consecutive batters in the Tigers' 5-4 home win over the Royals...started one game each in the ALDS vs. OAK, the ALCS at NYY and the World Series at SF...went 0-1 with a 1.40 ERA (3ER/19.1IP) in his three starts, which ended as two Tiger victories...recieved the loss in Game 2 of the World Series after allowing one run in 6.0 innings in a 2-0 loss to Madison Bumgarner and the Giants.

2011: Pitched for both the Tigers (21 starts) and Mariners (11 games/10 starts) and finished 11-13 with a 2.83 ERA (68ER/216.1IP) that ranked fourth in the AL...also rated among AL leaders in home runs allowed per 9.0 innings (first, 0.5) and walks per 9.0 innings (3rd, 1.5)...sparked the Tigers postseason run, going 8-1 with a 1.79 ERA (14ER/70.1IP) in 11 games (10 starts) upon being acquired on July 30...posted career highs with 216.1 innings and a 3.95 SO/BB ratio...tossed the initial three complete games of his career on April 14 at KC, June 9 at DET and July 2 vs. SD...went 5-0 with a 0.53 ERA (2ER/34IP) in five starts to earn AL Pitcher of the Month honors for Sept...started one game in the ALDS vs. NYY, Game 5 at Yankee Stadium and pitched the Tigers to the ALCS by tossing 5.0 innings and allowing one run in the 3-2 win...earned a win in his only start in the ALCS vs. TEX in Game 3 after allowing just two runs on seven hits in 7.1 innings in a 5-2 win.

2010: In his first full big league campaign, made 28 starts for the Mariners and walked only 1.7 batters per nine innings pitched to rank third in the AL...started strong, allowing three earned runs or less in his first nine starts of the season...through his first 10 outings on the year was 3-3 with a 2.45 ERA (19ER/69.2IP)...after those 10 starts, was shelved on the DL for nearly three weeks (June 6-24) with right shoulder fatigue...returned from the DL and would finish his season with a 3-11 record and a 5.24 ERA (59ER/101.1IP) in his final 18 starts on the season.

2009: Combined to go 7-4 with a 3.62 ERA (45ER/112IP) in 24 games (17 starts) for Triple A Tacoma and Double A West Tennessee to earn his first taste of the big leagues...was recalled by Seattle on Aug. 8 and made his MLB debut on Aug. 9 vs. TB tossing 1.0 scoreless inning in relief...fanned Gregg Zaun for his first Major League strikeout...in his first big league start, Aug. 11 vs. CWS, spun 6.0 one-hit scoreless innings, walked four, struck out four, but did not get a decision (CWS won, 4-1)...became the first Seattle pitcher to work at least 6.0 scoreless innings in an initial MLB start since Clint Nageotte on June 7, 2004...earned his first big league win in his next start, a Mariners' 10-3 win, on Aug. 16 vs. NYY.

MINOR LEAGUES:

2008: Returned to Double A West Tennessee for his second consecutive season...through his first 10 starts of the year, was 5-2 with a 3.12 ERA...was named the Southern League Pitcher of the Week for the week ending on April 21 after making two scoreless starts that week (13.2IP)...would go on to lose 12 consecutive decisions from May 26-Aug. 10...pitched in relief in his final eight appearance of the season…following the regular season, struck out 22 in 19.0 innings (10.4 per 9.0 innings) en route to a 3.32 ERA in 11 relief appearances with the Peoria Javelinas in the Arizona Fall League...2007: Pitching for Double A West Tennessee in what was his second professional season...finished tied for the team lead with seven wins, allowed three earned runs or fewer in 16 of his 24 assignments, and tossed his first career complete game, allowing three runs on eight hits in 9.0 innings on Aug. 15 vs. Huntsville...2006: Began his pro career with Everett of the short-season Class A Northwest League...posted a 0.95 ERA in four starts but did make a total of 20 appearances that season...struck out a season-high nine in first professional start on June 22 vs. Tri-City.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Hard-throwing reliever is entering his third Major League season, and his first with Houston since getting acquired from Philadelphia via trade this offseason...in 113 career relief appearances, has gone 9-4 with 16 saves in 21 chances, a 1.56 ERA (30ER/115.2IP) and 151 strikeouts.
- His 1.56 ERA is the lowest in Major League history by a pitcher with at least 100.0 innings pitched...the only reliever in MLB history to post a lower ERA through his first two seasons in the Majors (min. 100IP) was RHP Jonathan Papelbon, who posted a 1.50 ERA from 2005-06.
- Has posted an 11.75 strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio (151SO/115.2IP) through his first two seasons in the big leagues...only three relievers in Major League history posted a higher ratio through their first two MLB seasons: RHP John Rocker (11.91 from 1998-99), LHP Rex Brothers (11.80 from 2011-12) and RHP Troy Percival (11.80 from 1995-96).
- Ranks third among MLB relievers in ERA since making his Major League debut in 2014, trailing only RHP Wade Davis (0.97) and RHP Dellin Betances (1.45) in that span.
- Was appointed to the closer's role in 2015 with Philadelphia following the trade of Jonathan Papelbon to Washington on July 28...in 24 games as the Phillies closer, went 1-1 while going 15-for-17 in save chances (88.2%) and posting a 1.71 ERA (5ER/26.1IP), five walks, 33 strikeouts and a .198 opponent batting average (20x101)...overall on the season, ranked third among National League relievers in ERA (1.80) and tied for fourth in strikeouts (87).
- Finished fourth in the National League Rookie of the Year voting in 2014 after leading all NL rookie relievers in ERA (1.18), opponent batting average (.164), strikeouts per 9.0 innings (12.61) and WHIP (0.79), while finishing second in strikeouts (64) and inherited runners scored percentage (14.3%, 2IRS/14IR) (min. 40IP)...among all NL relievers with at least 40 innings pitched, ranked second in ERA, third in WHIP and strikeout to walk ratio (5.82), and fifth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings and opponent batting average.
- Became the fastest pitcher in Phillies history to reach 50 career strikeouts, doing so in his first 35.0 innings...surpassed LHP Grant Jackson, who reached 50 strikeouts in his first 39.2 innings in 1967...also became the fastest Phillies pitcher to reach 100 career strikeouts (77IP) since RHP Brad Lidge (74.2IP)...recorded his 100th career punchout on June 23, 2015 at NYY (Brett Gardner).
- Was ranked by Baseball America as the Phillies No. 20 prospect in 2014 and No. 19 prospect in 2013...rated as having the organization's "Best Fastball" prior to the 2013 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Versatile infielder has played in 375 games for the Astros over the last four seasons (2012-15)...has played 203 games at shortstop (181 starts), 49 games at third base (29 starts), 44 games at first base (20 starts), 42 games at second base (24 starts), 19 games in left field (13 starts) and one in right field in his MLB career.
- Is one of two players in club history to have played at least 15 games at each of the following positions: shortstop, third base, first base, second base, left field...the only other Astros player to do this was Bill Spiers from 1996-2001, who played 75 games at shortstop, 381 at third base, 20 at first base, 50 at second base and 31 in left field.
- Had a career year in 2015 as the Astros utility man, posting single-season career highs in games (120), starts (86), hits (96), doubles (18), homers (12), RBI (34), slugging percentage (.442) and OPS (.759)...over his final 70 games of the season, batted .321 (68x212) with nine doubles, one triple, 10 homers, 21 RBI and an .885 OPS (.371 OBP/.514 SLG).
- Went 3x4 with three runs scored on April 9, 2012, vs. ATL (his fourth career game)...became one of three Astros all-time to record three-or-more hits and three-or-more runs scored in the same game within his first four career games...the last Astro to do so prior to Marwin was OF Kenny Lofton in his MLB debut on Sept. 14, 1991, vs CIN.
- Hit his first MLB homer on May 14, 2012, at PHI, which came as a pinch-hitter, off RHP Joe Blanton...was the first of two Astros players to hit their first MLB homer as a pinch-hitter during the season (also, OF Brandon Barnes)...prior to the 2012 season, the last Astro to hit his first Major League homer as a pinch-hitter was IF Mark Saccomanno on Sept. 8, 2008.
- Was named to the Southern League Midseason All-Star Team in 2011 while with Double A Tennessee.
- Played in his first postseason games with Houston in 2015, entering four games as a defensive replacement at first base (3g) and third base (1g)...went 0x3 in three plate appearances.

NOTES

- Was originally signed by Chicago (NL) as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent from Venezuela on Nov. 23, 2005...signed by Cubs scout Hector Ortega.
- Was taken by Boston with the 10th overall selection in the 2011 Rule 5 Draft...three picks later, the Astros selected RHP Marco Duarte with the first selection in the Triple A phase...the Astros and Red Sox traded these two picks for each other.
- Was one of two Rule 5 draftees that spent the 2012 season on the Astros 25-man roster (also RHP Rhiner Cruz)...since 2009, Houston has had five Rule 5 Draft picks stick with the Major League club for an entire season: also LHP Wesley Wright (2008), RHP Aneury Rodriguez (2011) and RHP Josh Fields (2013).
- His father, Mario, is currently an international scout (Venezuela) with the Tampa Bay Rays...his brother, also named Mario, spent four seasons in the Rangers minor league system from 1992-95.
- Was arbitration eligible for the second time in his career this offseason...is signed to a one-year contract that runs through the 2016 season.

2015: Had a career year as the Astros utility man, posting single-season career highs in games (120), starts (86), hits (96), doubles (18), homers (12), RBI (34), slugging percentage (.442) and OPS (.759)...played all around the diamond, seeing time at first base (43g), shortstop (32g), third base (21g), second base (15g) and left field (15g)...marked his first career starts at first base...hit .295 (41x139) with eight doubles, one triple, six homers, 14 RBI and an .843 OPS (.347 OBP/.496 SLG) against left-handed pitchers...all 12 of his homers were solo shots...batted .278 (15x54) with three homers, eight RBI and an .822 OPS in 16 games against the division-rival Mariners (went 7x23, .304, at Safeco Field)...boosted his career numbers against Seattle to: .304 (35x115) average, eight homers, 15 RBI, .920 OPS (.355 OBP/.565 SLG) in 40 games...moved his career numbers at Safeco Field to: .320 (16x50) average, four homers, six RBI, .970 OPS (.370 OBP/.600 SLG) in 20 games...went 1x2 off RHP Hisashi Iwakuma, propping his career average against him to .571 (8x14)...marks his most career hits against any Major League pitcher...made the Astros Opening Day roster for the fourth consecutive season...spent the entire year with Houston, but did miss seven games in September while nursing various hand injuries...finished ninth in the AL in batting average and OPS in July...hit .364 (20x55) with three doubles, three homers, five RBI and a 1.008 OPS (.426 OBP/.582 SLG) in 20 games during the month...hit a walk-off homer on Aug. 18 vs. TB, becoming the first Astros player with three hits and an extra-inning homer in the same game since Miguel Tejada on June 2, 2009 (Elias Sports Bureau)...over his final 70 games of the year, hit .321 (68x212) with nine doubles, one triple, 10 homers, 21 RBI and an .885 OPS (.371 OBP/.514 SLG)...played in four of the Astros six playoff games as a defensive replacement...marked his first trip to the postseason.

2014: Played in a career-high 103 games with Houston, making 76 starts (64 at SS, 6 at 3B, 5 at 2B, 1 in LF)...became the first Astro to start games at those four positions in one season since IF/OF Brian Bixler (2012)...tallied 285 at-bats, 81 more than his previous high set in 2013, and set career highs in almost every offensive category...switch-hitter batted .333 (13x39) against lefties, and all six of his homers came off righties...made his third straight Opening Day roster and spent the entire season on the active Major League roster for the first time in his career...shared time at shortstop with IF Jonathan Villar and IF Gregorio Petit...played left field, right field and third base on April 11 at TEX...only other player in club history to play those three positions in the same game was IF/OF Bill Spiers on Sept. 21, 1999, at PIT...notched four hits and an RBI on May 26 at KC, marking a career high in hits in a game...the last Astros shortstop to record four hits in a game was IF Angel Sanchez on April 12, 2011, vs. CHC...went 2x4 in a start on July 1 vs. SEA (one hit off RHP Hisashi Iwakuma)...improved his career numbers against Iwakuma to 7x12 (.583) with a homer and an RBI...became a career .328 (20x61) hitter with five homers, seven RBI and a 1.004 OPS against the Mariners...11 of his 15 doubles of the season came in his last 43 games.

2013: Played in 72 games with Houston, primarily at shortstop (53g), but also saw time at second base (10g) and third base (4g)...all four of his homers came off righties...made his second straight Opening Day roster and split time at shortstop with IF Ronny Cedeno until he was optioned to Triple A on June 24...played in 44 games with Triple A Oklahoma City and was recalled back to Houston on Aug. 14...remained in Houston through the end of the season where he served as the backup shortstop to IF Jonathan Villar...on April 2 vs. TEX, broke up RHP Yu Darvish's perfect-game bid with two outs in the 9th inning by hitting a single up the middle...hit .262 (45x172) with 10 doubles and 15 RBI in 44 games with Triple A OKC...following the season, played for Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League and hit .297 (22x74) with nine RBI in 23 games.

2012: The 10th overall selection in the 2011 Rule 5 Draft spent the entire 2012 season with the Astros on the Major League roster...hit .234 (48x205) across 80 MLB games, making 38 starts at shortstop, six at third base and four at second base...remained on the Astros roster the entire season, but made stints on the Paternity List (April 27-30) and the Disabled List (June 8-July 15)...his DL time was accrued while recovering from a bruised right heel...also missed more than two weeks (Aug. 31-Sept. 19) of games with a left ankle sprain...started at shortstop for Houston on Opening Day, April 6, 2012, vs. COL...also started the first six games of the season at the position while IF Jed Lowrie began the year on the Disabled List...hit his first MLB homer on May 14 at PHI, which came as a pinch-hitter, off RHP Joe Blanton...was the first of two Astros players to hit their first MLB homer as a PH during the season (also, OF Brandon Barnes on Aug. 13 vs. CHC)...prior to the 2012 season, the last Astro to hit his first ML homer as a PH was IF Mark Saccomanno on Sept. 8, 2008...went 3x4 with three runs scored on April 9 vs. ATL (his fourth career game)...became one of three Astros all-time to record three-or-more hits and three-or-more runs scored in the same game within his first four career games...the last Astro to do so was OF Kenny Lofton in his MLB debut on Sept. 14, 1991, vs CIN...hit .290 (27x93) with a .353 on-base percentage over a 29-game stretch from May 25-Aug. 6, 2012...had a career day on July 29 vs. PIT, going 3x5 with two doubles and three RBI, helping to snap an Astros 12-game losing streak...hit .333 (13x39) with one homer and 10 RBI in his 13 games on his injury rehab assignment with Triple A OKC...after a slow start to the Spring, posted a .304 (7x23) average with five walks in his last 10 games, which helped him earn a spot on the Major League roster...was selected by Boston in the Rule 5 Draft before being traded to Houston in exchange for RHP Marco Duarte...even though he was acquired in a trade, his Rule 5 status still applied...following the season, played in 18 games for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The right-hander has pitched in seven seasons in the Major Leagues with San Diego (2009-13), Oakland (2014) and Houston (2015).
- Ranks sixth among active relief pitchers in ERA (2.69), trailing only RHP Jonathan Papelbon, RHP Brad Ziegler, RHP Joe Nathan, RHP Tyler Clippard and RHP Francisco Rodriguez (min. 460IP)...is the only Major League reliever to post an ERA under 3.25 in each of the last seven seasons.
- Is one of three Major League relievers to make at least 60 appearances in each of the last seven seasons (since 2009), joining RHP Brad Ziegler and LHP Matt Thornton...his 499 games pitched in that span mark the most in the Majors, directly ahead of Ziegler (488).
- Has held right-handed hitters to a .195 batting average (190x975) in his career, which ranks fourth among active pitchers (min. 1000 batters faced).
- Made 363 appearances during his five years with the Padres...marks the third-most appearances in San Diego club history behind RHP Trevor Hoffman (902) and LHP Craig Lefferts (375).
- Spent his first full season as a closer with Houston in 2015, successfully converting 31-of-36 save opportunities...ranked 10th in the AL in saves, and marked the most saves by an Astros reliever since RHP Jose Valverde posted 44 in 2009...became the second pitcher in club history to reach seven wins and 31 saves in a single season, joining RHP Doug Jones (11 wins, 36 saves in 1992).
- Set two club records with Houston in 2015, as the Astros recorded a win in each of the first 21 games in which he appeared...marked the longest start of season streak in club history (previously RHP Donne Wall: 10 games in 1996)...also marked the longest streak by a player to begin his career with Houston, surpassing RHP Roger Clemens (7g in 2004) and RHP Peter Munro (7g in 2002).
- Following the 2012 season, was honored with the Darrel Akerfelds Bullpen Award, which is given annually to the most outstanding member of the Padres bullpen as voted on by his peers...finished the season with a 2.39 ERA (19ER/71.2IP), 72 strikeouts and nine saves in 77 outings.
- In 2010, set a Major League record by recording 40 holds...broke the previous record of 36, held by RHP Scott Linebrink (2006) and RHP Tom Gordon (2004)...RHP Joel Peralta broke Gregerson's record with 41 holds in 2013.
- As a rookie in 2009, finished tied for second among NL relievers in holds (27), tied for third in strikeouts and ninth innings...led NL rookie relievers in strikeouts (1st) and holds (1st), while ranking second in games and innings, fifth in ERA and sixth in opponent average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter is entering his fifth professional season, and his second in the Major Leagues after making 22 starts with Houston as a rookie in 2015.
- Had one of the best rookie seasons by a pitcher in club history, finishing among the top 10 Astros rookies all-time in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (2nd, 9.24), opponent batting average (4th, .226), ERA (7th, 3.22) and strikeouts (7th, 129)...led all American League rookies in ERA, opponent batting average and strikeouts per 9.0 innings in 2015 (min. 100IP).
- Became one of 20 pitchers in Major League history to post a season with a strikeouts per 9.0 innings ratio above 9.00 prior to turning 22 years old (min. 100IP)...prior to McCullers, the last five pitchers to accomplish this were RHP Jose Fernandez (2013), LHP Clayton Kershaw (2009), LHP Oliver Perez (2003), RHP Mark Prior (2002) and LHP Rick Ankiel (2000).
- Held the opposition to three earned runs or less in 20 of his 22 starts...joined RHP Gerrit Cole (2013-14), RHP Stephen Strasburg (2010-12), RHP Brandon Webb (2003), RHP Aaron Sele (1993-94), LHP Bruce Ruffin (1986) and RHP Mike Witt (1981) as the only Major League pitchers since 1914 to allow three earned runs or less in 20 of their first 22 starts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed reliever is entering his eighth Major League season...has spent time with the Cleveland (2004-12), Arizona (2013), San Diego (2014) and Houston (2014-15) organizations, making 420 Major League appearances...has limited all opponents to a .207 (271x1310) average, including a .201 (136x675) mark against righties.
- Has made at least 50 appearances in six straight seasons (2010-15)...is one of only four lefties in the Majors to make 50+ apps. in each of the last six years...ranks sixth among lefties in apps. since the start of the 2010 season (374).
- Among AL lefty relievers in 2015, his 1.99 ERA ranked second behind LHP Zach Britton (1.92)...ranked fourth in opponent batting average (.208) and sixth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (10.27, 62SO/54.1IP)...his 1.99 ERA (12ER/54.1IP) was the lowest of his career, and ranked sixth all-time among left-handed Astros relievers for a single season...was the lowest since LHP Billy Wagner posted a 1.78 ERA in 2003.
- Had a career-long 20-game scoreless streak from July 7-Sept. 15, 2015...was the fourth-longest scoreless streak by a lefty in franchise history, and the longest since LHP Tim Byrdak's 22-game streak from July 31-Sept. 20, 2010.
- The former high-school outfielder has twice appeared as both a pitcher and an outfielder in the same game (both in 2014)...he and LHP Wesley Wright (2012) are the only two pitchers to do so in Astros franchise history.
- Had an incredible start to his Astros career, retiring 20 consecutive batters to open up his 2014 season, which marked the longest start-of-career streak in franchise history (Elias)...of the 20 batters he retired, 11 were via the strikeout...also set a club record by not allowing a baserunner in his first five relief appearances as an Astro.
- Pitched in all six of Houston's 2015 playoff games and was nearly unhittable, tossing 5.1 scoreless innings of relief while allowing just one hit...in the AL Wild Card Game at Yankee Stadium, Sipp fired a hitless 7th inning to help the Astros secure a 3-0 victory and a berth in the American League Division Series against the Royals, in what was his first career postseason appearance.
- His 2014 season ended as one of the best by a reliever in franchise history...posted the second-lowest opponent batting average by a reliever in Astros history (.157), behind only LHP Billy Wagner's mark of .135 set in 1999...also posted the fourth-lowest WHIP (0.89) by a reliever in club history...ranked third among all Major League pitchers in opponent average vs. lefties with his .138 mark (12x87, min. 90

PAUL RUNGE

FIELD COORDINATOR

TENURE: 34TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 6TH WITH HOUSTON

Paul Runge returns for his sixth consecutive season as the Astros minor league field coordinator. The former Major League infielder has helped oversee an Astros system that has ranked second among all 30 organizations in winning percentage over the last four seasons (1880-1600, .540).

Prior to joining the Astros in 2011, Runge compiled 14 years of minor league managerial experience in Atlanta's farm system. While managing the Rookie Level Danville Braves, Runge led the team to four first place finishes in the Appalachian League (2005-07, 2009), including two championship titles (2006, 2009). He was twice named Atlanta's Minor League Manager of the Year (2006, 2009) and Appalachian League Manager of the Year (2007, 2009).

Prior to his six-year stint in Danville, Runge spent an additional eight seasons managing at various stops in Atlanta's organization from 1993-2001. He has also managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-95).

The former shortstop's playing career began in 1979 when Atlanta selected him in the ninth round of the draft out of Jacksonville University. Runge played in parts of eight Major League seasons with Atlanta (1981-1988) and played 10 seasons in the minors with the Braves (1979-84, 86-87), Padres (1989) and Blue Jays (1990) organizations.

DOUG WHITE

PITCHING COORDINATOR

The 2016 season will be Doug White's first as pitching coordinator, as he has spent the last two seasons as Houston's roving pitching instructor. White joined the organization in 2013 as pitching coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats, where he helped lead the club to the New York-Penn League Championship title.

Before joining the Astros in 2013, White spent five seasons as a pitching coach in the Cardinals minor league system. From 2009-12, he was with Rookie Level Johnson City, winning back-to-back Appalachian League Championship titles in 2010 and 2011. Prior to his stint with Johnson City, he was the pitching coach for the 2008 New York-Penn League champion Batavia MuckDogs.

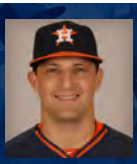

White was also a pitching coach for manager Jack Clark at Mid-Missouri of the Independent Frontier League in 2004, and was the extended Spring Training and Gulf Coast League pitching coach for the Expos in 2003.

White has extensive experience as a pitching instructor and is the founder of "Passion for Pitching", which is housed in Southern California. White is a 2002 graduate of Arizona State University and is a certified Zhealth specialist focused on enhancing movement patterns in his athletes. During the offseason, he resides in San Diego, Calif. where he spends most of his time surfing.

JEFF ALBERT

HITTING COORDINATOR

Jeff Albert enters his fourth season in the Astros organization and his third as the club's hitting coordinator. Albert joined the Astros in 2013 and served as the club's roving hitting instructor after spending the previous five seasons (2008-12) as a hitting coach in the Cardinals minor league system.

Albert began his coaching career as a hitting coach at Class A Short Season Batavia in 2008, where he helped guide the club to a championship as the MuckDogs offense was shut out just once all season. From Batavia, he was promoted to Class A Advanced Palm Beach where he spent four seasons as the club's hitting coach (2009-12).

Albert graduated from Butler University, and then played professionally in the independent leagues. He went on to earn a Master's degree in exercise science at Louisiana Tech University where he was involved in various baseball training and research studies, as well as strength and conditioning work with the school's baseball and softball teams. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and runs swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

MARK BAILEY

CATCHING COORDINATOR

TENURE: 32ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 26TH WITH HOUSTON

Former Astros catcher and Major League bullpen coach Mark Bailey enters his 18th season as a coach or instructor in the Astros organization, and his first as catching coordinator. Last season, Bailey served as the organization's roving catching instructor following two seasons as a developmental specialist/catching coach with the Class A Advanced California League Champion Lancaster JetHawks (2014) and Double A Corpus Christi Hooks (2013).

Bailey has been a mainstay in the Astros organization since beginning his coaching career as a hitting coach with the Class A Advanced Kissimmee Cobras in 1998. He has spent a total of seven seasons as a hitting coach in Houston's system, and from 2002-09 spent eight seasons as the Astros Major League bullpen coach where he helped guide the club to the NLCS in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

Bailey played in parts of seven seasons in the Major Leagues with Houston (1984-88) and San Francisco (1990, 1992), and was part of the Astros NL Western Division championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, where he played in 114 games and hit .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI.

Bailey was drafted by Houston as an infielder in the sixth round of the 1982 draft out of Southwest Missouri State, but converted to catcher in the minors. At SMS, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and basketball. He was also a two-time Division II All-American and set career records with 146 RBI and 16 game-winning RBI.

Mark and his wife, Mary Pat, have a son, John Patrick.

INFIELD COORDINATOR

TENURE: 19TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 12TH WITH HOUSTON

Adam Everett is set to return for his fourth consecutive season as a coach in the Astros system, and his first as infield coordinator. Everett has spent the last three seasons as the organization's infield instructor.

On Sept. 1, 2014, Everett was added to the Major League coaching staff where he served as interim bench coach for interim Astros manager Tom Lawless. Under Lawless and Everett, the Astros went 11-13 in September.

Everett began his coaching career in 2013 with the Astros, working with both the Major League and minor league players and staff by focusing on the development of infielders.

A veteran of 11 Major League seasons (2001-11), Everett started his big league career with Houston where he manned the shortstop position for parts of seven seasons (2001-07). One of the top defensive players in the Major Leagues, Everett made just 85 errors in 827 career games for a .976 fielding percentage.

In 2005, Everett appeared in 152 games for the NL Champion Astros and started at shortstop in all 14 games that postseason, including four starts in the World Series. His .990 fielding percentage (7 E, 688 TC) in 2006 marked the best by a shortstop in franchise history for a single season, and ranked second in the NL that year.

Following his playing career, Everett joined the Cleveland front office in 2012 as a special assistant to baseball operations. His career in professional baseball began after he was selected by the Red Sox in the first round of the 1998 draft out of the University of South Carolina.

LEON ROBERTS

ROVING OUTFIELD + BASERUNNING COORD.

Leon Roberts returns for his fifth straight season with the Astros and his first as the club's roving outfield and baserunning coordinator. Over the last four years, Roberts has served as the Astros Triple A hitting coach. In 2015, he helped lead the Fresno Grizzlies to a PCL Championship and a Triple A National Championship title.

Prior to joining the Astros, Roberts spent 13 total seasons over two stints with the Braves organization, serving as a minor league manager, hitting coach and hitting coordinator. During his first eight years with Atlanta, Roberts also helped the organization's Major League hitters during September and October of their multiple postseason runs, which included one World Series title (1995), three total World Series appearances (1992, 1995-96) and six total NLCS appearances (1992-93, 1995-98).

Roberts has also served various roles in the Cincinnati, Detroit and Tampa Bay organizations, including a two-year stint as Tampa Bay's Major League hitting coach (1999-2000). Roberts owns a career minor league managerial record of 412-420 (.495) with the Detroit (1986-88) and Atlanta (1992-94) organizations.

The former outfielder played 11 Major League seasons with six different teams (Detroit, Houston, Seattle, Texas, Toronto and Kansas City) from 1974-84. Roberts was drafted by the Tigers in the 10th round of the 1972 draft out of the University of Michigan. During his final year at Michigan in 1972, Roberts led the Big Ten with a .367 batting average and was an All-Big Ten First Team selection.

Leon and his wife, Pam, reside in Arlington, Texas. They have a daughter, Sabrina, and their son, J.D., spent over three years in the Atlanta and Cincinnati minor league systems.

JOSH MILLER

COMPLEX COORDINATOR-PITCHING

Josh Miller is entering his 10th overall season with the Astros and his first as the club's complex coordinator (pitching). In his new role, Miller will oversee the Astros pitching programs at their complex in Kissimmee, Fla., which will include the extended Spring Training and rehab pitching programs.

Miller spent the last three seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, and in 2015 helped lead the club to their second Appalachian League Championship title. Prior to beginning his coaching career in 2013, Miller spent two years (2011-12) as a pro scout for the Astros.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

AARON DELGIUDICE

DEVELOPMENT COACH

TENURE: 4TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 1ST WITH HOUSTON

Aaron DelGiudice joins the Astros for his first season with the club as a development coach with Triple A Fresno and Class A Advanced Lancaster. In his role, he will help guide and support player development initiatives across all areas of the game. DelGiudice has been working in baseball since 2008, serving internships with the Tampa Bay Rays, New York Yankees, and most recently in the Baltimore Orioles player development department.

DelGiudice served as a baseball instructor at The Baseball Center in New York, N.Y., in 2014, and spent nearly two years working for STATS LLC as an operations statistician.

A 2013 graduate of the University of Tampa, DelGiudice earned his Bachelor of Science degree in sport management while also pitching for the baseball team during his four seasons at the school.

TENURE: 2ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 1ST WITH HOUSTON

Tommy Kawamura joins the Astros for his first season with the club as a development coach with Double A Corpus Christi and Class A Quad Cities. In this new role, he will help to guide and support player development initiatives across all areas of the game. Prior to joining the Astros, Kawamura served an internship in baseball operations with the New York Mets, where he provided statistical and scouting support to the front office staff.

Before joining the Mets, Kawamura completed a video scouting internship with Baseball Info Solutions. He has also coached at the American Legion level and has experience as a baseball camp instructor.

Kawamura received his bachelor's degree in mathematics and economics from Willamette University in 2014. While at Willamette he was an infielder on the baseball team and was the team captain for his final two seasons.

MORGAN ENSBERG

DEVELOPMENT COACH

Morgan Ensberg returns to the Astros for his fourth season as a coach and his first as a development coach. In his new role, Ensberg will will help to guide and support player development initiatives across all areas of the game.

Ensberg spent the last two seasons as the club's minor league special assignment coach. He joined the professional coaching ranks in 2013 as infield coach at Class A Advanced Lancaster, where he helped lead the club to an 82-58 record and both the first and second half South Division titles in the California League. The former third baseman played eight seasons in the Majors, which included his first seven seasons with the Astros (2000, 2002-07) and stints with the Padres (2007) and Yankees (2008).

Ensberg was a key member of the 2005 Astros club that made it to the World Series, and the 2004 club that advanced to Game 7 of the National League Championship Series. His best season came in 2005, where he was an All-Star and Silver Slugger, and finished fourth in the National League MVP voting after hitting .283 (149x526) with 30 doubles, 36 homers, 101 RBI and a .945 OPS (.388 OBP/.557 SLG). He was also named the Astros 2005 MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA during that historic 2005 season. In 2004, he was honored by the BBWAA as the Astros recipient of the Darryl Kile 'Good Guy' Award.

Following his playing career, Ensberg returned to the University of Southern California in 2010 to finish his degree in finance while also serving as an undergraduate assistant coach for the school's baseball team. He then moved on to be an assistant coach at the University of California, San Diego in 2012. Ensberg has served as a college baseball analyst for ESPN, and from 2011-12 was the co-host on SiriusXM's MLB Roundtrip radio show.

The California native received his B.B.A. in finance from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California, where he played for the school's baseball team from 1995-98. During his three-year playing career at USC, he hit .331 with 40 home runs and 149 RBI and is the only Trojan to have a 20-homer, 20-stolen base season. He was a member of two College World Series teams, including the 1998 National Championship squad. His 40 home runs rank tied for fifth all-time at USC.

BRENDAN VERNER

STRENGTH + CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

TENURE: 12TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 4TH WITH HOUSTON

Brendan Verner returns to the Astros for his fourth season as the organization's strength and conditioning coordinator after joining the club in 2013. Prior to his time with the Astros, Verner served as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at the minor league level for San Diego from 2011-12.

Verner spent two seasons as Cleveland's assistant strength and conditioning coach at the Major League level from 2007-08, where he assisted in coordinating the strength and conditioning evaluations of all minor league and Major League players. He also spent four years working as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh minor league systems.

Verner graduated from Cleveland State University in 2007 with a Master of Arts in exercise science, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in P.E. and exercise science in 2004 from John Carroll University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCS) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

RACHEL BALKOVEC

LATIN AMERICAN STRENGTH + CONDITIONING COORD.

TENURE: 5TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 1ST WITH HOUSTON

Rachel Balkovec joins the Astros for her first season as the club's Latin American strength and conditioning coordinator after spending the last two years with the Cardinals as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. In addition to her coordinator duties, Balkovec will also serve as the strength and conditioning coach for the Rookie Level GCL Astros. She is bilingual and is the first female strength and conditioning coach in the history of professional baseball.

Prior to her time with St. Louis, Balkovec spent the 2013-14 offseason as a strength and conditioning coach with the Chicago White Sox. Balkovec began her career in pro baseball with a stint as a minor league strength and conditioning coach with the Cardinals in 2012. She then went to work in marketing and promotions for Los Tigres del Licey of the Dominican Winter League, before serving as a strength and conditioning coach with the Arizona Fall League. Balkovec also served a stint as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach with Arizona State University.

Balkovec graduated from the University of New Mexico in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science. She received her Master's degree in sports administration from Louisiana State University, where she also served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach. While at New Mexico, Balkovec was a catcher on the softball team.

FRESNO PDC: The Astros and Grizzlies are entering the second year of a two-year Player Development Contract that was signed prior to the 2015 season. Fresno is the ninth Triple A affiliate in Astros history, joining Oklahoma City, Round Rock, New Orleans, Tucson, Charleston, Memphis, Iowa and Denver.

NATIONAL CHAMPS: In addition to winning the first Pacific Coast League Championship title in club history, the Fresno Grizzlies went on to win the Triple A National Championship by defeating the Columbus Clippers of the International League. During the regular season, the Grizzlies set a franchise record with 84 wins, winning their first division title since their inaugural 1998 season.

PCL MVP: IF Matt Duffy was named the Most Valuable Player of the Pacific Coast League after leading the league in runs scored (94), while batting .294 (144x490) with 29 doubles, two triples, 20 homers, 104 RBI and an .850 OPS (.366 OBP/.484 SLG). In addition to leading the PCL in runs, Duffy fell just four RBI shy of tying a Fresno franchise record. Duffy, who has been an All-Star in each of his five minor league seasons, became the fourth minor leaguer in Astros history to win the award, and the first since RHP Donne Wall did so in 1995 with the Tucson Toros.

CLASS OF THE PCL: Following the season, Baseball America named Fresno manager Tony DeFrancesco the 2015 Minor League Manager of the Year.

UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT: After closing out the regular season with five quality starts in his last six outings, RHP Mark Appel made two postseason starts, including a 10-strikeout effort in the PCL Championship clinching game over Round Rock. In his 5.2 innings, Appel allowed three runs on six hits to go along with his career-high tying strikeout total.

WHAT A DEBUT: In what was his first-career start at the Triple A level, RHP Chris Devenski led the Grizzlies to a 7-0 victory over the Columbus Clippers for the Triple A National Championship. Devenski held the Clippers scoreless over his 7.0 innings, striking out nine with one hit en route to Bobby Murcer Triple A Championship MVP honors.

FRESNO GRIZZLIES STAFF

TONY DEFRANCESCO

MANAGER, FRESNO

TENURE: 32ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 6TH WITH HOUSTON

Tony DeFrancesco enters his sixth consecutive season with the Astros as the organization's Triple A manager, his 22nd season as a minor league manager and his 32nd as a player, coach or manager in professional baseball. Under DeFrancesco's leadership, which began in 2011, the Astros Triple A clubs have gone 386-331 (.538) while posting a winning record in each of the last four seasons.

In 2015, DeFrancesco was named the Baseball America Minor League Manager of the Year after leading Triple A Fresno to their first Pacific Coast League Championship in franchise history, as well as their first Triple A National Championship. During the regular season, the Grizzlies won their first division title since 1998 after going 84-59. In his 12 seasons as a manager in the Pacific Coast League, DeFrancesco's clubs have won eight division titles and four PCL championships and two Triple A national championships. Overall, he owns a 1537-1388 (.525) record in the minor leagues, including a 964-760 (.559) mark in the PCL.

While DeFrancesco has been the Astros Triple A manager since 2011, on Aug. 19, 2012, he was named the interim manager of the Astros Major League club. Over the Astros final 41 games of the 2012 season, DeFrancesco steered the club to a 16-25 overall record and a 15-15 finish over the final month of the season.

Prior to joining the Astros in 2011, DeFrancesco spent 17 seasons in the Athletics organization, serving 16 seasons as a manager in the club's minor league system (1994-07, 2009-10) and one season as the A's Major League third base coach (2008). During his run as manager of Triple A Sacramento (2003-07, 09-10), he guided the team to six first-place finishes and three PCL Championships (2003-04, 2007), including a Triple A National Championship over Richmond in the 2007 Bricktown Showdown. He was named the PCL Manager of the Year and Sporting News Minor League Manager of the Year in 2003 after the River Cats posted a 92-52 regular season record while going 6-0 in the postseason en route to the championship title.

DeFrancesco made his managerial debut in 1994 with the Arizona League Athletics and spent the next two seasons as the skipper of Class A Short Season Southern Oregon. He spent the 1997-98 seasons at Class A Advanced Visalia, where he guided the Oaks to consecutive playoff appearances in the California League. DeFrancesco then managed Double A Midland from 1999-2002. Prior to his first minor league managerial post in 1994, he served as a coach with Southern Oregon and as a roving catching instructor for two seasons.

A catcher during his playing career, DeFrancesco played eight seasons in the minor leagues for the Boston (1984-87) and Cincinnati (1988-91) organizations. The 1981 graduate of Suffern High School (NY) played three seasons at Seton Hall University and was drafted by the Red Sox in the ninth round of the 1984 draft.

DYAR MILLER

PITCHING COACH, FRESNO

Dyar Miller enters his fourth consecutive season in the Astros organization and his first as pitching coach at Triple A Fresno. Miller joined the Astros in 2013 as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator, a post he served in each of his first three seasons with the club. The 2016 season will be his 32nd working in player development, and his 49th working in baseball as either a player, coach, instructor or coordinator.

Prior to joining the Astros, the former Major League pitcher spent 18 consecutive years in the Cardinals organization. Miller served as the Major League bullpen coach for the 2012 Cardinals club that reached the National League Championship series, which followed a four-year stint (2008-11) as the Cardinals minor league pitching coordinator, nine years as the organization's Triple A pitching coach (1995-96, 2001-07), and four years as the club's minor league pitching instructor (1997-2000).

Miller joined the coaching ranks in 1985 with Double A Arkansas of the Cardinals organization, before moving up to the Cardinals Triple A club (Louisville) in 1986. He then spent the next eight seasons with three different organizations, serving stints as Major League bullpen coach for the White Sox from 1987-88, a minor league coach for the Tigers from 1989-90, and a pitching coach in the Indians system from 1991-94.

Miller's pitching career lasted 17 seasons (1968-84), which included nine Major League seasons with four different MLB clubs (Baltimore, California, Toronto, New York Mets). In his seven seasons in the Majors, he produced a career 23-17 record with 22 saves and a 3.23 ERA in 251 games as a reliever.

The Batesville, Ind. native is a graduate of New Point High School (IN) and Utah State University, where he played baseball and basketball. He served in the United States Air Force Reserve from 1968-74.

In 2001, Miller was named the recipient of the George Kissell Award for excellence in player development, and in January of 2007 was inducted into the Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame.

Miller currently resides in Indianapolis, Ind., with his wife Bertha Jo. They have a blended family of six children and 13 grandchildren. During the offseason, Dyar is involved in church functions and the American Legion, and mentors young pitchers.

RALPH DICKENSON

HITTING COACH, FRESNO

TENURE: 42ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 4TH WITH HOUSTON

Ralph Dickenson is entering his fourth season with the Astros organization and his first as hitting coach for Triple A Fresno. He joined the Astros in 2013 as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator before serving as assistant hitting coach for the Major League club in 2014, and minor league roving hitting instructor in 2015. Dickenson has been an instructor at the professional or collegiate level for 38 seasons, serving as a manager, hitting instructor, field coordinator and hitting coach during his career.

Prior to joining the Astros, Dickenson spent three seasons as a hitting coach in the Toronto Blue Jays system at Double A New Hampshire (2010) and Class A Advanced Dunedin (2011-12). Overall in his career, he has spent 20 seasons as a minor league hitting coordinator or instructor, with stints in the Brewers (1995-2000), Dodgers (2000-01), Rangers (2002-04), Yankees (2005-06) and Nationals (2007-09) organizations.

Dickenson had success in his first professional stint as a manager for Class A San Bernardino in the Seattle organization, posting a 157-127 record in his two seasons with the club (1988-89). Dickenson also managed the Rookie Level Arizona League Brewers for three seasons (1993-95).

Dickenson was originally drafted by San Francisco in the 30th round of the 1968 draft, but did not sign. He signed with Minnesota after being selected in the supplemental first round of the 1969 draft. Dickenson ended up being a two-way player throughout his six-year minor league career, seeing duty as an outfielder (368 games) and as a pitcher (134 games/20 starts).

Dickenson played college baseball at both Mesa Community College in Colorado, and at Arizona State University, where he was a member of the Sun Devils 1969 NCAA Championship team. Following his playing career, Dickenson held collegiate coaching positions at Western Washington University, Washington State University and the University of New Mexico.

Ralph and his wife, Patricia, reside in Tempe, Ariz. They have one daughter, Elizabeth, and three sons, Rich, David and Scott.

BRYAN BACA

ATHLETIC TRAINER, FRESNO

TENURE: 10TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 10TH WITH HOUSTON

Bryan Baca is entering his 10th season with the Astros organization and his second as athletic trainer at Triple A Fresno. Prior to joining the Grizzlies staff in 2015, Baca spent two seasons as the athletic trainer for the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks (2013-14), which followed a two-year stint with Class A Advanced Lancaster (2011-12) and a three-year stint with Class A Short Season Tri-City (2008-10). Baca joined the Astros organization in 2007 as the athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville.

A native of Santa Fe, N.M., Baca is a graduate of New Mexico State with a bachelor of science degree in athletic training. Prior to joining the Astros, he worked for the Santa Fe Roadrunners of the North American Hockey League.

TREY WIEDMAN

STRENGTH COACH, FRESNO

TENURE: 5TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 5TH WITH HOUSTON

Trey Wiedman is set to begin his fifth season with the Astros and his second as the organization's strength coach at Triple A Fresno. Wiedman has worked his way up the Astros system, starting as the strength and conditioning coach for Class A Lexington in 2012 before moving up to Double A Corpus Christi for two seasons from 2013-14.

Wiedman received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Memphis, where he was also a four-year letter winner on the baseball team. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Wiedman is currently pursuing his master's degree in kinesiology from A.T. Still University, and is on track to finish his degree in March of 2016.

ASTROS PURCHASE HOOKS: In 2013 the Houston Astros purchased the Corpus Christi Hooks baseball club from Ryan-Sanders Baseball LLC. The Hooks are one of four minor league affiliates owned and operated by the Astros, along with the Rookie Level Greeneville Astros, Gulf Coast League Astros and Dominican Summer League Astros.

SPECIAL SEASON: The Hooks won a franchise-record 89 games in 2015, becoming just the second Texas League team in the last 20 years to reach that win total (also the 2011 San Antonio Missions, 94-46). Corpus Christi's .636 winning percentage trailed only Class A Quad Cities (.638) for the best mark in all of minor league baseball.

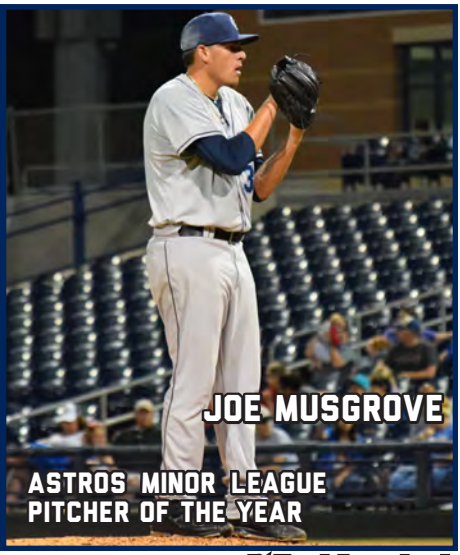

AWARD TOUR: In his first full professional season since getting drafted by Houston in the second round in 2014, IF A.J. Reed was one of the top players in the minors in 2015, receiving a number of accolades after leading all of minor league baseball in home runs (34), RBI (127) and OPS (1.044) while batting .340. Reed was named the ESPN.com Prospect of the Year, Astros Minor League Player of the Year, California League Most Valuable Player and MiLB Offensive Player of the Year.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR: RHP Joe Musgrove was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year after having one of the greatest seasons by a minor leaguer in Houston history, combining to go 12-1 with a 1.88 ERA (21ER/100.2IP), 99 strikeouts and just eight walks between Corpus Christi (8g), Class A Advanced Lancaster (6g) and Class A Quad Cities (5g). The 6-foot-5, right-hander led all of minor league baseball with a 12.38 strikeout-to-walk ratio (min. 100IP), the highest mark produced by a minor league pitcher since at least 2006. He also posted the fourth-best ERA in the minors.

RAKE CITY: The top hitter in the Texas League in 2015 was OF Jon Kemmer, a 21st round selection by Houston in the 2013 draft. In 2015, Kemmer led the Texas League in batting average (.327) and OPS (.988) while also being named a Texas League Postseason All-Star and the Hooks Player of the Year. He also added 28 doubles, four triples, 18 homers and 65 RBI in his 104 games with the Hooks.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS STAFF

RODNEY LINARES

MANAGER, CORPUS CHRISTI

TENURE: 20TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 19TH WITH HOUSTON

Rodney Linares returns to the Astros organization for his 19th season, and his second as manager at Double A Corpus Christi. Last season, Linares was named the Texas League Manager of the Year, as Corpus Christi led all of minor league baseball in wins (89) while becoming the second Texas League team in 20 years to reach 89 wins in a single season. For Linares, it marked his second career Manager of the Year award, as he received California League Manager of the Year honors in 2012 after leading the Class A Advanced Lancaster JetHawks to a championship title.

Prior to joining the Hooks, Linares spent three seasons as manager at Lancaster (2012-14), where he helped guide the club to two California League Championship titles (2012, 2014).

The 2016 season will mark Linares' 10th consecutive as a manager in the Astros organization. His clubs have finished in first place or tied for first in each of the last four seasons, posting a combined 323-237 (.577) record.

Linares entered the coaching ranks in 1999 as a coach and scout for the Astros Dominican Republic operations following a two-year playing career in the Detroit (1997) and Houston (1998) minor league systems. He remained in that role through the 2004 season before becoming the hitting coach at Class A Lexington from 2005-06. Linares then spent three seasons as manager at Rookie Level Greeneville (2007-09) and two seasons as manager at Lexington (2010-11).

Linares has also managed in the Arizona Fall League (2012) and in the Dominican Winter League (2009, 2011). The former infielder was originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent in 1997.

Linares and his wife, Rosanna, have two children, Steven and Ryan, and reside in San Pedro de Macoris, DR. His father, Julio, is the Astros Senior Advisor for Latin American Development and has been with the organization since 1973.

DAVE BORKOWSKI

PITCHING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

Former Major Leaguer Dave Borkowski begins his first season as pitching coach for Corpus Christi, and his seventh as a pitching coach in Houston's system. For the last three years, Borkowski has been the pitching coach at Class A Quad Cities. From 2011-12 he was the pitching coach at Class A Lexington, and was Rookie Level Greeneville's pitching coach in 2010. He also served as pitching coach for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League during the fall of 2013.

Borkowski enjoyed a 15-year professional playing career, making 181 Major League appearances (21 starts) across seven combined seasons with Detroit (1999-2001), Baltimore (2004), and Houston (2006-08). His first professional season was in 1995 after being selected in the 11th round of the June 1995 draft by Detroit.

In 264 career minor league games, Borkowski was 79-70 with a 3.85 ERA and six saves.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS STAFF

DAN RADISON

TENURE: 36TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 4TH WITH HOUSTON

Dan Radison begins his second season as hitting coach at Corpus Christi and his fourth in the Astros organization. Radison joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to General Manager Jeff Luhnow before taking over as the club's first base coach on Aug. 19, of that season. In 2013, Radison spent the entire year as the assistant hitting coach and advanced coordinator on Houston's Major League staff, and in 2014 served as a special assistant in player development where he traveled throughout the Astros minor league affiliates while also spending time with the Major League club.

Radison has more than 30 years of professional experience as a player, Major League coach, minor league manager and coordinator. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent two seasons as first base coach for the Nationals (2010-11) and three seasons as the Cardinals minor league hitting coordinator (2007-09). In 2007, he received the Cardinals George Kissell Award for excellence in player development. Radison also managed 12 seasons in the minor leagues between 1984 and 2006, compiling a 622-552 (.530) overall record with three division titles and one league championship. He has 11 years of experience coaching winter ball in Venezuela, Puerto Rico and Australia.

Radison began his baseball coaching career in 1977 as associate head coach at Broward Community College (FL), where he spent three seasons (1977-79). He then had coaching stints at the University of Georgia (1978-80) and Old Dominion University from 1981-83.

Radison's first minor league managerial position came in 1984 at Rookie Level Kingsport. In 1986, he was named the Class A Appalachian League Manager of the Year after guiding Johnson City to a 44-22 record en route to winning the division title. He also earned a division title the following season at Johnson City (1987). Radison later managed for three seasons (1990-92) at Double A Albany, where he earned a division title in 1991 and the Eastern League Championship in 1992. His most recent managerial stint was in 2006 at Johnson City.

Radison was drafted as a catcher by the Cardinals out of Southern Illinois University in the 10th round of the 1972 Draft. He went on to play 200 games across three seasons in the Cardinals system, reaching Triple A in 1974.

A 1968 graduate of Columbia (IL) High School, Radison earned the Pentzler Award for baseball in 1968 and basketball in 1967 and '68. He has a bachelor's degree in health education from Southern Illinois University and earned his master's degree in counseling from Nova Southeastern University (FL).

GRANT HUFFORD

ATHLETIC TRAINER, CORPUS CHRISTI

Grant Hufford enters his ninth season as an athletic trainer in the Astros system and his second with Double A Corpus Christi after spending the 2013-14 seasons with Class A Advanced Lancaster. In 2013, Hufford was named the California League Trainer of the Year.

Hufford joined the Astros organization in 2008 as the athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville where he spent three seasons (2008-10). Following his stint in Greeneville, he was promoted to Class A Lexington where he served two seasons as the club's athletic trainer (2011-12).

Prior to joining the Astros, Hufford worked for the Lawrence Orthopedic Surgery Clinic in Lawrence, Kan. While in Lawrence, he served as the Athletic Trainer at Baldwin High School.

Hufford received his bachelor's degree from Benedictine College. Grant and his wife, Jennifer, and daughter, Genevieve, reside in Merriam, Kan.

TAYLOR RHOADES

STRENGTH COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

TENURE: 5TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 3RD WITH HOUSTON

Taylor Rhoades returns to the Astros organization for his third season as a strength and conditioning coach, and his first with the Hooks. Rhoades joined the Astros in 2014 as the strength and conditioning coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats, before moving up to Class A Advanced Lancaster in 2015.

Rhoades, who played on the baseball team at Bowling Green State University, spent six months working as a graduate assistant in the university's strength and conditioning department, where he worked mainly with the Olympic sports athletes. Rhoades also spent two summers working with the Class A Kane County Cougars of the Midwest League.

LANCASTER PDC: The Astros and JetHawks Player Development Contract runs through the 2016 season. For the last three years, Lancaster has been one of the winningest organizations in the minor leagues, posting a 308-247 (.555) combined record since 2012.

2015 SEASON: Lancaster made the postseason for the fourth consecutive year, leading all of minor league baseball in runs (888), homers (174), batting average (.291) and OPS (.850).

RISING STAR: In 2015, RHP Francis Martes showed some of the most promising development than almost any other pitching prospect in the minor leagues. At just 19 years old, the burly right-hander climbed his way through three levels of the Astros system, starting at Class A Quad Cities, making his way through Lancaster and ending up at Double A Corpus Christi. Martes posted an 8-3 record with a 2.04 ERA (23ER/101.2IP), 98 strikeouts and a .220 opponent batting average between the three levels, including a miniscule 2.31 ERA (9ER/35) in his six games with Lancaster.

GIANT ARM: RHP David Paulino was another one of the Astros most exciting pitching prospects made who his way through Lancaster in 2015. At 6-foot-7, 214 pounds, Paulino is one of the most imposing figures in the Astros organization, and had the production to match at three levels last year. In 13 games (12 starts) between Lancaster, Quad Cities and Class A Short Season Tri-City, Paulino went 5-3 with a 2.81 ERA (21ER/67.1IP) and 72 strikeouts while walking only 19 batters.

BIG BOPPERS: IF Chase McDonald hit 30 home runs in 2015, which tied him for second in the California League in the category. IF J.D. Davis added 26 homers of his own, which put him at sixth place in the CAL League. Davis also posted a .370 on-base percentage, which was the second-best mark among the league's top 10 home run hitters, behind only teammate IF A.J. Reed (.449 OBP).

CLIMBING THE LADDER: OF Derek Fisher had a strong full-season debut in the minor leagues in 2015, batting .275 (136x495) with 21 doubles, 22 homers, 87 RBI and an .847 OPS (.364 OBP/.483 SLG) between Lancaster and Quad Cities. Houston's first-round pick in the 2014 draft showed enough promise that the Astros offered him an invitiation to his first-career Major League Spring Training in 2016.

LANCASTER JETHAWKS STAFF

RAMON VAZQUEZ

MANAGER, LANCASTER

TENURE: 22ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 4TH WITH HOUSTON

Ramon Vazquez returns to the JetHawks for his third season and his first as the club's manager. Vazquez spent the last two seasons with the JetHawks as the club's developmental specialist focusing on infielders. The former Major League infielder joined the Astros in 2014 in what was his first career professional coaching position.

This offseason, Vazquez managed the Santurce Cangrejeros of the Puerto Rican Winter League in what was his first experience as a manager.

Vazquez played professionally for a total of 18 years, including nine seasons in the Major Leagues with the Mariners (2001), Padres (2002-04), Red Sox (2005), Indians (2005-06), Rangers (2007-08) and Pirates (2009). In 2009, Vazquez played for Puerto Rico in the World Baseball Classic. Vazquez played at Triple A Round Rock with Houston in 2010.

Vazquez was originally selected in the 27th round of the June 1995 draft by the Mariners after attending Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, Iowa. He is currently the president of the "Juntos Dando la Mano" foundation in Puerto Rico.

MIKE BURNS

PITCHING COACH, LANCASTER

Former Astros reliever Mike Burns returns to the organization for his third season working in player development, and his first as pitching coach at Lancaster. Burns rejoined the Astros in 2014 as the club's rehab coach, a post he served for two seasons.

Burns was a member of the 2005 National League Champion Astros club, and made 60 total Major League appearances across three seasons with Houston (2005), Cincinnati (2006), Boston (2006) and Milwaukee (2009). The right-hander was drafted by the Astros in the 30th round of the 2000 MLB draft and spent the first five seasons of his career in Houston's minor league system.

Burns earned his bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from California State University, Los Angeles. He and his wife Sonja have three boys, John (7), Jacob (5) and Jagger (3).

DARRYL ROBINSON

HITTING COACH, LANCASTER

Darryl Robinson enters his eighth consecutive season as the JetHawks hitting coach, a position he has held since 2009. In 2013, Robinson was named the California League Coach of the Year after his JetHawks led the minors in runs (976), walks (669), on-base percentage (.384) and OPS (.853).

The former infielder played in the minor leagues for seven seasons in the Royals system (1986-1992), and also played in the independent leagues in parts of five seasons (1993, 1995-98). He was originally drafted by Kansas City in the second round of the June 1986 draft.

Robinson is a graduate of Whitney-Young High School in Illinois and currently resides in Woodbury, Minn.

MICHAEL RENDON

ATHLETIC TRAINER, LANCASTER

Michael Rendon begins his second season as the athletic trainer at Lancaster and his sixth with the Astros organization. Prior to joining Lancaster, Rendon was the athletic trainer at Class A Quad Cities (2014) following two seasons as athletic trainer with Class A Short Season Tri-City (2012-13). In 2011, Rendon landed his first position with the Astros as athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville.

Prior to joining the Astros, Rendon worked for the Southern Illinois University Clinical Experiences, assisting with the rehabilitation and treatment of injured student athletes. Rendon also completed two internships with the athletic training staff for the Springfield Cardinals, the Double A affiliate for St. Louis.

A 2010 graduate of the Southern Illinois University, Rendon earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training. He currently resides in Du Quoin, Ill.

DWAYNE PETERSON

STRENGTH COACH, LANCASTER

TENURE: 3RD YEAR IN BASEBALL / 3RD WITH HOUSTON

Dwayne Peterson returns to the Astros for his third season as a strength and conditioning coach, and his first with the JetHawks. Last year, Peterson served as the strength and conditioning coach for Class A Quad Cities following one year at Rookie Level Greeneville.

Prior to joining the Astros, Peterson completed strength and conditioning internships with Northern Kentucky University and with the College of Mt. St. Joseph, where he was responsible for the school's baseball strength and conditioning program. During the offseason, he serves as the head baseball strength coach at Mt. St. Joseph.

Peterson is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), has an SFMA level 1 certification, and is a USA Weightlifting (USAW) Level 1 Sports Performance Coach. He is a 2013 graduate of Northern Kentucky University, where he received his bachelor of science degree in exercise science.

QUAD CITIES PDC: The Astros signed a two-year extension on their Player Development Contract with Quad Citites in 2014. The agreement between the two clubs runs through the 2016 season.

2015 SEASON: Quad Cities led all of minor league baseball in winning percentage (88-50, .638) for the first time in club history in 2015. The River Bandits 88-50 record was also their second-best all-time, behind only the 1992 River Bandits and their 91-46 record.

TOP PICK DEBUTS: After getting selected by Houston with the second overall pick in the 2015 draft, IF Alex Bregman bypassed the rookie leagues entirely by heading to Quad Cities for his professional debut. After just 29 games with the River Bandits, Bregman was promoted to Class A Advanced Lancaster where he closed out the season. In his 66 combined games between the two clubs, he posted a .294 (80x272) batting average with 13 doubles, four triples, four homers, 34 RBI, 13 steals and a .366 on-base percentage.

MR. 400: C Jamie Ritchie has been an on-base machine since getting selected by the Astros in the 13th round of the 2014 draft. This past season at Quad Cities, he led the Midwest League with a .428 on-base percentage (min. 200) before moving up to Lancaster, where he posted a .422 OBP. In 2014, the year of his professional debut, Ritchie led the New York-Penn League with a .455 OBP while with Tri-City.

TOEING THE RUBBER: The River Bandits had a number of strong pitching performances in 2015. RHP Joshua James led the club in innings pitched (116.1) while posting a 2.63 ERA in 24 games (18 starts). RHP Akeem Bostick gave up just three walks in 42.0 innings, striking out 33 with a 1.50 ERA. RHP Dean Deetz posted a miniscule 0.76 ERA (3ER/35.1IP) while striking out 29 batters.

QUAD CITIES RIVER BANDITS STAFF

MANAGER, QUAD CITIES

TENURE: 21ST YEAR IN BASEBALL / 18TH WITH HOUSTON

Omar Lopez begins his 18th season in the Astros organization, and will manage Houston's Quad Cities affiliate in 2016 for his third season overall. Last year, Lopez managed Class A Advanced Lancaster, but he spent the 2012-13 seasons as manager at Quad Cities. In 2013, Lopez led the River Bandits to the Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. Lopez has served as a manager in the Astros system for Rookie Level Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League Astros (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League Astros (2008). He has been with the Astros organization since 1999.

Lopez was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoategui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. The 38-year-old Lopez was the youngest manager in the league and became just the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, Lopez earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, Lopez served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and as a full-time scout for the Astros from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, Lopez was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a 16-year-old free agent at the time.

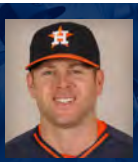

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, Lopez played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

Omar and his wife Helen reside in Kissimmee, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

CHRIS HOLT

PITCHING COACH, QUAD CITIES

TENURE: 6TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 3RD WITH HOUSTON

Chris Holt returns to the Astros organization for his third season, and his first as pitching coach at Quad Cities. Holt spent the last two seasons as pitching coach at Class A Short Season Tri-City, following two years as an associate scout with the Baltimore Orioles (2012-13). The former minor league pitcher served as pitching coordinator at the American Baseball Institute from 2011-13 and was a pitching instructor at The Winning Inning from 2013-14. Holt was the Dean and P.E. teacher for the Academy of Business and Leadership Education in St. Augustine, Fla. from 2008-11.

Holt also served as an assistant coach for his alma mater, Flagler College, from 2004-07. He was drafted by the Pirates in 2002 and pitched one season at the Class A Short Season level in the Pittsburgh system (2002).

TENURE: 27TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 11TH WITH HOUSTON

Joel Chimelis begins his 11th season in the Houston Astros organization and his fourth as hitting coach for Quad Cities. Chimelis served as the hitting coach for Double A Corpus Christi in 2012 after spending the 2011 season with Class A Lexington. Prior to that, he spent five years (2006-10) as the hitting coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats. Before joining the Astros, Chimelis spent two years (2004-05) on the coaching staff of the Class A Savannah Sand Gnats in the Montreal Expos/Washington Nationals organization.

A former infielder, Chimelis was selected by Oakland in the 11th round of the 1988 draft. He was traded to the San Francisco Giants in 1991 and spent the 1996 season in the New York Mets organization. Chimelis reached the Triple A level in the Giants system, playing for Phoenix from 1992-95, and was called up to the Majors during the 1995 season. During his 14-year minor league career, he also enjoyed stints in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, Korea and Canada.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Chimelis played baseball at Howard Junior College in Big Spring, Texas, and played for the University of Texas in 1988. He was named to the 1988 NCAA Central Region team with the Longhorns.

Joel and his wife reside in Florida. He is the father of three girls.

COREY O'BRIEN

ATHLETIC TRAINER, QUAD CITIES

Corey O'Brien begins his fifth season with the Astros organization and his second consecutive as the athletic trainer at Quad Cities. O'Brien spent the 2014 season as the athletic trainer at Class A Short Season Tri-City following a two-year stint as the trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville (2012-13). Prior to joining the Astros, he served as the athletic trainer for the Joliet Slammers, an Independent Professional Baseball team in the Frontier League. While with the Slammers, O'Brien was a part of a championship team that won the Frontier League Cup in the team's inaugural season.

O'Brien attended the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire, where he earned his bachelor of science degree in athletic training. In the summer of 2008, he worked as an intern athletic trainer for the Rochester Honkers of the Northwoods League. In the spring of 2009, O'Brien had the opportunity to attend Spring Training with the Minnesota Twins as an intern athletic trainer. After completing his undergraduate study in 2009, he went on to attend Delta State University where he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer working primarily with the baseball team, while also earning his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation.

STRENGTH COACH, QUAD CITIES

TENURE: 2ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 2ND WITH HOUSTON

Joe Bossard returns to the Astros for his second season as a strength and conditioning coach, and his first with the River Bandits. Last year, Bossard served as the strength and conditioning coach for Rookie Level Greeneville.

Prior to joining the Astros, Bossard served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Archbishop Hoban High School in Akron, Ohio, as part of his field work towards completing his master's degree. Bossard has also served stints as a strength and conditioning coach at Premier Sports Conditioning, and a strength and conditioning intern at John Carroll University.

Bossard is a 2012 graduate of John Carroll University, where he received his bachelor of science degree in exercise science and pitched on the baseball team during his four years at the school. In 2015, he completed his Master of Science degree in exercise physiology from the University of Akron. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS).

TRI-CITY PDC: The Astros and ValleyCats extended their Player Development Contract through the 2016 season. The ValleyCats have been the Astros Class A Short Season affiliate since 2002, and since 2012 Tri-City has posted more wins than any Class A Short Season club by going 185-118 (.611).

2015 SEASON: The ValleyCats won their fourth consecutive Stedler Division Title in 2015, going 42-33.

TAKING THE CROWN: IF Bobby Wernes won the 2015 New York-Penn League batting title by leading the league with a .346 (65x188) batting average. Wernes also posted a league-leading .434 on-base percentage in addition to leading all league third basemen in fielding percentage (.976). Wernes was selected by the Astros in the 30th round of the 2015 draft out of the University of Arkanas.

TOP STAR: The Astros 31st round selection in the 2015 draft, IF Dexture McCall, was named a New York-Penn League Midseason All-Star after batting .295 (59x200) with nine doubles, four homers, 37 RBI and a .376 on-base percentage in 59 games. During the All-Star Game, he hit a two-run double that carried the North All-Stars to a 4-2 victory and was named the MVP of the game.

COMMAND ARTIST: RHP Elieser Hernandez pitched in five games with Tri-City, posting a 1.31 ERA (3ER/20.2IP), walking just two batters and striking out 30. Following his strong showing with the ValleyCats, Hernandez was promoted to Quad Cities in July.

SUMMER TEAR: Although it was just a 17-game stint with Tri-City, 2015 draftee (19th round) OF Drew Ferguson tore through New York-Penn League pitching by posting a .328 (19x58) batting average with six doubles, three homers and a 1.004 OPS (.418 OBP/.586 SLG). After just a month with the ValleyCats, he was promptly promoted to Class A Quad Cities on July 14.

LAMARR ROGERS

MANAGER, TRI-CITY

TENURE: 23RD YEAR IN BASEBALL / 2ND WITH HOUSTON

Lamarr Rogers returns to the Astros organization for his second season, and his first as manager at Tri-City. Rogers joined the Astros in 2015 as manager at Rookie Level Greeneville and led the club to the Appalachian League Championship title.

Prior to joining the Astros, Rogers spent 16 years with the St. Paul Saints Professional Baseball Club of the Independent Northern League. From 2004-14, Rogers served as the Saints hitting coach and third base coach, helping to lead the club to a 2004 Northern League Championship, four appearances in the league's championship series and seven total playoff appearances. In 2009, Rogers assumed the role of director of the Saints and the Saints Sports Academy in addition to his coaching duties. As director, Rogers oversaw all day-to-day business operations of the academy. He joined the Saints in 1999 as the club's assistant coach and first base coach, a position he held through 2003.

Rogers was selected by Colorado in the 49th round of the 1992 draft and played four seasons in the Rockies system (1992-95) before getting selected by the Detroit Tigers in the Triple A Phase 1996 Rule 5 Draft. Rogers went to Spring Training with the White Sox in 1997 before playing two seasons with the St. Paul Saints (1997-98). In his six seasons in the minors and the Independent Leagues, Rogers hit .288 (570x1981) with 128 steals and a .399 on-base percentage in 560 games.

Rogers graduated from Long Beach State University in 1993, where he was a business major with a minor in televison/broadcasting communications. Rogers was an All Big West and All Regional Team selection in 1991 and 1992, a Cape Cod Summer League All-Star in 1990 and 1991, and a College World Series All-Star in 1991.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Rogers currently resides in Phoenix, Ariz., with his wife Heather and their four children: Anya (16), Lamarr II (12), Cole (10) and Ava (6).

2015 SEASON: The Greeneville Astros had a magical season in 2015, capturing their second Appalachian League Championship title in club history. Led by first-year manager Lamarr Rogers, the Astros went 34-33 in the regular season and finished in second place. The club then tore through the playoffs, ultimately defeating Princeton, 2-1, in the best-of-three game series in the Appalachian League Championship Series.

PLAYOFF HERO: OF Kyle Tucker, the fifth overall selection in the 2015 draft and the brother of Houston Astros outfielder Preston Tucker, was a huge factor in the Astros postseason run. The left-handed hitter drove in six total runs in the postseason, batting .375 (9x24) with three home runs, including a crucial three-run homer in the final game of the Appalachian League Championship Series.

DAZZLING: The Astros got one of the top talents in the entire 2015 draft class when they selected OF Daz Cameron with their competitive balance Round A selection. Cameron, the son of former Major League great Mike Cameron, began his professional career in the GCL before moving up to Greeneville in August. Over his 30 games in Greeneville, he hit .272 (28x103) with two doubles, three triples, 11 steals and a .372 on-base percentage.

SPEEDSTER: Rated by Baseball America as the 'Fastest Baserunner' in the entire Astros minor league system, OF Myles Straw put his talents on display with 22 steals in 58 games with Greeneville last season. A 12th round selection by the Astros in the 2015 draft, Straw batted .268 (56x209) with a .355 on-base percentage during his time with Greeneville.

ROTATION LEADER: RHP Albert Abreu was the Astros best starting pitcher in 2015, ranking tied for second on the club in starts (7) while posting a 2.51 ERA (13ER/46.2IP). The 20-year-old struck out 51 in his 46.2 innings, allowing a .206 opponent batting average.

MANAGER, GREENEVILLE

Josh Bonifay is set to manage the Greeneville Astros for the 2016 season following a season as manager at Class A Quad Cities where he led the club to the best winning percentage in minor league baseball (88-50, .638) and was named the Midwest League Manager of the Year. Bonifay's first managerial stint was in Greeneville, a post he held from 2013-14.

Bonifay, who joined the Astros in 2011 as Greeneville's hitting coach, was named the Appalachian League Manager of the Year in 2013 after leading the club to a 38-30 record (second-best record in franchise history) and a berth in the Appalachian League Championship Series. Bonifay became the second Greeneville manager ever to win the Applachian League Manager of the Year Award, joining Tim Bogar, who received the honor during the club's inaugural season in 2004.

An eight-year minor league veteran, Bonifay began his coaching career as a player/coach in the Pirates organization (2007-09) before joining the Astros in 2011. He served as hitting coach for Greeneville in 2011, and spent the 2012 season as hitting coach for Class A Lexington. While with the Legends, Bonifay was named to the South Atlantic League Postseason All-Star Team as a coach.

Bonifay played in 812 minor league games in his career, which included a stint with Double A Corpus Christi in 2006. He was originally selected by the Pirates out of UNC-Wilmington in the 24th round of the June 1999 draft. He posted a .284 batting average with 133 homers and 516 RBI in his career.

A native of Asheville, N.C., Bonifay is the son of former Pittsburgh Pirates general manager and current Reds special assistant to the general manager Cam Bonifay. Josh and his wife, Tiffany, reside in Cornelius, N.C., and had their first child (Cora) in July of 2014.

BILL MURPHY

PITCHING COACH, GREENEVILLE

TENURE: 1ST YEAR IN BASEBALL / 1ST WITH HOUSTON

Bill Murphy is set to join the Astros for his first season as pitching coach at Greeneville. Last year, Murphy was the pitching coach at Brown University following a stint as co-manager and pitching coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League Battle Creek Bombers.

In 2013, Murphy was a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express. From 2010-13, Murphy coached at Roselle Catholic High School, which included stints as the varsity pitching coach. He has also coached at the American Legion level (2011-12), and in 2012 was an assistant coach for the Middlesex Rays of the Atlantic Baseball Confederation Collegiate League.

Murphy graduated from Rutgers University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in history. While at Rutgers, he was a pitcher on the baseball team for three years. Murphy received his MBA in management from Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he played first base during his final year of eligibility.

CESAR CEDENO

HITTING COACH, GREENEVILLE

Former Major Leaguer and Astros legend César Cedeño returns for his fifth season as Greeneville's hitting coach. In 2012, Cedeño joined the Astros in a full-time capacity for the first time since 2001. The 2016 season will be his 29th overall with the organization.

The former outfielder played 12 seasons (1970-81) with the Astros, collecting five Gold Glove Awards while appearing in four All-Star games. During his 17-year Major League career, Cedeño played with the Astros, Reds (1982-85), Cardinals (1985) and Dodgers (1986), and hit .285 (2087x7310) with 436 doubles, 60 triples, 199 homers, and 550 stolen bases in 2006 career games. In 1970, Cedeño finished fourth in the National League Rookie of the Year voting after hitting .310 with 21 doubles and 17 steals in his debut with Houston. Cedeño received MVP votes in five seasons (1972-74, 1976, 1980) and stole 50 bases or more in six consecutive seasons (1972-77). Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic, Cedeno set club records for total bases, slugging percentage and steals in a season during his tenure with the Astros.

Following his playing career, Cedeño served as a coach or instructor for the Houston organization for 10 seasons (1990-94, 1997-2001). Prior to being named Greeneville's hitting coach in 2012, his last full-time coaching stint was in 2009 with the Washington Nationals.

ATHLETIC TRAINER, GREENEVILLE

TENURE: 2ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 2ND WITH HOUSTON

Elliot Diehl returns to the Astros organization for his second season as athletic trainer at Greeneville. Prior to joining the Astros, Diehl served as the head athletic trainer at Cupertino High School in California. During the 2014 season, Diehl served as a minor league athletic training and rehab intern with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Diehl received his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training from San Diego State University in 2013, where he served as an athletic training student intern for the baseball team during the fall of 2013. From 2011-13, Diehl was a part of the SDSU Athletic Training Educational Program, where he worked with the baseball, women's soccer, men's basketball and football teams.

Prior to attending SDSU, Diehl received his associate's degree in natural science and mathematics from Mission College in 2010.

Diehl is a certified athletic trainer through the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and BOC, and is a corrective exercise specialist through the NASM. He is also a member of the NATA.

JULIO DIAZ

STRENGTH COACH, GREENEVILLE

Julio Diaz returns to the Astros for his fourth season as a strength and conditioning coach and his first with Greeneville. Diaz spent the last two seasons as the strength coach for the Rookie Level GCL Astros, and prior to that served as the strength and conditioning coach for the Class A Midwest League Champion Quad Cities River Bandits in 2013. He has served as an athletic trainer with Baseball COLICEBA (PR), the Handball Federation of Puerto Rico and the men's baseball and volleyball teams at the University of Puerto Rico.

Diaz received his bachelor of science degree in athletic therapy from the University of Puerto Rico. He is a certified strength and conditioning coach through the NSCA. Diaz is bilingual and is a member of the Puerto Rico Olympic Committee.

2015 SEASON: The Gulf Coast League Astros ended the season with a 19-41 record and a fourth place finish in the GCL East standings.

START IT UP: Two of the Astros top selections from the 2015 MLB Draft began their professional careers with the GCL Astros. OF Kyle Tucker, the fifth pick in the 2015 draft, played 33 games in the GCL before moving up to Greeneville. OF Daz Cameron was selected by Houston with the 37th overall pick in the draft, and he played in 21 games with the GCL Astros before also moving up to Greeneville.

TOP HURLER: 21-year-old RHP Moreno Polanco had an excellent 2015 campaign in the GCL, posting a 0.60 ERA after allowing just two earned runs in his 30.0 innings. Polanco also gave up just 19 hits in his 30.0 innings for a .181 opponent batting average. After his eight games in the GCL, he received a promotion to Greeneville.

STATESIDE DEBUTS: RHP Franklin Perez and IF Miguelangel Sierra were two of the Astros biggest international signings in 2014, and both made their U.S. debuts in the GCL in 2015. Perez pitched in five games, striking out 17 in 15.0 innings, while Sierra, a shortstop, played 24 games with the GCL Astros.

LUIS MATEO

HITTING COACH, GCL ASTROS

Luis Mateo enters his eighth season as a hitting coach with Astros, and his first with the GCL Astros. Mateo spent the 2015 season as a coach in Greeneville, helping to lead the club to the Appalachian League Championship title. Prior to his stint in Greeneville, Mateo spent six seasons as the hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League Astros.

Mateo played professionally as a shortstop with Oakland's organization from 1987-88, and started his professional coaching career in 1998 as an infield instructor in Arizona's organization. Prior to joining the Astros, Mateo spent two years as a manager within the Athletics organization.

WLADIMIR SUTIL

COACH, GCL ASTROS

Wladimir Sutil begins his third season as a coach with the Astros and his second with the GCL Astros. In 2016, Sutil will also serve as the Latin infield instructor with the GCL Astros. In 2014, Sutil entered the professional coaching ranks as a coach with Rookie Level Greeneville.

Sutil played professionally for 10 seasons from 2004-13, which included the first eight years of his career in the Astros system. While with the Astros, Sutil played for Greeneville (2004), Tri-City (2005), Lexington (2005-06), Salem (2006-08), Corpus Christi (2008-11), Round Rock (2010) and Oklahoma City (2011). He was named an All-Star six times in his career, receiving New York-Penn League Midseason All-Star honors in 2005, Texas League Midseason All-Star honors in 2009, 2010 and 2011, Texas League Postseason All-Star recognition in 2009, and Independent Atlantic League All-Star honors in 2012. At the end of the 2009 season, Sutil was added to the Astros 40-man roster.

In 974 career minor league games, the infielder hit .266 with 139 doubles and 205 steals while logging over 650 games at shortstop and 200 games at second base.

BEN MYERS

ATHLETIC TRAINER, GCL ASTROS

TENURE: 2ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 2ND WITH HOUSTON

Ben Myers returns to the GCL Astros for his second season as athletic trainer. Myers joined the Astros in 2015 immediately after receiving his Master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from the University of South Carolina.

As part of South Carolina's graduate assistant program where students are placed in two positions for one year a piece, Myers spent one year working with the school's softball and volleyball teams as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, and one year at Newberry High School as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

While studying his undergraduate degree at Eastern Kentucky University, Myers received athletic training experience with the school's softball and baseball teams. He also served an internship with the Astros at their complex in Kissimmee, Fla., during the summer of 2012, where he worked with the club's medical staff (athletic trainers, strength and conditioning coordinators and coaches, rehab coordinator).

Myers attended the University of Kentucky from 2008-09 before transferring to Eastern Kentucky University, where he received his bachelor of science degree in athletic training in 2013. Myers is a licensed athletic trainer (LAT) and a certified athletic trainer (ATC), and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA).

HISTORY MADE IN 2015: Last season, the DSL Astros Blue became the first DSL Astros club to capture a division title and a postseason appearance since at least 2005 (the year stats started being recorded in the DSL). The DSL Astros Blue went 43-29 in the regular season before falling to the DSL Rangers1, 1-2, in the best-of-three game playoff series.

ALL-STARS: The Astros had three players make the DSL All-Star squad in 2015: OF Andy Pineda, RHP Juan Robles and IF Miguelangel Sierra. In 69 games with the DSL Astros Blue, Pineda hit .293 (73x249) with 10 doubles, 29 RBI, 30 stolen bases and a .417 on-base percentage. His 30 steals ranked tied for third in the DSL. Robles made nine starts in the DSL, posting a 1.49 ERA (6ER/36.1IP) and 39 strikeouts before moving up to the GCL Astros (1.80 ERA in 6 games) and finally the Class A Quad Cities River Bandits (2 games). Sierra hit .302 (51x169) with 22 extra-base hits (17 doubles, 2 triples, 3 homers) and a .406 on-base percentage in 45 games in the DSL. He then also moved up to the GCL Astros for his final 24 games of the year.

HR LEADER: IF Reiny Beltre led all DSL Astros players with six home runs. On the year, he hit .282 (46x163) with 28 RBI and a .376 on-base percentage in 42 games.

STRONG DEBUT: One of the Astros top international signings in 2014, RHP Franklin Perez, had a solid first season in the pros. In 35.0 innings in the DSL, he struck out 44 batters and walked just 11, before then moving up the GCL.

OFFENSIVE THREAT: IF Cristopher Luciano finished third in the DSL in walks (54) and tied for fourth in RBI (51) while hitting .266 (68x256) with 19 doubles, four homers and a .409 on-base percentage.

ON THE MOUND: The DSL Astros received a number of strong pitching performances in 2015, including fantastic seasons from RHP Jose Ramos (1.93 ERA, 56 SO, 65.1 IP, .183 AVG), RHP Yoanys Quiala (1.54 ERA, 34 SO, 9 BB, 35.0 IP) and RHP Diogenes Almengo (0.51 ERA, 17 SO, 17.2 IP, .145 AVG).

CARLOS ALFONSO

Carlos Alfonso enters his third consecutive season working with the Astros Dominican operation, and his 21st with the organization overall. Alfonso returned to the Astros in 2014 following an eight-year stint with the Rays organization, serving as a special assistant for one season (2013) and the club's director of international operations for seven years (2006-12). Alfonso, who is now the manager of international development and a special assignment scout for the Astros, is entering his 49th season working in professional baseball as either a player, coach, manager or front office member.

Alfonso began his coaching career with the Astros organization in 1977, and served as either a coach or manager in Houston's system until 1986. Among his managerial stops with the Astros were Class A Daytona Beach (1979-81), Double A Columbus (1985) and Triple A Tucson (1986).

Following his time with Houston, Alfonso spent 19 seasons with the San Francisco organization, including 11 seasons on the Giants Major League coaching staff (1992, 1996-2005). From 1986-92, Alfonso served as the Giants Director of Minor League Operations and Player Development, and in 1995 was the club's Coodinator of Latin American Operations. From 1993-94, Alfonso served as the Giants Triple A manager in Phoenix. He has spent six total seasons managing in winter ball.

Originally drafted by the Astros in the 10th round of the 1968 draft as a catcher/infielder, Alfonso converted to a full-time pitcher in 1971, ultimately playing nine seasons in the minors with Houston (1968-75) and Cincinnati (1976), and six seasons of winter ball in Latin America. On the mound, Alfonso went 39-35 with a 3.71 ERA in 234 career minor league appearances.

Alfonso attended the University of South Florida and Florida International University. He holds a second degree black belt in taekwondo.

JULIO LINARES

SENIOR ADVISOR, LATIN AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT

TENURE: 59TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 44TH WITH HOUSTON

A member of the Astros organization since 1973, Julio Linares has been an advisor to the Astros Latin American operations since 2013. Prior to his current role, Linares spent nine seasons as a special assistant to the general manager for Dominican scouting and development, which followed six seasons as director of the Astros Dominican Republic operations.

Linares served as manager of the Gulf Coast Astros from 1997-98. Overall, he managed Houston's Rookie League club for 16 years (Sarasota 1977-80, 1984-87; Gulf Coast 1988-93, 97-98) and also spent three years at the Major League level as the Astros bench coach from 1994-96.

Linares played 15 seasons in the minor leagues as an infielder and outfielder and finished ninth in the Pacific Coast League with a .308 average in 1969. He retired after the 1972 season and began his coaching career with the Astros in 1973 at Covington in the Appalachian League.

Linares and his wife, Damaris, reside in San Pedro de Macoris in the Dominican Republic. He has five sons, Amaury, Rodney, Erick, Brian, and Michael. His son Rodney is currently the manager of Houston's Double A Corpus Christi club.

CHARLIE ROMERO

FIELD COORDINATOR, DSL ASTROS

TENURE: 32ND YEAR IN BASEBALL / 3RD WITH HOUSTON

Charlie Romero returns to the Astros for his third season, and his first as the Latin American field coordinator. Romero has spent the last two seasons as a manager for the DSL Astros, and in 2015 led the DSL Astros Blue squad to a division title and the first postseason appearance by an Astros DSL affiliate since at least 2005.

A veteran of over 30 years in professional baseball, Romero has managed 18 seasons and over 1,000 games in the DSL in his career, with his clubs posting a 726-512 (.586) overall record. Romero joined the Astros in 2014 from the Angels, where he ran the organization's Dominican Baseball Academy and spent 26 total seasons as either a player, coach or manager with the club.

In 2010, Romero won the Angels "Preston Gomez Minor League Manager of the Year Award", and in 2005 was named the DSL Manager of the Year. Romero led the 2011 DSL Angels to their first ever DSL Championship title, and has steered six clubs to division titles (2011-12, 2007-08, 2005, 2015). In addition to serving as a manager, Romero also served as a hitting coach at various levels in the Angels minor league system, including Rookie Level Mesa (1991-93), Class A Cedar Rapids (1994, 1996), Rookie Level Butte (1997) and Rookie Level Boise (1998).

Romero played professionally as a switch-hitting outfielder for six seasons after getting signed by the Blue Jays in 1985. Romero ended up playing three seasons in the Toronto system (1985-87) and three seasons in the California Angels minor league system (1988-90). In 1985, Romero competed as a sprinter on the Olympic track qualifying team for the Dominican Republic. He resides in La Romana, Dominican Republic and has two children (Charlie and Charleen).

RUSS STEINHORN

MANAGER, DSL ASTROS BLUE

Russ Steinhorn returns to the Astros for his fourth season, and his first as manager of the DSL Astros Blue club after spending the last three seasons as hitting coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats.

Steinhorn joined the professional coaching ranks in 2013 after spending the 2012 season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Delaware State University baseball team. While with Delaware State in 2012, Steinhorn played a key role in directing the team's offensive and defensive strategies, and helped see the club to a 40-17-1 record. The Hornets led all of Division I baseball in 2012 with 152 hit by pitches (Louisville was the next closest team with 115) and posted the second highest on-base percentage (.423) in the NCAA.

Before joining Delaware State, Steinhorn spent the 2011 season at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he was in charge of the outfielders along with assisting the pitchers and hitters. He was also a camp coordinator, and assisted with recruiting, academic advisement, travel and scheduling. Prior to his stint at UNCG, Steinhorn coached for two seasons (2009-10) at Delaware State.

Steinhorn has served coaching positions with the Allegany County Nitros in the New York Collegiate Baseball League and at his alma mater, Edgewater High School in Orlando, Fla.

A 2008 graduate of Southeastern University, Steinhorn earned his bachelor's degree in middle grades mathematics education with a minor in religious studies. He also owns a master's degree in sports administration from Delaware State.

Christian Bermudez returns to the Houston organization for his fourth season, and his third as an athletic trainer for the DSL Astros. Bermudez joined the Astros in 2013 as the athletic trainer with the Gulf Coast League Astros after serving athletic training internships with the New York Yankees and Oakland Athletics organizations in 2012. Bermudez assisted the Yankees with extended Spring Training and worked with the Class A Tampa Yankees during his internship, and while with Oakland, he assisted the club's Dominican Summer League squad.

Bermudez graduated from the University of South Florida in 2012 with a bachelor of science degree in athletic training, and received his associate of arts degree in general studies from Valencia Community College in 2008.

DANIEL CERQUERA

TRAINER, DSL ASTROS BLUE

TENURE: 1ST YEAR IN BASEBALL / 1ST WITH HOUSTON

Daniel Cerquera joins the Astros for his first season as an athletic trainer with the DSL Astros Blue. Cerquera got his start in baseball by assisting with the Astros strength and conditioning camp and instructional league in the Dominican Republic in September of 2014. Prior to joining the Astros full-time, Cerquera spent two years working at a physical therapy clinic specializing in athletic rehabilitation.

Cerquera received his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Stony Brook University in 2013.

TRAINER, DSL ASTROS ORANGE

Osiris Ramirez returns to the Astros for his second consecutive season as a trainer in the DSL, and his 10th overall season working for the organization. Ramirez originally signed with the Astros in 2003, before working for the club as a trainer from 2005-10. Ramirez then went to the Angels organization, where he worked as a trainer until 2014.

Ramirez began his training career in 2005 while working for Las Estrellas Orinetales and Los Toros del Este of the Dominican Winter League.

STRENGTH COORDINATOR, DSL ASTROS

Geremias Guzman enters his 14th season with the Astros, and his first as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the DSL Astros. Guzman joined the organization in 2003, where he served as a strength and conditioning coach through the 2015 season. From 2003-08, Guzman also served as the DSL Astros athletic trainer.

Prior to joining the Astros, Guzman worked as a trainer at the Montreal Expos Dominican Academy. He also served as an Instructional League trainer in the San Diego Padres system in 2002, and as an assistant trainer with the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball academy from 2000-01.

Guzman holds a systems engineering degree from Universidad Central del Este (UCE) in the Dominican Republic. He earned his certification in muscle therapy at UCE, physical therapy at Universidad Nacional Evangelica (UNEV), and advanced English at Dominico American Institute. In 2015, he earned his certification in the NCSF as a personal trainer, completed his degree in sport psychology at the UCSD and earned his certification as a Selective Functional Movement Assessment Coach.

MIGUEL ANGEL CABRERA

STRENGTH COACH, DSL ASTROS BLUE

TENURE: 4TH YEAR IN BASEBALL / 3RD WITH HOUSTON

Miguel Angel Cabrera returns to the Astros organization for his third season as a strength and conditioning coach. He joined the Astros in 2014 after working for the DSL Pirates during the 2013 season.

Guzman holds a degree in physical therapy, and completed his coursework as a pharmacy technician in 2013. In 2016, He earned his degree in sport psychology from UCSD and earned his certification in NCSF as a personal trainer.

HAZAEL WESSIN

Hazael Wessin returns to the Astros for his second season as a strength and conditioning coach. Prior to joining the Astros, Wessin assisted the Boston Red Sox DSL operations in 2014.

Wessin received his bachelor's degree in sport management from Faulkner University in 2014. He also received his associate of arts degree in liberal arts from Western Oklahoma State College in 2012, where he was also a member of the baseball team. In 2011, Wessin was part of the National Championship winning team.

LATIN AMERICAN HOME OF THE HOUSTON ASTROS

GUERRA, SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Houston Astros celebrated their 25th season in the Dominican Republic on May 10, 2010, with the Grand Opening of the new Astros Latin American Home in Guerra, Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic.

The Astros have had a presence in the Dominican Republic since 1985 when the club operated out of the Estrellas Winter League Stadium in San Pedro de Macoris. From 1987-2009, the Astros home in the Dominican Republic was at Ingenio Santa Fe where numerous future Major Leaguers played.

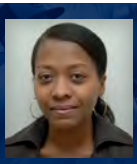

The new complex consists of two-and-a-half baseball fields, six pitching mounds, batting cages and an observation tower, along with other amenities. A two-story building contains locker rooms, manager and coaches offices, administrative offices, a dining room, full-service industrial kitchen, weight room, player and staff living accomodations, and a player entertainment room. In addition to developing young players and their baseball skills, the Astros new Latin American home also helps develop their educational skills and features a computer lab and classrooms.

The complex is located a half-mile from the new Tampa Bay and Los Angeles Dodgers facilities and in the same general area as other Major League Dominican Academies.

LATIN AMERICAN HOME STAFF

CARIDAD CABRERA

SUPERVISOR, LATIN AMERICAN DEV. + OPS.

Caridad Cabrera enters her seventh season with the Astros after joining the organization in January of 2010. Cabrera oversees all aspects of the Astros Latin American development and operations in addition to overseeing the administrative aspects of Houston's Dominican academy.

Cabrera holds a master's degree in business administration from Instituto Tecnologico de Santo Domingo, as well as an engineering degree in computer systems from Universidad Dominicana O & M.

2015 SEASON IN REVIEW

2015 CLUB NOTES

POSTSEASON APPEARANCES: In what was the 54th year of the franchise, the 2015 season marked the Astros 10th postseason appearance, their 3rd as a Wild Card participant and their 1st since moving to the AL for the 2013 season... prior to 2015, the Astros last made the postseason in 2005, advancing to the World Series as a Wild Card team.

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE: The Astros ALDS roster featured 16 players who had never appeared in a postseason game in their career prior to this season...the players on that roster with the most postseason experience were IF Jed Lowrie, who led all Astros players with 19 games played in the postseason, while RHP Pat Neshek led all pitchers with 11 postseason appearances.

BACK THEN: The 2015 squad featured 4 players remaining from the 2012 Astros, which finished 55-107: 2B Jose Altuve, C Jason Castro, IF Marwin Gonzalez and LHP Dallas Keuchel...that group bottomed out in 2013 (51-111) before posting a 19-game improvement in 2014 (70-92) and a 16-game improvement in 2015 (86-76).

FIRE POWER: The Astros hit 11 home runs in 6 games in the postseason... among single-season postseason totals, their 11 homers ranked 3rd in franchise history, trailing only the 2004 (25 HR) and 2005 (12 HR) Astros, which both played in multiple postseason series.

EXTRA! EXTRA!: OF Colby Rasmus became the 1st player in Major League history to record an extra-base hit in each of his 1st 6 career postseason games from Oct. 7, 2009-Oct. 9, 2015... the previous MLB record was a 5-game streak of extra-base hits to begin a postseason career, accomplished by Nelson Cruz (2010), Nomar Garciaparra (1998-99), Greg Luzinski (1976-77) and Pepper Martin (1931).

THE LONG BALL: The Astros tied their postseason record by hitting 4 home runs in Game 4 of the ALDS on Oct. 12, in Houston, also accomplished in Game 1 of the 2004 NLDS at ATL (Oct. 6) and in Game 1 of the 2004 NLCS at STL (Oct. 13).

COLBY JACK: OF Colby Ramus hit 4 home runs in the postseason, which ranks as the 2nd-highest single postseason home run total in franchise history, along with Lance Berkman (2004) and trailing only Carlos Beltran (8 HR in 2004)...dating back to the regular season, Rasmus hit 7 home runs in his final 10 games, in which he hit .452 (14x31) with 12 RBI and a .575 OBP.

TOTAL BASES RECORD: In Game 4 of the ALDS on Oct. 12, in Houston, SS Carlos Correa set the MLB record for total bases by a shortstop in a postseason game with 11, besting the previous record held by SS Derek Jeter (10 TB) set on Oct. 3, 2006, in Game 1 of the ALDS... Correa got to 11 total bases via a 4x4 day with a double and 2 HR.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER: At 21 years and 20 days old in Game 4 of the ALDS, SS Carlos Correa became the youngest player in American League history to post a multi-homer postseason game and the youngest to have a 4-hit game...the only player younger than Correa to have a multi-homer postseason game was OF Andruw Jones (19 years, 180 days), who hit 2 home runs for the Braves in Game 1 of the 1996 World Series at NYY.

GOOD COMPANY: Per Elias, SS Carlos Correa became the 3rd player in MLB history at age 21 or younger to hit 3rd in the starting lineup of a postseason game, joining Joe DiMaggio (1936) and Mickey Mantle (1952)...Correa hit 3rd in all 6 games of the postseason for Houston.

KEUCHEL JOINS SCOTT: LHP Dallas Keuchel joined RHP Mike Scott (1986 NLCS Game 1 and Game 4) as the only pitchers in club history to record the win in each of their first 2 career postseason starts...Keuchel went 2-0 with a 0.69 ERA (1ER/13IP) in his 2 starts in the postseason.

ERA LEADERS: The Astros finished the regular season with the best team ERA (3.57) in the American League, with their starting staff (3.71) ranking 2nd in the AL in ERA and their bullpen (3.27) ranking 4th.

HOME DOMINANCE: Including the regular season, LHP Dallas Keuchel went 16-0 with a 1.45 ERA (22ER/136.1IP) in 19 home starts...the last AL pitcher to win 16 combined home games between the regular season and postseason was RHP Jack Morris (16-3) in 1991 for the World Series Champion Minnesota Twins.

MCCULLERS & HAMPTON: At 22 years and 10 days old in Game 4 of the ALDS, RHP Lance McCullers became the youngest pitcher to start a posteason game in Astros history...that record was previously held by LHP Mike Hampton (25.022) in Game 2 of the 1997 NLDS.

AL WILD CARD GAME: The Astros downed the Yankees in the AL Wild Card Game on Tuesday, Oct. 6, in New York by a score of 3-0...LHP Dallas Keuchel (0ER/7IP) led the club to victory...the game was notable on several fronts:

- the win marked the Astros 1st postseason win since clinching the NL pennant in Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS.
- this was the 5th postseason shutout in franchise history and the 1st on the road.
- Keuchel is the 3rd pitcher in franchise history to make a scoreless start in his 1st career postseason outing joining RHP Mike Scott (1986) and RHP Joe Niekro (1980).
- 1B Chris Carter became the 2nd player in MLB history to record at least 3 walks in his 1st career postseason game, joining Frank Thomas (1993).

FINAL RESULTS: At 86-76 (.531), the Astros finished the regular season in 2nd place in the AL West, trailing the 1st place Rangers by just 2 games...the 86 wins mark the most by the club since the 2008 season (86-75) and marked a 16-game improvement over their record in 2014 (70-92).

SPEED AND POWER: The Astros finished the regular season leading the American League in stolen bases (121) and ranking 2nd in the Majors in home runs (230)...Houston also ranked 2nd in the AL in slugging (.437)...AL rankings:

Home Runs	Stolen Bases	Slugging
1. TOR - 232	1. HOU - 121	1. TOR - .457
2. HOU - 230	2. KC - 104	2. HOU - .437
3. BAL - 217	3. TEX - 101	3. NYY - .421

HOT START: The Astros got off to a scorching start and posted franchise-best records thru several game numbers early in the season...this season, the Astros set franchise-best records thru game number 25 (18-7), 26 (18-8), 40 (26-14), 41 (27-14), 47 (30-17), 54 (34-20) and 55 (34-21).

HINCH AT THE HELM: In his 1st year as the Astros manager, A.J. Hinch guided his club to a postseason appearance and was a finalist for the Manager of the Year Award, finishing 2nd to Rangers Manager Jeff Bannister...Hinch guided the club to a 16-game improvement over the 2014 season, the largest improvement for a 1st-year manager in franchise history.

HARD TO HIT: The Astros pitching staff allowed just a .241 opponent batting average on the season, which ranks as the 5th-lowest allowed in franchise history and the lowest allowed since the 1986 season (.225)...the club's 1,280 strikeouts are the 2nd-highest total in franchise history trailing only the 1,282 posted by the 2004 Astros.

RUN DIFFERENTIALS: Houston concluded the regular season with the 2nd-best run differential in the AL at +111, trailing only Toronto (+221)...the Astros posted a positive run differential in home (+86) and road (+25) games in 2015.

TATER TALLY: The Astros 230 home runs ranked 2nd in the Major this season and mark the 2nd-hightest total posted in franchise history.

Most HR in Astros Season History

2. 2015 - 230
3. 2001 - 208

2015 CLUB NOTES

SPREADING THE WEALTH: The Astros had 11 players hit double digit home runs, which tied a Major League record, also reached by the 2004 Tigers...Houston was close to surpassing that record as IF Jed Lowrie and OF Jake Marisnick both finished their regular season with 9 home runs.

DOUBLE UP: Houston finished the season 57-11 (.838) when they hit 2+ home runs in a game...the 68 multi-homer games rank 2nd in franchise history behind the 71 multi-homer games posted by the 2000 Astros.

HOME RUN STREAK: The Astros hit at least 1 home run in 10 straight games from June 14-23, which marked the longest Astros streak since the 2007 team had a 12-game run from July 28-Aug. 10...the 10-game streak included a run of hitting multiple home runs in a franchise record 8 straight games from June 14-21.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Astros completed their home schedule with a 53-28 record at home, which tied as the best home record in the AL (also, Toronto)... the Astros went 29-12 in their final 41 home games and 45-19 in their final 64, while winning or splitting 15 of their final 17 home series.

HOME VICTORIES: The Astros 53 home wins tied for the most in a single season in Minute Maid Park history, as the 2005 Astros also finished with a 53-28 record at the venue...the franchise record for home wins in a single season is 55, set in 1980 and 1998 in the Astrodome.

ROAD RECORD: The Astros finished the season with a 33-48 road record, but did finish their campaign winning 4 of their final 6 road games to edge into the playoffs...Houston started the season hot on the road, going 12-3 in their 1st 15 road games, which marked their best road start thru 15 games in franchise history.

WINNING MONTHS: The Astros finished with a .500-or-better record in each of their 1st 5 months of the season... the last time Houston did this was in 2001, when the club went April-September with at least .500 records in every month.

INTERLEAGUE RECORD: The Astros tied the Major League record for Interleague wins in a single season with 16, also set by Boston (2006), Minnesota (2006) and Oakland (2002), which all went 16-2...Houston's 16-4 record was the best record in Interleague play in the Majors in 2015, which included an 8-2 record on the road.

ATTENDANCE FIGURES: The Astros drew 2,153,585 fans, the highest home attendance number since 2010 (2,331,490), and a big uptick over their 2014 figure (1,749,806)...this number included 3 sellouts, the most at Minute Maid Park since 2008...the Astros and Yankees series from June 26-28 drew a total of 110,842 fans to the ballpark, the largest 3-day weekend attendance since the 2012 season.

MONTHLY AWARDS: The Astros took home 5 monthly awards, with LHP Dallas Keuchel earning AL Pitcher of the Month in April, May and August, while LHP Scott Kazmir earned the Award in July, and SS Carlos Correa earned Rookie of the Month in June.

CY COMPANY: LHP Dallas Keuchel finished the regular season leading AL pitchers in wins (20), innings pitched (232) and WAR (7.2), while ranking 2nd in ERA (2.48) and in opponent batting average (.217)...the last AL pitcher to own at least a share for the league lead in wins and innings pitched at the end of the season was RHP Justin Verlander in 2011, his Cy Young season.

HISTORY IS MADE: LHP Dallas Keuchel became the 1st pitcher in MLB history to finish a season going undefeated, while collecting at least 15 wins in home starts...the previous MLB record for wins by an undefeated starter at home was 13, set by RHP Boo Ferriss (1946) and RHP Tex Hughson (1946), who both went 13-0 at home for the Boston Red Sox in the 1940's...Keuchel finished his year 15-0 with a 1.46 ERA (21ER/129.1IP) in his 18 starts at home in 2016.

	TOTAL	AVG
HOME	2,153,585	26,587

20-GAME WINNER: Including LHP Dallas Keuchel, the Astros have had a 20-game winner just 10 times in franchise history, which has been accomplished by 8 different pitchers, most recently done by RHP Roy Oswalt (20-12) in 2005... the only other lefty to do so in franchise history was LHP Mike Hampton (22-4) in 1999.

K FOR KEUCHEL: LHP Dallas Keuchel surpassed LHP Mike Cuellar (203 strikeouts in 1967) for the franchise record for strikeouts by a left-handed pitcher in a single season with 213 strikeouts...Keuchel's 213 strikeouts ranked 14th on the all-time single season franchise list and were the most by an Astros pitcher since RHP Roger Clemens recorded 218 in 2004.

SIX PACK: LHP Dallas Keuchel went at least 6.0-or-more innings in a franchise-record 40 straight starts, from July 25, 2014-Sept. 11, 2015...Keuchel's streak was the longest in the Majors since RHP Justin Verlander did so in 63 straight starts spanning parts of 3 seasons (2010-12).

WE HAVE A WINNER: RHP Collin McHugh is 26-7 with a 3.48 ERA (101ER/256.1IP) in his last 40 starts, dating back to Aug. 12, 2014...from that date through the end of the 2015 season, he ranks tied for 1st in the Majors in regular season wins along with RHP Jake Arrieta (26-7).

DYNAMIC DUO: LHP Dallas Keuchel (20-8) and RHP Collin McHugh (19-7) became just the 2nd pair of teammates in franchise history to record at least 19 wins in the same season...they joined LHP Mike Hampton (22-4) and RHP Jose Lima (21-10), who posted their records in 1999.

ASTROS BY DAYS

Sunday	17	9	.654

LEFTY LEADERS: The Astros rotation featured 2 starters that ranked within the top 4 qualifiers in ERA in the AL in LHP Dallas Keuchel and LHP Scott Kazmir...ERA leaders below:

Lowest AL ERA

1. David Price	2.45 ERA (60ER/220.1IP)
2. Dallas Keuchel	2.48 ERA (64ER/232IP)
3. Sonny Gray	2.73 ERA (63ER/208IP)
4. Scott Kazmir	3.10 ERA (63ER/183IP)

ROOKIE WARRIOR: RHP Lance McCullers, a 21-year-old who made the jump straight from Double A to the Majors in May, led all American League rookie pitchers in WAR with a 2.8 mark, immediately ahead of RHP Trevor May (2.3) and LHP Carlos Rodon (2.1)... McCullers went 6-7 with a 3.22 ERA (45ER/125.2IP), while recording 129 strikeouts in his 22 Major League starts this season.

PICKUP GAME: RHP Mike Fiers pitched 10 times in the regular season after the Astros acquired him via trade from the Brewers on July 30, including 9 starts...in his 9 regular season starts, Fiers posted a 2-1 record and a 2.67 ERA (17ER/57.1IP).

COOL HAND LUKE: RHP Luke Gregerson became the 2nd Astros pitcher in franchise history to record 7 wins and 31 saves in a single season, joining RHP Doug Jones (11 W, 36 SV in 1992)... Gregerson's 31 saves were the most by an Astros reliever since RHP Jose Valverde tied a franchise record with 44 saves in 2008.

WILL THE THRILL: RHP Will Harris was one of the most effective relievers in the Majors in 2015, posting a 1.90 ERA (15ER/71IP) in 68 appearances... additionally, he allowed just 42 hits in his 71 IP while tallying 68 strikeouts.

THE 200: 2B Jose Altuve became the 1st player in franchise history to record multiple 200-hit seasons when he reached hit number 200 in his final at-bat of the regular season...Altuve posted club-record 225 hits last season, joining 2B Craig Biggio (210 in 1998) as the only player in franchise history to reach 200 hits in a single season.

ABOUT THE NO-NO: On Aug. 21 vs. LAD, RHP Mike Fiers recorded the 11th no-hitter in Astros franchise history and the 1st at Minute Maid Park…the no-hitter was notable on several fronts:

- it marked the Astros 1st no hitter since the 6-pitcher combined no-hitter on June 11, 2003 at NYY tossed by RHP Roy Oswalt, RHP Pete Munro, RHP Kirk Saarloos, RHP Brad Lidge, RHP Octavio Dotel and LHP Billy Wagner.
- it marked the Astros 10th complete game no-hitter and their 1st since RHP Darryl Kile did so on Sept. 8, 1993 vs. NYM.
- per Elias, Fiers is the 1st pitcher since RHP Jim Bibby in 1973 to throw a no-hitter after changing teams midseason…Bibby did so for the Rangers after being acquired via trade midseason from the Cardinals.
- Jason Castro became the 9th catcher in franchise history to catch a no-hitter, joining Alan Ashby (3), Brad Ausmus, Scott Servais, Ed Herrmann, Don Bryant, Dave Adlesh, Jerry Grote and John Bateman.

ALTUVE'S RUN: Dating back to Aug. 8, 2B Jose Altuve finished his season by going 51 straight games without committing an error in 210 total chances…on the season, he led all Major League 2nd basemen in fielding percentage (.993).

SLUGGING SHORTSTOP: With 22 home runs this season, SS Carlos Correa set single season franchise records for home runs by a shortstop and for home runs by a rookie…franchise single-season rankings below:

HR by Shortstops	HR by Rookies
1. C. Correa - 22 (2015)	1. C. Correa - 22 (2015)
2. D. Thon - 19 (1983)	2. L. Berkman - 21 (2000)

FAREWELL REX: Long-time Assistant Athletic Trainer Rex Jones retired following the 2015 season…Jones, who spent his entire 37-year career in the Astros organization, developed an outstanding reputation amongst his peers and with generations of Astros players and staff.

ASTROS BY MONTHS

FRANKEN-SEASON: DH Evan Gattis, who led the club with 88 RBI, also posted 11 triples, which ranked tied for 3rd in the Majors…Gattis is the 1st Major League player to record at least 11 triples without recording a steal in the same season since Dale Long posted 13 triples and no steals in 1955.

ABOUT THE COMEBACK: Trailing 3-0 with 2 outs in the 9th and facing Angels closer RHP Huston Street (3-3) on Sept. 13 at LAA, the Astros came back to win it with a 5-run rally, capped by a 3-run homer by PH Jed Lowrie…the 3-run, 9th-inning comeback all came after the 1st 2 batters in the 9th were retired…the Elias Sports Bureau provided several notes on Astros wins after entering the 9th inning trailing by 3+ runs:

- last time it happened: April 14, 2012 at MIA…Miami was winning 4-1 going into the 9th, which ended as a 5-4 Astros win.
- last time it happened when all runs scored with 2 outs: April 7, 2002 vs. STL…trailing 6-3 in the bottom of the 9th, the Astros 1st hitter singled, the next 2 were retired, then Houston scored 3 runs with 2 outs to tie it at 6-6 in the 9th…they would later win it 8-7 in 10 innings.
- last time it happened when the 1st 2 hitters in the inning were retired: June 6, 1989 vs. SD…Houston trailed 7-4 in the 9th before rallying for 3 runs and eventually winning it 8-7 in 10 innings.

2015 CLUB NOTES

THREE ASTROS ALL-STARS: The Astros had 2 players, 2B Jose Altuve and LHP Dallas Keuchel, and their manager A.J. Hinch in uniform for the 86th annual All-Star Game...Altuve was elected via the fan vote, Keuchel was elected via the player vote and Hinch was selected by Royals manager Ned Yost to join his staff for the Midsummer Classic.

All-Star Notebook

- this was the 1st All-Star selection for Keuchel, who received more player votes than any other pitcher.
- Keuchel is the 4th pitcher in franchise history to start an All-Star Game, joining RHP Roger Clemens (2004), RHP Mike Scott (1987) and RHP J.R. Richard (1980).
- this was the 1st All-Star start for Altuve (3rd selection overall).
- Altuve is the 1st Astros starter elected via the fan vote since 1B Lance Berkman in 2008.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTIONS: On Sunday, July 27, in Cooperstown, N.Y., Astros legend 2B Craig Biggio was inducted into MLB's Hall of Fame...Biggio, who made history as the 1st player to go into the Hall of Fame as a member of the Houston Astros franchise, was joined by pitchers Randy Johnson, Pedro Martinez and John Smoltz as part of the Class of 2015 inductees.

TOP FARM SYSTEM: The Astros minor league system was named the Best Farm System of the 2015 season by MiLB.com...the Astros had a standout season in the minor leagues, posting the best combined overall minor league record among all 30 organizations during the regular season with a 502-405 (.553) mark...Houston also had 7 minor league teams qualify for the playoffs, which resulted in championships for Triple A Fresno and Rookie Level Greeneville.

ALTUVE'S AWARD SEASON: 2B Jose Altuve took home the Silver Slugger and Gold Glove Awards for 2015, marking his 2nd consecutive Silver Slugger Award and his 1st Gold Glove...he became the 3rd Astros player to win both awards in the same season, joining 2B Craig Biggio (1994-95, 1997) and 1B Jeff Bagwell (1994).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: SS Carlos Correa was named the AL Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) on Nov. 16...he is just the 2nd player in franchise history to win the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award, joining 1B Jeff Bagwell, who won the National League award in 1991.

CY YOUNG: The BBBWAA named Astros LHP Dallas Keuchel the 2015 American League Cy Young Award winner on Nov. 18...Keuchel became just the 3rd player in franchise history to win the Cy Young, joining Mike Scott (1986) and Roger Clemens (2004).

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

1962-1963 BORN: 9/17/30 IN CHICAGO, IL B: R T: R

Jim Umbricht broke into the professional ranks with the Milwaukee Brewers farm system in 1953 and was traded to Pittsburgh for outfielder Emil Ranko on April 6, 1959. He was purchased by the Houston Colt .45s in the 1961 National League player pool for $50,000 from Pittsburgh. Umbricht opened the season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the National League. He posted a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA that year. He then made a remarkable comeback after a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963 and was once again one of the league's leading relievers with a 4-3 record and 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired on April 12, 1965.

40 • DON WILSON

1966-74 BORN: 2/12/45 IN MONROE, LA B: R T: R

Don Wilson is the only player to throw two no-hitters while wearing a Houston uniform. He pitched a no-hitter on June 18, 1967 vs. Atlanta (2-0) and May 1, 1969 at Cincinnati (4-0). Wilson established the club record for single-game strikeouts (18) on July 14, 1968 vs. Los Angeles. He compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros and won a career-high 16 games twice in 1969 (16-12), and 1971 (16-10). He was named to the 1971 All-Star team. Wilson died on January 5, 1975 and his number, 40, was officially retired on April 13, 1975.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

Jose "Cheo" Cruz ranks in the top 10 in every significant Astros career hitting category. He was the team's most valuable player four times (1977, 1980, 1983, 1984) and named a National League All-Star twice (1980, 1985). He started his career in the St. Louis organization but did not blossom until he was acquired by the Astros in 1975. Cruz made three trips into postseason play with the Astros, batting .400 in the 1980 NLCS against the Phillies and hitting .300 six times in his career. Cruz currently serves as a community outreach executive for the club. He previously served as the Astros' first base coach for 13 seasons from 1997-2009. His number, 25, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

33 • MIKE SCOTT

Mike Scott is still remembered for doing the impossible: on Sept. 25, 1986, he became the first pitcher ever to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco 2-0 to wrap up the NL West title. Scott, who began his career with the New York Mets, was 110-81 with a 3.30 ERA as an Astro from 1983-90, winning the Cy Young Award in 1986 when he led the Majors in strikeouts (306), innings pitched (275.1) and ERA (2.22). He will also be remembered for his feats in the 1986 NLCS. Scott twice beat the New York Mets, limiting them to one run in 18 innings and striking out 19 batters. He became the first player from a losing team to win NLCS MVP honors. In 1989, he became Houston's fourth 20-game winner when he posted a 20-10 record. His number, 33, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

The all-time strikeout king and 1999 inductee to the Baseball Hall of Fame played nine seasons for the Astros after signing as a free agent on Nov. 19, 1979. He helped the Astros to their first National League West Division title in 1980. He tossed his fifth career no-hitter on Sept. 26, 1981 against Los Angeles and posted one of the best post-World War II ERAs (1.69) in helping Houston to the second half title. On April 27, 1983, he surpassed Walter Johnson as baseball's all-time strikeout king when he fanned former Houston Astros manager and Montreal infielder Brad Mills. He led the league with a 2.76 ERA in 1987 despite an 8-16 record. He led the league in strikeouts in 1987 (270) and 1988 (228). Ryan made two All-Star appearances while wearing a Houston uniform (1981, 1985) and was the owner of 53 Major League pitching records upon his retirement. His number, 34, was retired on Sept. 29, 1996. Ryan was hired as an executive advisor to the club on Feb. 11, 2014.

49 • LARRY DIERKER

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the number 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. In 40 years of service to the organization, Dierker served as a player, front-office member, broadcaster, and manager. In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston, he won 137 games, second only to Joe Niekro in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games, and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Dierker pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976. After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Dierker became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles, and the 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, allowing Dierker to earn NL Manager of the Year honors. Dierker currently serves as a special assistant to Astros President Reid Ryan.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the Top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season. In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Wynn smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. Wynn remains an active member of the Houston community and currently works as a community outreach executive for the club. His number, 24, was officially retired on June 25, 2005.

5 ▪ JEFF BAGWELL

On Aug. 26, 2007, the Astros retired the No. 5 worn by first baseman Jeff Bagwell during his 15-year career with the team. Bagwell is the franchise's career leader in home runs with 449 and in RBI with 1,529, and he is the only Astro to win the National League Most Valuable Player Award, having done so in 1994 after hitting .368 with 39 home runs and 116 RBI. Bagwell is also the only player in franchise history to win the NL Rookie of the Year award, capturing the honor in 1991. One of the most respected players and leaders in recent Major League memory, Bagwell's mark on the Astros franchise is indelible, from his play on the field to his impact on the younger Astros in the clubhouse. He also earned NL Silver Slugger Awards three times (1994, 1997, 1999) and one Rawlings Gold Glove Award (1994), and the four-time All-Star is the only Astro with six consecutive 100-RBI seasons. Bagwell was the Astros Opening Day first baseman for 15 consecutive seasons, and his 2,314 hits rank second in franchise history. In January 2016, Bagwell fell just under four percent short of the votes needed to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He brought in 71.6 (315 total) percent of the vote in what was his sixth season on the ballot.

In front of close to 50,000 fans, many of which were from Houston, Craig Biggio was officially inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame on July, 26, 2015, along with pitchers Randy Johnson, Pedro Martinez and John Smoltz. Biggio became the first player ever inducted into Cooperstown as a member of the Houston Astros. On Aug. 17, 2008, the Astros retired the No. 7 worn by second baseman Craig Biggio during his 20-year career with the team. Biggio is the franchise's career leader in runs scored (1844) and hits (3060) and is the only player to reach the 3,000-hit plateau while wearing an Astros uniform. At the time of his retirement, he ranked 20th in Major League history in that category and was one of only nine players to reach the milestone while playing his entire career with the same team. Biggio also leads the franchise in doubles with 668. In 1998, Biggio joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season. He followed his 1998 campaign by hitting 56 doubles in 1999, becoming just the sixth player in MLB history to have back-to-back 50-double seasons. Biggio has played more games (2850) than any other player in franchise history and has been hit by more pitches (285) than any player in modern MLB history (since 1900). A seven-time All-Star, Biggio received five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. He is the only player in Major League history to make the All-Star team at both catcher and second base. Biggio played in a franchise record 20 seasons with the club, including 19 consecutive Opening Day starts (1989-2007). He remains a member of the Astros organization as a special assistant to the general manager.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson debuted at first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers, becoming the first African American in the 20th century to appear in a Major League Baseball uniform. He broke the color barrier, and quickly became one of the league's stars and a symbol of hope to millions of Americans. Known for his daring baserunning, Robinson stole home 19 times, and helped the Dodgers win the pennant in six of his 10 seasons. In 1949, he was named the National League MVP after batting .342 with 37 steals and 124 runs. And, in 1962, he became the first black player elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. To mark the 50th anniversary of his historic achievement, Major League Baseball dedicated the 1997 season to Robinson and retired his number, 42, throughout the league. Robinson died Oct. 24, 1972, at the age of 53.

2006 The Astros finished 82-80, in second place, 1.5 games behind the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, giving Houston its sixth consecutive winning season...Lance Berkman made his fourth All-Star appearance and set the single-season franchise record with 136 RBI...Roy Oswalt won the ERA crown with a 2.98 mark, while winning 15 games...he was the runner-up in the NL Cy Young Award voting...Adam Everett recorded the fourth-best fielding percentage by a shortstop in Major League history, holding down a .990 mark at the position...the Astros finished .500 or better for the 14th time in 15 years and their second-place finish marked the 12th time in 13 years that the club had claimed first or second place in the NL Central.

2007 The Astros finished 73-89, the club's lowest winning percentage since 2000 (.451), in fourth place in the NL Central and 12.0 games behind the division-winning Chicago Cubs...the Astros drew 3,000,000 fans to Minute Maid Park for the fourth time in franchise history...OF Carlos Lee was named team MVP after driving in a career-best 119 runs...Hunter Pence became the first rookie in Major League history to lead a league in hitting at the All-Star Break (.342)...Pence set Houston franchise rookie records in doubles, extra-base hits, hitting, and slugging...on June 28, franchise icon Craig Biggio reached the 3,000-hit plateau, all collected in an Astros uniform...on Sept. 20, Ed Wade was named the club's new General Manager, replacing Tim Purpura...just eight days later on Sept. 28, Wade and the Astros promoted interim manager Cecil Cooper to the club's full-time managerial position...Cooper was originally named interim manager on Aug. 27, replacing Phil Garner.

2008 The club finished 86-75, in third place in the NL Central and 11.0 games behind division-champion Chicago... Houston finished 3.5 games behind Milwaukee in the NL Wild Card race and was not eliminated from playoff contention until the season's 159th game...Jose Valverde led the National League with 44 saves and tied Billy Wagner's franchise single-season saves record, previously set in 2003...Roy Oswalt went 17-10 and won 10 of his last 12 starts...Houston pitchers compiled 13 shutouts, leading National League staffs...in May, Lance Berkman won the NL Player of the Month Award after enjoying a 50-at-bat span in which he hit .620 (31x50)...Berkman led the league with a .345 average with runners in scoring position and tied for the league lead with 46 doubles...the Astros committed 67 errors, the fewest errors for any team in National League history, anchored by shortstop Miguel Tejada.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2009 The Astros played well through their first four months of the season, topping out at 49-46 and just 1.0 game out of first place on July 22...three new Astros emerged as stars, including center fielder Michael Bourn, right fielder Hunter Pence and left-handed starter Wandy Rodriguez...Bourn was named the Astros team MVP and was awarded a Gold Glove for his defensive work in the field...he became the first Astros center fielder to win a gold glove since Cesar Cedeno won the award in five straight seasons from 1972-76...he was also named as the recipient of the Cool Papa Bell Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum after leading the National League in stolen bases...Pence was elected to his first career All-Star Game and led all Major League outfielders with 16 outfield assists...he also became the first right fielder in club history to record consecutive 25+ homer seasons...Rodriguez had a career year, leading the Astros pitching staff with a 14-12 record and a 3.02 ERA in 33 starts...other major contributors included Lance Berkman, Carlos Lee and Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez, who became the first trio of teammates in MLB history to reach their 300th career home run in the same season...Pudge also contributed to the record books by setting a new MLB record for games caught in a career when he caught in his 2,227th game on June 17 at TEX.

2010 The Astros finished with a record of 76-86 and in fourth place in the NL Central...despite their disappointing record the Astros showed steady improvement under first-year manager Brad Mills...the team got off to a tough start, losing their first eight games of the season, marking the second-slowest start in franchise history (0-9 in 1983)...the club bottomed out on May 31, dropping to 17-34 and in last place in the NL Central...this is where Mills was impressive, guiding the club to a 59-52 record through the remaining four months of 2010...a major part of the Astros upswing can be credited to the Astros starting pitching staff and the addition of hitting coach Jeff Bagwell, who joined the club at the All-Star Break...a trio of hurlers in Brett Myers, Wandy Rodriguez and Bud Norris had an impressive run over the final two months of the season (16-6, 2.90 ERA) despite missing a key cog to previous Astros rotations: Roy Oswalt...Oswalt, along with first baseman Lance Berkman were both dealt in midseason trades that returned Major League pitchers J.A. Happ and Mark Melancon and infielder Brett Wallace...the trades seem to energize the club and open up opportunities for Myers and rookie Chris Johnson to impress...a free agent signing in the offseason, Myers was the steady force for Houston in 2010, beginning his campaign with a franchise record-setting 32 consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more innings...Johnson earned the Astros rookie of the year after leading all Major League rookies in batting average (min. 300 ABs)...for the second consecutive year, center fielder Michael Bourn would win a gold glove and lead the National League in stolen bases.

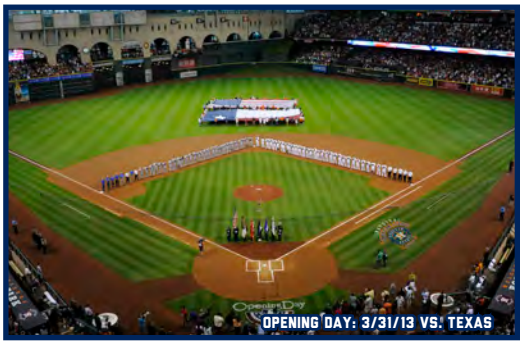

2011 The Astros 2011 season can be described by one word: change...after departing with veterans Lance Berkman and Roy Oswalt in 2010, the Astros continued their rebuilding efforts in 2011, this time dealing CF Michael Bourn, 2B Jeff Keppinger and RF Hunter Pence midseason for a return of 10 prospects...with the exodus of three starters, the club got a chance to witness the Major League values of 2B Jose Altuve, RF Brian Bogusevic and LF J.D. Martinez...all three turned in impressive months as the club's starters at the vacated positions...no young player impressed more than Martinez, who posted 28 RBI in August, his first full month in the Majors...LHP Wandy Rodriguez had another solid campaign, winning 11 games on a team that lost 106 games on the season...following the year, the club was officially purchased by Houston businessman Jim Crane, who appointed George Postolos as President and CEO...Crane and Postolos made their first significant hire in Jeff Luhnow, who became the 12th general manager in club history.

2012 Under new management the Astros continued to rebuild in 2012...the Astros traded their veteran players in exchange for young prospects in order to build a pipeline of young talent that would allow them to compete for a championship in the future...the Astros acquired 10 prospects in trading veterans Carlos Lee, Brett Myers, Wandy Rodriguez and Chris Johnson during the season…2B Jose Altuve shined after leading the club in runs, hits, doubles, triples, extra-base hits (45) and stolen bases while posting a .340 on-base percentage...Altuve was the lone Astro to be named to the All-Star Team in 2012…OF Justin Maxwell led the club in homers with 18 in his first season as an Astro...Maxwell was claimed off waivers from the Yankees… RHP Lucas Harrell had a breakout rookie season as he led the club in wins, innings pitched and starts... Harrell went 11-11 in 32 outings for the Astros...Tony DeFrancesco replaced Brad Mills on an interim basis after Mills was let go during the season...on Sept. 27, the Astros announced that Bo Porter would serve as the club's new manager for the 2013 season.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2013 You could almost say the Astros 2013 season was a year of firsts…2013 was the Astros inaugural season as an American League club after spending their first 51 seasons (1962-2012) in the National League…the Astros were the first team in Major League history to move from the NL to the AL…they made their AL debut by defeating the Texas Rangers, 8-2, at Minute Maid Park on MLB Opening Night on March 31…2013 was also the first season for new Astros President Reid Ryan…Ryan, the son of former Astro and Hall of Fame pitcher Nolan Ryan, was previously the President and CEO of Ryan-Sanders Baseball, which owned and operated the Astros Double A affiliate Corpus Christi Hooks…the Astros went on to purchase the Corpus Christi Hooks on Sep. 30…the 2013 season was also the first season at the helm for Manager Bo Porter…Porter, who turned 41 on July 5, was the youngest manager in MLB…the Astros continued their efforts to rebuild in 2013…they had 14 players make their Major League debut, and had the youngest roster at the end of the season with an average age of 26…many of the Astros biggest moments of the season were highlighted by rookies as well…RHP Jarred Cosart became the first pitcher in franchise history to throw 8.0 shutout innings in his Major League debut (July 12, at TB)…Cosart finished the season making 10 starts with a 1.95 ERA, which led the AL in that span…rookie LHP Brett Oberholtzer made a big impact in 2013 as well…finishing the season in the rotation, Oberholtzer finished with a 2.24 ERA in 10 starts, which was first among AL southpaws and second in the AL overall in that span...rookie OF Brandon Barnes also went on to have one of the finest offensive performances of the season…on July 19 vs. SEA, Barnes hit for the cycle, finishing 5x5...Barnes became the seventh different Astros player to hit for the cycle and the first since Luke Scott on July 28, 2006 vs. ARI...in his third year, catcher Jason Castro had the best offensive season by a catcher in franchise history…Castro was the first Astros catcher to make the All-Star team since Craig Biggio in 1991…Castro set club records for a catcher in several categories, including HR (18), doubles (35), SLG (.485), and OPS (.835)…Castro also became the first Astros player to win two Player of the Week awards in one season since Lance Berkman in 2008, and he also finished second among AL catchers in WAR (4.5) behind Joe Mauer (5.4)…in his first full season in the majors, 3B Matt Dominguez finished second on the club in HR (21) and RBI (77)…Dominguez became the youngest Astro to hit 21 HR in a season since Cesar Cedeno hit 26 HR in 1974.

OPENING DAY: 3/31/13 VS. TEXAS

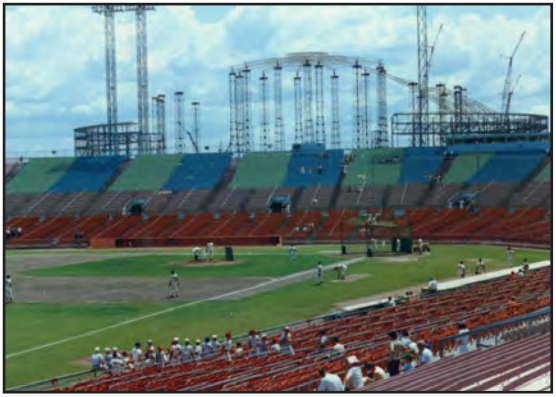

2014 In 2014, owner Jim Crane and general manager Jeff Luhnow's long-term vision for the Astros began to take shape on the field...Houston won 70 games, besting their 2013 total by 19 games, the second largest year-to-year improvement in team history...the organization's commitment to cultivating top young talent paid dividends at the Major League level, as a core of young stars, including Jose Altuve (24), George Springer (25), Dallas Keuchel (26), and Collin McHugh (27) emerged, leading an Astros club that was the youngest in the MLB (average Opening Day age: 26.8 years)...despite suffering a season-ending hamstring injury on July 19, Springer blasted 20 home runs, one shy of the Astros rookie record...he also earned AL Rookie of the Month honors in May after becoming only the second rookie player in baseball's modern era to hit seven home runs over a seven-game span...All-Star 2B Jose Altuve and 1B Chris Carter produced two of the finest offensive seasons in the Majors in 2014...in a historic campaign, Altuve led all of Major League Baseball in hits and batting average (.341) en route to the Astros first ever batting title...he also led the American League in steals with 56, becoming only the second Major Leaguer since 1945 to lead his league in batting, hits and stolen bases in the same season, and the first to reach 220+ hits (225), 40+ doubles, and 50 +stolen bases in one season since Ty Cobb in 1917...Altuve established a new single-season franchise record for hits (225), surpassing Craig Biggio's mark of 210 in 1998...his 225 hits were the most in a season for a second baseman since Charlie Gehringer (227) in 1936 and the most ever for a Venezuelan-born player...Carter finished with the second-most home runs in baseball (37)...on the mound, rookie Collin McHugh and breakout star Dallas Keuchel delivered spectacular campaigns...Keuchel, who was awarded the Gold Glove, ended the season 12-9 with a 2.93 ERA and 200.0IP...McHugh's 2.73 ERA ranked sixth in MLB among starters and first among rookies (minimum 150 IP)...the outlook for the future provides even greater cause for optimism...even with the graduation of many top prospects, the Astros loaded farm system only appears to be getting stronger...Houston's system was ranked third in baseball and the team's minor league clubs produced 27 All-Stars, two gold glove winners and seven of MLB.com's top 100 prospects...in addition, the Astros stockpiled the second, fifth and 32nd overall picks in the 2015 MLB draft...following the season, on September 29, the Astros named former MLB catcher and manager A.J. Hinch as the 18th manager in franchise history.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2015 The 2015 season was a historic one for the Houston Astros, as they defied expectations and brought the city of Houston playoff baseball for the first time in 10 seasons…the Astros were led by A.J. Hinch, who was in his first season at the helm of the club…at 86-76 (.531), the Astros finished the regular season in second place in the AL West, trailing the first place Rangers by just two games...the 86 wins mark the most by the club since the 2008 season (86-75) and marked a 16-game improvement over their record in 2014 (70-92)...the Astros got off to a scorching start and posted franchise-best records through several game numbers early in the season: game number 25 (18-7), 26 (18-8), 40 (26-14), 41 (27-14), 47 (30-17), 54 (34-20) and 55 (34-21)...they spent 139 days in first place of the AL West, before clinching the Wild Card position on the final day of the regular season…it was the Astros 10th postseason appearance, their third as a Wild Card participant and their first since moving to the AL for the 2013 season...after downing the Yankees 3-0 in the AL Wild Card Game, the Astros took the eventual World Series Champion KC Royals to Game 5 of the ALDS, falling two games-to-three...the Astros utilized all aspects of the game to solidify their success through the season... they finished the regular season with the best team ERA (3.57) in the American League, with their starting staff (3.71) ranking second in the AL in ERA and their bullpen (3.27) ranking fourth...the staff allowed just a .241 opponent batting average, which ranked as the fifth-lowest allowed in franchise history and the lowest allowed since the 1986 season (.225)...the club's 1,280 strikeouts were the second-highest total in franchise history trailing only the 1,282 posted by the 2004 Astros...at the plate, the Astros had 11 players hit double digit home runs, which tied a Major League record, also reached by the 2004 Tigers...Houston was close to surpassing that record as IF Jed Lowrie and OF Jake Marisnick both finished their regular season with nine home runs...they finished the season leading the American League in stolen bases (121) and ranked second in the Majors in home runs (230)...Houston also ranked second in the AL in slugging (.437)...living up to the years of hype for the Astros farm system, a number of players made their debuts during the season and had a lasting impact on the franchise, and the league...guys like Carlos Correa, Lance McCullers and Preston Tucker all made their way to Houston and had breakout campaigns...SS Carlos Correa finished the year leading all MLB shortstops in home runs (22), OPS (.850) and slugging (.512) (min. 425 PA)...RHP Lance McCullers led all American League rookie pitchers in WAR with a 2.8 mark...McCullers went 6-7 with a 3.22 ERA (45ER/125.2IP), while recording 129 strikeouts in his 22 Major League starts on the season...veterans like Jose Altuve and Dallas Keuchel continued to cement themselves as the pillars of the club, as they were joined by A.J. ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium would be completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

COLT STADIUM

Current status: The stadium was dismantled in the 1970s and moved to Torreon, Mexico, where it was reassembled and became home to a Mexican League baseball team.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

GENE ELSTON* (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS post-season games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and has authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON* (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for well over 40 years. His big league on-air career has included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It is no coincidence that he has probably been behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appeals to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he has broadcast are Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton has involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he has helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo has shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ (2010 inductee)

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner in the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

The 2014 season will be Bill Brown's 28th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Houston Astros. Brown, also known as "Brownie," joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career. Brown was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on No.v 12, 2004.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranked as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENE CARDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cardenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cardenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cardenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cardenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cardenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. He now writes for La Prensa, as well as the Astros Gameday Magazine and La Voz. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former LA Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

ALEX TREVINO (2014 inductee)

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth .He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. As of 2014, his 19 seasons in the broadcast booth were the second-most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, trailing only Orlando Sanchez Diago's 21 years. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of seven Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

Harry Shattuck (2015 inductee)

Long-time sportswriter for the Houston Chronicle, Harry Shattuck, was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 23, 2015. Shattuck covered the Astros beat for the Houston Chronicle for several seasons. Shattuck worked in the newspaper business for the Houston Chronicle for parts of four decades from 1970-2009. He began covering the Astros in 1970 and served as the Chronicle's beat writer from 1972-1985. He moved on to serve as the Chronicle's national baseball writer (1985-88), the assistant sports editor (1989-93) and the travel editor (1993-09) before his retirement. In his distinguished career, Shattuck covered 14 World Series, was the former chairman of the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA and voted for the Baseball Hall of Fame for over 30 years. While on the Astros beat, Shattuck covered the team during the tumultuous change in team ownership in 1976 and during the Astros 1980's playoff appearances.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Jeff is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jeff Bagwell is the only player in franchise history to win the NL Most Valuable Player award. He and Carlos Correa (AL) are the only players in club history who have captured the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year award. Astro pitchers have captured the Cy Young Award three times, Dallas Keuchel in 2015 (AL), Mike Scott in 1986 (NL) and Roger Clemens in 2004 (NL). Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

HOUSTON'S FIRST HOME RUNS

The first home run ever hit by a Houston player in the National League came on Opening Day in 1962, April 10. Roman Mejias connected off Chicago pitcher Don Cardwell in the third inning with two men on base. Mejias also homered off Al Lary in the eighth inning with two more men on to account for the third Colt .45s home run of the game. Hal Smith had hit one in the third inning.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

1. Jeff Bagwell 234
2. Lance Berkman..... 153
3. Craig Biggio..... 143
4. Jimmy Wynn 97
5. Carlos Lee.....74
6. Glenn Davis 72
7. Morgan Ensberg.....65
8. Cesar Cedeno 64
9. Doug Rader 63
10. Richard Hidalgo 54

ATLANTA. . . . . .1 GAME

The Astros knocked Atlanta out of the playoffs for the second season in a row as Houston won the 2005 NLDS in four games. Chris Burke and Roger Clemens emerged as the heroes of the clinching Game 4, the longest game in postseason history. In the bottom of the 18th inning, Burke snapped a 6-6 tie and won the game with a solo home run, ending an 8.0-inning scoreless streak by both teams. Clemens earned the win after pitching 3.0 scoreless innings, on three day's rest in his first relief appearance in 21 years. Lance Berkman socked an 8th-inning grand slam to bring the Astros within one run, and with two outs in the bottom of the 9th, Brad Ausmus sent the contest into extra-innings with a game-tying solo home run. The decisive Game 4 lasted a postseason-record five hours and 50 minutes and the teams used an NLDS-record 42 combined players.

A five-run outburst in the 8th inning made Game 1 a blowout in the Astros favor, as Houston took a 1-0 series advantage with a 10-5 win. Morgan Ensberg led the attack with five RBI and three hits while Andy Pettitte earned the win. Craig Biggio doubled and scored three times as the Astros banged out 11 hits.

Atlanta secured its only win in Game 2 as the Braves scored five times off losing pitcher Roger Clemens in a 7-1 contest. Brian McCann hit a three-run homer and Adam LaRoche belted a two-run double as the Braves evened the series at one game apiece. John Smoltz allowed one run over 7.0 innings and set a Major League record with his 15th postseason win.

Roy Oswalt pitched into the 8th inning of Game 3 and earned the win as the Astros took a 2-1 lead in the series. Houston set an NLDS record with seven doubles, including three by Craig Biggio, tying a postseason record. Mike Lamb broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning and put the Astros ahead for good with his third career postseason home run.

2005 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ST. LOUIS . . . . . 2 GAMES

Houston advanced to its first World Series after 44 years as the Astros defeated the Cardinals 4-2 in the 2005 NLCS. Roy Oswalt earned MVP honors as he picked up wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6. Oswalt allowed only two runs in the series, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA and 12 strikeouts in 14.0 innings. Craig Biggio led the Astros with eight hits in the series and Chris Burke led the team with five runs scored.

Game 6 was decided in St. Louis, with Oswalt allowing three hits over 7.0 innings to earn the win. Houston had 11 hits, including a home run by Jason Lane, in the 5-1 clinching game. Brad Ausmus went 3x4 in the contest and finished with a .318 NLCS average.

In Game 5, the Astros led 4-2 in the 9th and were on the verge of advancing to the club's first World Series when Albert Pujols smashed a three-run home run off Brad Lidge, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 comeback win. The blast by Pujols forced Game 6 and gave Lidge his first career postseason loss after going 1-0 with six saves to start his October career. Lance Berkman gave the Astros the lead in the 7th with a three-run home run off Chris Carpenter before St. Louis mounted its comeback.

St. Louis won the opening game of the series by a score of 5-3, but the Astros bounced back with wins in Games 2, 3 and 4 to take a 3-1 advantage overall. Reggie Sanders shined for the Cardinals in Game 1, with a home run and two RBI, as Andy Pettitte took the loss. Oswalt earned the win and Chris Burke homered in Game 2 as the Astros knocked off St. Louis 4-1. Brad Lidge earned a 2.0-inning save and struck out three of the seven batters he faced.

Roger Clemens allowed two runs over 6.0 innings and was the winning pitcher in Game 3. Mike Lamb led the Astros offense, going 2x4 with a double, a home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Astros batters managed 11 hits and Lidge nailed down his second save of the series.

After trailing 1-0 in the 4th inning, the Astros battled back to win Game 4, 2-1. Jason Lane tied the contest at one with a solo home run in the 4th and Morgan Ensberg put the Astros ahead with a sacrifice fly in the 7th. Chad Qualls entered in the 7th and earned the win with a perfect inning of work. Lidge closed out the game and picked up his third save of the series.

MORE THAN JUST A GAME.

HOUSTON . . . . . .0 GAMES

National League Champions for the first time in club history, the Houston Astros fell short in their first World Series appearance against the Chicago White Sox. For the series, the Astros were outscored just 20-14 in four games, marking the lowest run-differential in a World Series sweep since 1950. Two of the four games were decided by two runs and two were decided by a lone run, including the series finale. In Game 4, World Series MVP Jermaine Dye singled home the game's only run in the 8th inning to make the score 1-0. Brandon Backe battled through 7.0 scoreless frames, but Brad Lidge took the loss, falling to 0-2 in the World Series.

Roger Clemens had to exit Game 1 in the 2nd inning with a left hamstring strain as the Astros lost 5-3. Mike Lamb homered and Lance Berkman tied the game early with a two-run double, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a home run in the 4th. Jose Contreras nailed down the win for Chicago and Bobby Jenks earned his first save of the series.

Game 2 was decided in the bottom of the 9th inning on a Scott Podsednik home run. With the game tied at six and the Astros two outs away from forcing extra innings, Podsednik hit a home run off Lidge, giving the White Sox a 2-0 lead in the series. Morgan Ensberg homered in the 2nd and Berkman drove in two runs to stake the Astros to a 4-2 advantage, but Houston lost its lead on Paul Konerko's 7th-inning grand slam.

After five hours and 41 minutes and 14 innings, the Astros lost the longest game (time; tied in terms of innings) in World Series history by a score of 7-5. The Astros spotted Roy Oswalt four runs in the first 3.0 innings, but Oswalt was unable to hold the lead as the White Sox rallied for five runs in the 5th. Jason Lane hit a home run and drove in two, including the tying run off Dustin Hermanson in the 8th. Chad Qualls tossed 3.0 innings of scoreless relief before Ezequiel Astacio allowed Geoff Blum's game-winning homer in the 14th. The Astros pitching staff had gone 8.0 consecutive innings without allowing a run.

NEW YORK (AL) .....0 GAMES

In what was their first postseason game in 10 years, the Astros took down the Yankees by a score of 3-0 in a winner-take-all contest at Yankee Stadium.

Houston was led by the eventual 2015 AL Cy Young Award winner, Dallas Keuchel, who turned in a masterful performance in his first career postseason start in front of a crowd of 50,113 fans. Keuchel stymied the Bronx Bombers all night, racking up 6.0 scoreless innings while allowing just four batters to reach base (three hits, one walk). The southpaw struck out seven batters and generated six groundball outs, and became the third pitcher in club history to toss at least 6.0 shutout innings in his postseason debut.

Trade-deadline acquisition Carlos Gomez, who had been battling through an intercostal injury throughout the final month of the regular season and into the playoffs, launched another first-pitch homer off Tanaka, this time to begin the 4th inning.

The Astros stretched their lead to 3-0 on a Jose Altuve RBI-single off shutdown reliever Dellin Betances, scoring pinch runner Jonathan Villar who was on second base following a crucial steal.

Tony Sipp, Will Harris, and closer Luke Gregerson held the Yankees hitless over the final 3.0 frames of the contest, with Gregerson securing the save with a perfect 9th inning and sending the Astros to the American League Division Series.

The win marked the Astros first postseason victory since clinching the NL pennant in Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS. It also marked Houston's fifth postseason shutout in franchise history, and their first on the road.

2015 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

KANSAS CITY.....3 GAMES
HOUSTON .....2 GAMES

Houston took on the Kansas City Royals in the 2015 American League Division Series, bringing the series to five games but ultimately falling, 3-2, to the eventual Wold Series Champs. The Astros held a lead in every game of the series, and were on the brink of advancing to the ALCS with a four-run lead in the 8th inning of Game 4. But a number of late game rallies by the Royals and a legendary pitching performance from Johnny Cueto in Game 5 sealed the series for Kansas City.

The Astros got off to a great start to the series by taking Game 1 in Kansas City by a score of 5-2. Collin McHugh persevered through a 49 minute rain delay, pitching 6.0 strong innings and allowing just two runs in the win. Colby Rasmus continued his postseason heroics with a home run, Jose Altuve had three hits and George Springer went 2x4 with a homer.

In Game 2, Kansas City knotted up the series with a 5-4 win, erasing the Astros two-run lead with a two-run 6th inning, and a one-run 7th inning. Colby Rasmus homered for his third consecutive postseason game.

The Astros returned home for Game 3 and rode a masterful performance from the 2015 AL Cy Young Award winner Dallas Keuchel (1ER/7IP) to a 4-2 victory. Chris Carter led the offense for Houston by homering and going 3x3, while Jason Castro drove in two runs.

In Game 4, the Astros were just one win away from advancing to the ALCS, but could not hold on to a 6-2, 8th inning lead. Facing elimination, the Royals put together a five-run 8th inning, before tacking on two runs in the 9th to secure a 9-6 victory and a Game 5 in Kansas City. Despite the loss, Astros rookie shortstop Carlos Correa became the youngest player in AL history to hit multiple homers in a postseason game, as the 21-year-old went 4x4 with a double, two home runs and four RBI.

Both clubs returned to Kansas City for Game 5, and the Royals were able to capture the win on their home field in front of 40,566 fans. Facing trade deadline acquisition Johnny Cueto, Luis Valbuena put Houston out in front early with a 2nd-inning, two run homer. But after that at-bat, Cueto settled down to hold the Astros hitless over the next 6.0 frames, leading Kansas City to a 7-2 victory and their second consecutive ALCS berth.

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

1968 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

The 2016 season marks the Astros 32nd and final Spring Training at Osceola County Stadium, the fifth-longest tenure in the Majors at a Florida spring home.

The Astros have been training at OCS since 1985, when they moved from their previous location in Cocoa, Fla.

When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as a blueprint for many teams as they built new spring facilities. The stadium and complex has been more than the Astros Spring Training home for the past 30 seasons, it has also played host to many local civic events.

In 2009, the complex also became the home venue of the newly-affiliated Gulf Coast League Astros.

The current lease agreement will keep the Astros in the upgraded Kissimmee facility through this season. Houston first conducted Spring Training in Apache Junction, Ariz. (1962-63), before moving to Cocoa in 1964.

THE BALLPARK OF THE PALM BEACHES

A groundbreaking ceremony for The Ballpark of the Palm Beaches, the future, state-of-the-art Spring Training home of the Houston Astros and Washington Nationals, was held on Nov. 11, 2015, in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Major League Baseball Commissioner Rob Manfred took part in the ceremony along with Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, Astros General Manager Jeff Luhnow, Nationals Owner Mark Lerner and Nationals General Manager Mike Rizzo. Mayor Shelly Vana (Palm Beach County) and Mayor Jeri Muoio (West Palm Beach) also were a part of the ceremony.

Representatives from the Astros and Nationals joined government officials in the ceremonial groundbreaking by digging shovels into sand on a miniature baseball diamond.

The new facility, which will be located at 5398 Haverhill Road and will feature separate, modern training complexes for the Astros and Nationals, is scheduled to be completed by January of 2017. Each complex on the 160-acre site will include several baseball diamonds, clubhouses, weight-training facilities and offices for front office personnel. The main ballpark, which will be shared by the two clubs, will include several fan-friendly amenities.

"Getting a new Spring Training facility was high on our list of priorities," Crane said. "A lot of hard work went into getting this done. We appreciate the great support we've received from the County and the Governor. We will have a first-class facility that will be great for our players and will have a great impact on this neighborhood."

"This project was crucial," Manfred said. "I give Jim Crane and Mark Lerner a ton of credit for finding a location, getting the project done and ensuring the future of Spring Training baseball in Southeast Florida.

The seating area of The Ballpark of the Palm Beaches will hold over 6,400 fans while the berm area will hold an additional 1,250.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- provide photo identification and sign in at the media entrance.
- allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

- clearly display working credentials at all times.
- allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

All 2016 season credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros regular season, Spring Training and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with their photo season credential or BBWAA credential. Contact the Astros media relations department at (713) 259-8900 with any questions.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Club Level and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance prior to the opening of gates, and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Located on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a $12 charge per meal. Media dining is open for service 2.5 hours prior to first pitch to accredited members of the media. Spouses/children are not allowed in media dining room. Cash and credit card accepted.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible by the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball. Clubhouses are open 3.5 hours before game time and close once the team takes the field for batting practice when the team hits outside. When the team does not hit outside, club uses discretion on when to close the clubhouse.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball -- in play or dead -- should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the entrance of the press box on the Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame notes will be available in the same area after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from club media relations representatives and are available online at the MLB Pressbox website.

TELEPHONES: Land-line phones are available for media use in the main press areas upon request.

WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Minute Maid Park. Contact the media relations department for details.

ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is www.astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, www.mlb.com, can also be accessed via www.astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, www.astrosdehouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.

MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto www.mlbpressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD quality video, hi-resolution logos for MLB and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros should register on the MLB Pressbox site, and all media credential requests for Astros games are now handled through MLB Pressbox.

BILL BROWN

TV BROADCASTER

The 2016 season marks Bill Brown's 30th as the club's primary play-by-play voice on television. A veteran of more than 30 years of broadcasting MLB games, Bill has been honored several times over the course of his career.

- The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association honored Bill with its Sportscaster of the Year Award in Texas for 2013. He received the award in June of 2014 at a ceremony in Salisbury, N.C.
- Bill was presented with the Fred Hartman Award for Long and Meritorious Service at the 2012 Houston Baseball Dinner.
- He was inducted into the Houston Media Wall of Honor in September 2011.
- He was honored by the Astros with a pregame ceremony in June of 2011, recognizing his 25 seasons with the club.
- Brown was honored by the Texas Italian-American Sports Foundation, receiving an award for "outstanding accomplishments as a television broadcaster for the Houston Astros and community service".
- Bill joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was Sports Director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised selected games of the Reds, Royals and Cardinals.
- Brown spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82.
- He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004.
- Bill is a member of the Advisory Board at Houston Sight into Sound and has been a volunteer reader for 24 years.
- Bill and his wife Dianne have been involved with "Salute to Our Heroes," a fundraiser for scholarships for the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation, for six years.
- Bill co-wrote two books. The first, My Baseball Journey, A Sportscaster's Story co-authored by Tim Gregg, documents his career and personal influences (2012), and the second, Houston Astros: Deep in the Heart co-authored by Mike Acosta, gives a pictorial history of the Houston Astros organization from inception to its 50th anniversary (2013).
- Brown and Dianne reside in Houston. They have one daughter, Allison, and three grandchildren: Luke (14), Emma Kate (12) and Caitlynn (9).

ALAN ASHBY

TV BROADCASTER

- Prior to joining the Astros, Ashby had been calling games on radio and television for the Toronto Blue Jays for six seasons (2007-12).
- Ashby's hiring marks a return to Houston for the popular former Astros player and radio broadcaster. Ashby spent 11 of his 17 Major League seasons as a catcher with the Astros from 1979-89, during which he was a part of three postseason teams. From 1998-2006, Ashby worked as the Astros color analyst on radio alongside Hall of Famer Milo Hamilton.
- Prior to his broadcasting career, Ashby served as a coach and minor league manager in the Astros farm system. As part of the club's 50th anniversary celebration in 2012, Ashby was named to the Astros All-Time 25-man roster. Previously, he was named to the All-Time Astrodome team in 1999, and in 2000 was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Ashby compiled a career average of .245 with 90 home runs and 513 RBI in 1370 games, and caught three no-hitters (Ken Forsch, Nolan Ryan, Mike Scott).
- Ashby currently resides in Houston, which has been his home since 1979. He is married to wife Kathryn, is the father of six children and proud grandfather of 17 grandchildren.

GEOFF BLUM

TV BROADCASTER

Geoff Blum returns for his fourth season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2016. Blum, who retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.

- During his playing career, Blum had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10).
- A switch-hitter, Blum was known as one of the top pinch hitters and utility players in the game, appearing at all four infield positions for nine straight seasons (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason in three seasons (2005-06, 2011).
- In 2005, he hit a go-ahead solo home run in the 14th inning in Game 3 of the World Series to become the 30th player to homer in his first World Series at-bat.
- Geoff and his wife, Kory, have four daughters: Mia Lea and triplets Ava, Audrey and Kayla.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

- The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.
- If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.
- If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.
  - > The roof may only open once during a game.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
  - > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 2016 season marks the 17th season of baseball at Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the 2005 World Series, the 2014 Civil Rights Game, major concert events, weddings, graduations and galas.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 39 million visitors during the facility's 16-season tenure.

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home – the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activites, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated that the popular Minute Maid Squeeze Play attraction at the ballpark will continue for the length of the 28-year agreement, along with pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

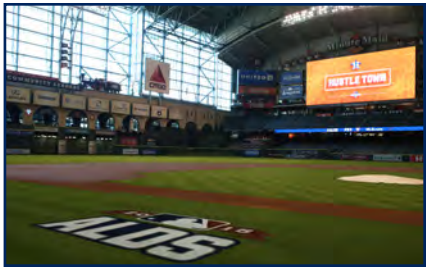

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Three wall heights, various angles in the corners and power alleys, a 10-degree, uphill slope – "Tal's Hill"– for a center field warning track, and a flag pole in the field of play, create unique sources for any ball that gets past an outfielder.

Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Senior Director, Major League Field Operations Dan Bergstrom and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

SPECIAL AMENITIES: Inside the ballpark, the "FiveSeven Grille" center field restaurant and sports bar offers restaurant or outdoor seating options for fans seeking a one-of-a-kind dining experience. The Minute Maid Squeeze Play area along the right field line provides children with a fun, safe, interactive experience. The Clock Tower near home plate, along Texas Avenue is a popular gathering point for fans, and it also features a carillon to provide music at appropriate times of the day.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chef Bryan Caswell who has partnered with Aramark the past four seasons to bring his signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Daktronics, one of the world's largest suppliers of electronic boards, is the company responsible for the Astros new boards. The new state-of-the-art HD video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions that is unlike anything in Major League Baseball.
